The Ancient Sea Hamish Williams, Ross Clare, 2022-11-17 In the ancient Mediterranean world the sea was an essential domain for trade cultural exchange communication exploration and colonisation In tandem with the lived reality of this maritime space a parallel experience of the sea emerged in narrative representations from ancient Greece and Rome of the sea as a cultural imaginary This imaginary seems often to oscillate between two extremes the utopian and the catastrophic such representations can be found in narratives from ancient history philosophy society and literature as well as in their post classical receptions Utopia can be found in some imaginary island paradise far away and across the distant sea the sea can hold an unknown mysterious divine wealth below its surface and the sea itself as a powerful watery body can hold a liberating potential The utopian quality of the sea and seafaring can become a powerful metaphor for articulating political notions of the ideal state or for expressing an individual's sense of hope and subjectivity Yet the catastrophic sea balances any perfective imaginings the sea threatens coastal inhabitants with floods tsunamis and earthquakes and sailors with storms and the accompanying monsters From symbolic perspectives the catastrophic sea represents violence instability the savage and even cosmological chaos The twelve papers in this volume explore the themes of utopia and catastrophe in the liminal environment of the sea through the lens of history philosophy literature and classical reception Contributors Manuel Ivaréz Mart Aguilar Vilius Bartninkas Aaron L Beek Ross Clare Gabriele Cornelli Isaia Crosson Ryan Denson Rhiannon Easterbrook Emilia Mataix Ferr ndiz Georgia L Irby Simona Martorana Guy Middleton Hamish Williams Ford Madox Ford's Parade's End Ashley Chantler, Rob Hawkes, 2014-07-10

The controversial British writer Ford Madox Ford 1873 1939 is increasingly recognized as a major presence in early twentieth century literature This series of International Ford Madox Ford Studies was founded to reflect the recent resurgence of interest in him Each volume is based upon a particular theme issue or work and relates aspects of Ford s writing life and contacts to broader concerns of his time Ford is best known for his fiction especially The Good Soldier long considered a modernist masterpiece and Parade s End which Anthony Burgess described as the finest novel about the First World War Samuel Hynes has called the greatest war novel ever written by an Englishman and which was adapted by Tom Stoppard for the acclaimed 2012 BBC HBO television series starring Benedict Cumberbatch and Rebecca Hall Parade s End is the subject of the fifteen essays here by both established experts and new scholars The volume includes groundbreaking work on the psycho geography of the war in Ford s novels on how the war intensifies self consciousness about performance and sensation and on the other writers and artists Ford drew upon and argued with in producing his post war masterpiece

Touring Performance and Global Exchange 1850-1960 Gilli Bush-Bailey, Kate Flaherty, 2021-12-30 This collection uncovers connections and coincidences that challenge the old stories of pioneering performers who crossed the Atlantic and Pacific oceans from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century It investigates songlines drama opera music theatre dance and circus removing traditional boundaries that separate studies of performance and celebrating difference and transformation in style intention and delivery Well known or obscure travelling performers faced dangers at sea and hazardous journeys across land Their tracks made in pursuit of fortune and fame intersected with those made by earlier storytellers in search for food Touring Performance and Global Exchange takes a fresh look at such tracks the material remains demonstrating that moving performance does far more than transfer repertoires and people it transforms them Touring performance has too often been conceived in diasporic terms as a fixed product radiating out from a cultural centre This collection maps different patterns ones that comprise reversed flows cross currents and continually proliferating centres of meaning in complex networks of global exchange This collection will be of great interest to scholars and students in theatre music drama studies and cultural history Politics, performance and popular culture Peter Yeandle, Jeffrey Richards, Katherine Newey, 2016-09-23 This collection brings together studies of popular performance and politics across the nineteenth century offering a fresh perspective from an archivally grounded research base It works with the concept that politics is performative and performance is political The book is organised into three parts in dialogue regarding specific approaches to popular performance and politics Part I offers a series of conceptual studies using popular culture as an analytical category for social and political history Part II explores the ways that performance represents and constructs contemporary ideologies of race nation and empire Part III investigates the performance techniques of specific politicians including Robert Peel Keir Hardie and Henry Hyndman and analyses the performative elements of collective movements
