The Water In Between A Journey At Sea:

The Water in Between Kevin Patterson, 2002-08-13 A broken heart leads Kevin Patterson to the dock of a sailboat brokerage on Vancouver Island where he stands contemplating the romance of the sea and his heartfelt desire to get away. By the end of the day he finds himself the owner of a thirty seven foot ketch called Sea Mouse. Although he's never really been on the ocean before, aside from the odd ferry ride, he feels compelled to sail to Tahiti and back to burn away his failings in hard miles at sea.

Water in Between Kevin Patterson, 2001-01-01 Offers an account of the author's adventures at sea sailing across the Pacific to Tahiti in a sailboat called the Sea Mouse with another broken hearted companion to escape a failed relationship.

Indonesia Beyond the Water's Edge R. B. Cribb, Michele Ford, 2009 Indonesia is the world's largest archipelagic state with more than 18 000 islands and over 7.9 million square kilometres of sea. The marine frontier presents the nation with both economic opportunities and political and strategic challenges. Indonesia has been affected more than most countries in the world by a slow revolution in the management of its waters. Whereas Indonesia's seas were once conceived administratively as little more than the empty space between islands, successive governments have become aware that this view is outmoded. The effective transfer to the seas of regulatory regimes that took shape on land such as territoriality has been an enduring challenge to Indonesian governments. This book addresses issues related to maritime boundaries and security, marine safety, inter island shipping, the development of the archipelagic concept in international law, marine conservation, illegal fishing and the place of the sea in national and regional identity.

Move Like Water: My Story of the Sea Hannah Stowe, 2023-09-19 Winner 2024 Banff Mountain Book Award for Adventure Travel. A sensuous book, more felt than described, more described than explained, more painted than penned, part memoir, part journal and part natural mystery tour. Carl Safina, The New York Times Book Review. A book to sweep you away from the shore into a wild world of water, whale, storm and starlight to experience what it's like to sail for weeks at a time with life set to a new rhythm. As a young girl, Hannah Stowe was raised at the tide's edge on the Pembrokeshire coast of Wales, falling asleep to the sweep of the lighthouse beam. Now in her midtwenties, working as a marine biologist and sailor, Stowe draws on her professional experiences sailing tens of thousands of miles in the North Sea, North Atlantic, Mediterranean, Celtic Sea and the Caribbean to explore the human relationship with wild waters. Why is it she asks that she and so many others have been drawn to life at sea and what might the water around us be able to teach us. Braiding her powerful and deeply personal narrative and illustrations with stories of six keystone marine creatures: the fire crow, sperm whale, wandering albatross, humpback whale, shearwater and the barnacle. Stowe invites readers to fall in love as she has with the sea and those that call
