of Twilight Richard Seaver, 2012-01-03 From Beckett to Burroughs The Story of O to The Autobiography of Malcolm X an iconic literary troublemaker tells the colorful stories behind the stories Richard Seaver came to Paris in 1950 seeking Hemingway's moveable feast Paris had become a different city traumatized by World War II yet the red wine still flowed the caf's bustled and the Parisian women found American men exotic and heroic There was an Irishman in Paris writing plays and novels unlike anything anyone had ever read but hardly anyone was reading them There were others too doing equivalently groundbreaking work for equivalently small audiences So when his friends launched a literary magazine Merlin Seaver knew this was his calling to bring the work of the likes of Samuel Beckett Eugene Ionesco and Jean Genet to the world The Korean War ended all that the navy had paid for college and it was time to pay them back After two years at sea Seaver washed ashore in New York City with a beautiful French wife and a wider sense of the world than his compatriots The only young literary man with the audacity to match Seaver's own was Barney Rosset of Grove Press. A remarkable partnership was born, one that would demolish U.S. censorship laws with inimitable joie de vivre as Seaver and Rosset introduced American readers to Lady Chatterley's Lover, Henry Miller's Story of O, William Burroughs's The Autobiography of Malcolm X and more. As publishing hurtles into its uncertain future, The Tender Hour of Twilight is a stirring reminder of the passion, the vitality and even the glamour of a true life in literature.

Print and the Poetics of Modern Drama W. B. Worthen, 2005. In Print and the Poetics of Modern Drama, W. B. Worthen asks how the print form of drama bears on how we understand its dual identity.

Pinter Martin Esslin, 2022-09-01. First published in 1977, the third edition of Pinter is an excellent analysis of Harold Pinter and his works. Written when Pinter was only a few plays old, the book draws on several sources, including interviews with Pinter himself, to comment on Pinter's career, his aesthetic and philosophical choices and his oeuvre as a writer. The section devoted to his individual plays has been arranged in a chronological manner to visually represent the growth of the playwright and the relationship shared between his early and later works. Esslin, known for coining the term theatre of the absurd, was himself an inspiration to Pinter, and hence the book records an intellectual and creative exchange between the author and his subject. The book will be of interest to students of literature, drama history as well as to an academically inclined theatre audience.

Modern British Playwriting: The 1960s Steve Nicholson, 2013-12-02. Essential for students of theatre studies, Methuen Drama's Decades of Modern British Playwriting series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1950s to 2009 in six volumes. Each volume features a critical analysis and reevaluation of the work of four key playwrights from that decade, authored by a team of experts together with an extensive commentary on the period. The 1960s was a decade of seismic changes in British theatre as in society at large. This important new study in Methuen Drama's Decades of Modern British Playwriting series explores how theatre makers responded to the changes in society Together with a thorough survey of the theatrical activity of the decade it offers detailed reassessments of the work of four of the leading playwrights The 1960s volume provides in depth studies of the work of four of the major playwrights who came to prominence Edward Bond by Steve Nicholson John Arden Bill McDonnell Harold Pinter Jamie Andrews and Alan Ayckbourn Frances Babbage It examines their work then its legacy today and how critical consensus has changed over time

Harold Pinter's Politics Charles Grimes, 2005 Harold Pinter's Politics examines the expression of Pinter's political beliefs across every aspect and era of his artistic career The fierce political stances of this important dramatist have been embodied in plays screenplays and his career as a theatrical director Traditionally associated with absurdism minimalism and the dramatization of uncertainty Pinter's name is now a byword for anti authoritarian and anti American politics This transition has been in evidence from the earliest phases of his writing all of Pinter's work emerges from his political views His uniqueness as a political artist is that he is pessimistic about changing his audience or making it see its complicity in the horrors of the modern world These horrors are dramatized through images of torture and oppression culminating in moments of silence that index the full extent of the destruction unleashed by the forces of power against dissidence

Contemporary Dramatists, 1993 Psychology in Human Context Sigmund Koch, 1999-07 Sigmund Koch 1917-1996 was one of the twentieth century's most penetrating and wide ranging critics of the scientific ambitions of psychology Writing in a style sometimes scathing sometimes witty always lucid he decried any psychology that attempted to eradicate the human dimension from the study scientific and otherwise of human experience and action A philosopher and humanist by nature Koch also sought to change the multifaceted field of psychology by moving it closer to the humanities and arts The broad scope of essays in Psychology in Human Context which began as the basis for the eagerly anticipated postscript to Koch's seminal Psychology A Study of a Science reveals his writings to be as fresh and relevant today as ever Carefully edited by two of Koch's close associates this collection places psychological and philosophical issues in the context of twentieth century thought and provides intellectual and moral signposts for future travelers in what Koch regarded as the irreducibly rich and human realm of the psychological studies Sigmund Koch was University Professor of Psychology and Philosophy at Boston University the editor of the landmark six volume series Psychology A Study of a Science 1959-1963 and coeditor of A Century of Psychology as Science He served as the president of three divisions of the American Psychological Association and was director of the Ford Foundation program in the Humanities and the Arts 1964-1967
