Lewis argues that the aesthetic and cultural forms to which Benjamin so often turned namely radio broadcasts children's theatrical productions collections cityscapes public cinemas and word games swell with educational potentialities What emerges from Lewis's reading is a constellational curriculum composed of minor practices such as poor teaching absentminded learning and nondurational studying This curriculum carries political significance offering an antidote to past and present forms of fascist manipulation hardness and coldness Walter Benjamin's Antifascist Education is a testimony to Benjamin's belief that everyone is an educator and everyone needs to be educated and everything is education

Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed, 2019-02-14 We live today within a system in which state and corporate power aim to render space flat transparent and uniform for only then can it be truly controlled The gaze of power and the commodity form are capable of infiltrating even the darkest of corners and often we invite them into our most private spaces We do so as a matter of convenience but also to placate ourselves and cope with the alienation inherent in our everyday lives The resulting dominant space can best be termed totalitarian It is space stripped of uniqueness deprived of the spatial aura necessary for authentic experience In Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed sets out to help us grasp what has been lost before no trace remains He draws attention to that which we might prefer not to see but despite the bleakness of this indictment of reality the book also offers a message of hope Namely it is only once we comprehend the magnitude of the threat to our spatial experience and our own complicity in sustaining this system that we can begin to resist the totalizing forces at work

Hobohemia and the Crucifixion Machine Todd McCallum,2014-12-28 In the early years of the Great Depression thousands of unemployed homeless transients settled into Vancouver s hobo jungle The jungle operated as a distinct community in which goods were exchanged and shared directly without benefit of currency The organization of life was immediate and consensual conducted in the absence of capital accumulation But as the transients moved from the jungles to the city they made innumerable demands on Vancouver s Relief Department consuming financial resources at a rate that threatened the city with bankruptcy In response the municipality instituted a card control system no longer offering relief recipients currency to do with as they chose It also implemented new investigative and assessment procedures including office spies to weed out organizational inefficiencies McCallum argues that threatened by this ungovernable society Vancouver s Relief Department employed Fordist management methods that ultimately stripped the transients of their individuality Vancouver s municipal government entered into contractual relationships with dozens of private businesses tendering bids for meals in much the same fashion as for printing jobs and construction projects As a result entrepreneurs clamoured to get their share of the state spending With the emergence of work relief camps the provincial government harnessed the only currency that homeless men possessed their muscle This new form of unfree labour aided the province in developing its tourist driven image economy as well as facilitating the transportation of natural resources and manufactured goods It also led eventually to the most significant

Written as a wake up call to the field of media studies The Message is Murder analyses the violence bound up in the everyday functions of digital media At its core is the concept of computational capital the idea that capitalism itself is a computer turning qualities into quantities and that the rise of digital culture and technologies under capitalism should be seen as an extension of capitalism s bloody logic Engaging with Borges Turing Claude Shannon Hitchcock and Marx this book tracks computational capital to reveal the lineages of capitalised power as it has restructured representation consciousness and survival in the twentieth and twenty first centuries It argues that the global intensification of inequality relies on the discursive informatic and screen mediated production of social difference Ultimately The Message is Murder makes the case for recognising media communications across all platforms books films videos photographs and even language itself as technologies of political economy entangled with the social contexts of a capitalism that is inherently racial gendered and genocidal I Think I Am Laurence A. Rickels,2010 Aside from its perfect fit of critic and subject Laurence A Rickels s book provides the most thorough and exhaustive reading of Philip K Dick s literary work that exists He goes through all the novels literally both the science fiction works and the so called mainstream novels Dick did not publish in his lifetime The reader of science fiction should welcome a book like this which is both knowledgeable of the SF tradition tradition and creatively analytical I could not put this book down once I began to read it George Slusser University of California Riverside textiles and emerges from the reading of photographs a swatch of Harris Tweed and curtain wall facade juxtaposed In juxtaposing the fabric of the city with the weave of Harris Tweed the book charts an original course across a range of connected ideas and questions combining many different themes writers and disciplines It presents integrated and innovative rethinkings on a number of fundamental relationships including correlations between body and building word and image and between the rural and the metropolitan and the hand crafted and the mass reproduced In doing so it seeks to foreground the very interrelationship of surface and place as it makes a claim for the relational nature of the world in which we live
