Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration Lydia Wilkes, Lilian W. Mina, Patti Poblete, 2023-02-15 The field of writing program administration has long been a space rich in metaphor From plate twirling to fire extinguishing parents to dungeon masters and much more the work of a WPA extends to horizons unknown Responding to the constraints of austerity Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new lenses for established WPAs and provides aspiring and early career WPAs with a sense of the range of responsibilities and opportunities in their academic and professional spaces This volume presents twelve chapters that reclaim and revise established metaphors offer new metaphors based on sustainable relational or emotional labor practices and phenomena and reveal the improvisational artisanal nature of WPA work Chapters resonate across three sections The first section focuses on organic relationships captured in phrases like putting out fires and seeing forests for the trees alongside unexpected comparisons to ground and light The second describes institutional landscapes featuring generative juxtapositions such as the WPA as a labor activist or a mapper of emotional geography And the third discusses performance crafts like improv comedy and artisanal making Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new and revised ways of thinking and acting for WPAs who are constantly negotiating the paradoxical demands of their work and continually striving to act ethically in conflicted and even fraught situations It will inspire practicing aspiring and former WPAs working in a time of transformation by highlighting more sustainable ways of enacting WPA identity Contributors Jacob Babb John Belk Katherine Daily O Meara Ryan J Dippre Douglas Hesse Andrew Hollinger Rona Kaufman Cynthia D Mwenja Manny Pi a Scott Rogers Robyn Tasaka Alexis Teagarden Christy I Wenger Lydia Wilkes

WPAs in Transition Courtney Adams Wooten, Jacob Babb, Brian Ray, 2018-04-23 WPAs in Transition shares a wide variety of professional and personal perspectives about the costs benefits struggles and triumphs experienced by writing program administrators making transitions into and out of leadership positions Contributors to the volume come from various positions as writing center directors assistant writing program administrators and WPAs mixed settings including community colleges small liberal arts colleges and research institutions and a range of career stages from early to retiring They recount insightful anecdotes and provide a scholarly context in which WPAs can share experiences related to this long ignored aspect of their work During such transitions WPAs and other leaders who function as both administrators and faculty face the professional and personal challenges of redefining who they are the work they do and with whom they collaborate WPAs in Transition creates a grounded and nuanced experiential understanding of what it means to navigate changing roles advancing the dialogue around WPAs and other administrators identities career paths work life balance and location and is a meaningful addition to the broader literature on administration and leadership Contributors Mark Blaauw Hara Christopher Blankenship Jennifer Riley Campbell Nicole I Caswell Richard Colby Steven J Corbett Beth Daniell Laura J Davies Jaquelyn Davis Holland Enke Letizia Guglielmo Beth Huber Karen Keaton Jackson Rebecca Jackson Tereza Joy Kramer Jackie Grutsch McKinney Kerri K Morris Liliana M Naydan Reyna Olegario Kate Pantelides Talinn Phillips Andrea Scott Paul Shovlin Bradley Smith Cheri Lemieux Spiegel Sarah Stanley Amy Rupiper Taggart Molly Tetreault Megan L Titus Chris Warnick

Conceptions of Literacy Meaghan Brewer, 2020-05-01 Addressing the often fraught and truncated nature of educating new writing instructors Conceptions of Literacy proposes a theoretical framework for examining new graduate student instructors preexisting attitudes and beliefs about literacy Based on an empirical study author Meaghan Brewer conducted with graduate students teaching first year composition for the first time Conceptions of Literacy draws on narratives interviews and classroom observations to describe the conceptions of literacy they have already unknowingly established and how these conceptions impact the way they teach in their own classrooms Brewer argues that conceptions of literacy undergird the work of writing instructors and that many of the anxieties around composition studies disciplinary status are related to the differences perceived between the field s conceptions of literacy and those of the graduate instructors and adjuncts who teach the majority of composition courses

Conceptions of Literacy makes practical recommendations for how new graduate instructors can begin to perceive and interrogate their conceptions of literacy which while influential are often too personal to recognize

Our Body of Work Melissa Nicolas, Anna Sicari, 2022-09-15 Our Body of Work invites administrators and teachers to consider how physical bodies inform everyday work and labor as well as research and administrative practices in writing programs Combining academic and personal essays from a wide array of voices it opens a meaningful discussion about the physicality of bodily experiences in the academy Open exchanges enable complex and nuanced conversations about intersectionality and how racism sexism classism and ableism among other isms create systems of power Contributors examine how these conversations are framed around work practices policies and research and identify ways to create inclusive embodied practices in writing programs and classrooms The collection is organized to maximize representation in the areas of race gender identity ability and class by featuring scholarly chapters followed by narratively focused interchapters that respond to and engage with the scholarly work The honest and emotionally powerful stories in Our Body of Work expose problematic and normalizing policies practices and procedures and offer diverse theories and methodologies that provide multiple paths for individuals to follow to make the academy more inclusive and welcoming for all bodies It will be an important resource for researchers as well a valuable addition to graduate and undergraduate syllabi on embodiment writing instruction pedagogy and WPA work Contributors Dena Arendall Janel Atlas Hayat Bedaiwi Elizabeth Boquet Lauren Brentnell Triauna Carey Denise Comer Joshua Daniel Michael Faris Rebecca Gerdes McClain Morgan Gross Nabila Hijazi Jacquelyn Hoermann Elliott Maureen Johnson Jasmine Kar Tang Elitza Kotzeva Michelle LaFrance Jasmine Lee Lynn C Lewis Mary Lourdes Silva Rita Malenczyk Anna Rita Napoleone Julie Prebel Rebecca Rodriguez Carey Ryan Skinnell Trixie Smith Stacey Waite Kelsey Walker Shannon Walters Isaac Wang Jennie Young

