The Global South and comparative and international education Charl C. Wolhuter ,2023-04-30 This book proposes and unpacks the construct Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the scholarly field of Comparative and International Education as bringing together a number of related strands in the field and as showing a promising future trajectory for the evolution of the field namely the affirmation of the Global South This construct captures a significant amount of what leading scholars in the field of Comparative and International Education are currently engaged with It also expresses a view of both the current epoch of education as well as of the societal contextual imperatives shaping education Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the field comes to the fore in a number of related strands in the current discourse in the field This scholarly book originates from the Research Unit of Human Rights Education in Diversity at North West University South Africa where the author is affiliated The book is grounded in the Creed for Human Rights From this perspective the book advocates for a new phase in the historical development of the field with a focus on advancing the affirmation of the Global South as a central moral foundation The author envisions that this shift will represent a significant advancement in Comparative and International Education propelling it to an unprecedented stage of value and importance

The Transnational in the History of Education Eckhardt Fuchs,Eugenia Roldán Vera,2019-05-25 This edited volume reflects on how the transnational features in education as well as policies and practices are conceived of as mobile and connected beyond the local Like globalization the transnational is much more than a static reality of the modern world it has become a mode of observation and self reflection that informs education research history and policy in many world regions This book examines the sociocultural project that the transnational turn evident in historical scholarship of the last few decades represents and how a transnational history shapes how historians construct their objects of study It does so from a multinational perspective yet with a view of the different layers of historical meanings associated with the concept of the transnational

The Oxford Handbook of Education and Globalization Paola Mattei,Xavier Dumay,Eric Mangez,Jacqueline Behrend,2023 The Oxford Handbook on Education and Globalization brings together in a unique way leading authors in social theory and in political science and reflects on how these two disciplines deal with the relation between globalization and education The handbook develops a firmer and tighter dialogue between social theory and education research and analyzes the political and institutional factors that shape the adoption of global reforms in education at multiple levels of governance It is a must read for anyone looking for a comprehensive overview of how globalization and education interact to result in distinct and varying outcomes across world regions