Sensemaking for Writing Programs and Writing Centers Rita Malenczyk, 2023-06-15 In this collection writing program and writing center administrators from a range of academic institutions come together to explore their work through the lens of sensemaking Sensemaking is an organizational theory concept that enables institutions supervisors teachers tutors and others to better understand the work they do by using narrative metaphor and other theoretical lenses The book is divided into two sections Sensemaking with Tutors and Teachers and Sensemaking and Institutional Structures Chapter authors employ several theoretical approaches to sensemaking ranging from individual experience to institutional history to document design providing readers with ideas for how to administer and teach within their programs more effectively how to advocate for their programs within larger university contexts and how to positively influence the lives and careers of those they work with Sensemaking for Writing Programs and Writing Centers theorizes daily experiences from working lives and suggests problem solving strategies Writing program administrators writing department chairs and writing center directors tutors and staff will find value in its pages

Productivity, Professionalism, and Parenting in Academia Christine E. Tulley, 2025-04-30 Drawing on time use diary analysis this unique and detailed study fills in the larger narrative about what it takes hour by hour to navigate academic motherhood with a rhetoric and composition career Looking specifically at the intersections between parenting and writing for publication in order to find out how and when writing for career advancing tasks such as publication occur but also through the lens of disciplinary time constraints including heavy grading and administrative workloads the book examines support systems noted within diary entries that make combining motherhood and a career in rhetoric and composition possible Using both quantitative analysis of hours and qualitative coding of time use diaries from rhet comp moms this book answers questions about publishing professionalism and parenting This book will interest scholars and graduate students working in the discipline of rhetoric writing and composition particularly those working on labor and professional issues on gender and equality within the discipline and anyone working in all fields looking for ways to foster a better work life balance

Graduate Students at Work Tessa Brown, 2023-02-28 Graduate Students at Work highlights the expertise and experiences of graduate students to demonstrate what graduate study entails what it makes possible and what it constrains in the context of corporatizing higher education This collection of full length research articles and short personal essays illustrates graduate students experiences organizing tactics and strategies for staying in or moving out of the academy Speaking from personal experience as well as reporting research findings the contributors of Graduate Students at Work illustrate the significant expertise that graduate students are asked to enact in their time intensive jobs as teachers researchers and administrators even as they are kept in poverty wages for the decade or so it takes to move through a master s and doctoral program into the promised land of a tenure track job While these students are the leaders of the academic labor movement they have yet to receive as much attention as adjunct instructors and other laborers in the university system Though they experience harassment discrimination and exploitation graduate students rarely have access to labor protections because they are often misclassified as students not employees a key rhetorical strategy universities use to fight graduate student organizing These essays and articles also draw insightful connections between the labor conditions of graduate student workers and other workers navigating poverty wages labor migration limited benefits and harassment and discrimination around lines of race gender ability and citizenship the most important connection perhaps being the possibility for organization and unionization to fight for better working conditions for all

The New Work of Writing Across the Curriculum Staci M. Perryman-Clark, 2023-08-21 The New Work of Writing Across the Curriculum is a descriptive analysis of how institutions can work to foster stronger intellectual activities around writing as connected to campus wide diversity and inclusion initiatives Author Staci M Perryman Clark blends theory and practice grounds disciplinary conversations with practical examples of campus work and provides realistic expectations for operations with budgetary constraints while enhancing diversity equity and inclusion work in higher education Many of these initiatives are created in isolation reinforcing institutional silos that are not used strategically to gain the attention of senior administrators particularly those working at state supported public institutions who must manage shrinking institutional budgets Yet teaching and learning centers and WAC programs gain tremendously from one another by building explicit partnerships on campus wide diversity initiatives that emphasize cultural competence In addition both cultural competence and written proficiency enhance the transferable skills necessary for completing undergraduate education requirements and this work can be leveraged to draw the attention of senior administrative leadership Faculty development and WAC need to make diversity and inclusion initiatives a priority for professional development The New Work of Writing Across the Curriculum reviews initiatives that point to increased understanding of diversity and inclusion that will be of significance to administrators WAC specialists faculty developers and diversity officers across the spectrum of institutions of higher learning
