Benjamin Dangl

The Water Wars Of El Viejo:

The Water Wars of El Viejo , The Price of Fire Benjamin Dangl, 2010-09 New social movements have emerged in Bolivia over the price of fire access to basic elements of survival like water gas land coca employment and other resources Though these movements helped pave the way to the presidency for indigenous coca grower Evo Morales in 2005 they have made it clear that their fight for self determination doesn't end at the ballot box From the first moments of Spanish colonization to today's headlines The Price of Fire offers a gripping account of clashes in Bolivia between corporate and people's power contextualizing them regionally culturally and historically Fluid Modernity Gilberto Conde, 2022-10-31 Fluid Modernity offers an innovative encompassing historical grasp of the politics of water in the Middle East in the context of modern capitalism and world politics Drawing upon conceptions of power by Foucault and Agamben it examines how water through its modern capitalist production is transformed into a water apparatus that binds people to power In trans boundary watercourses states get involved in the formation of international governmentalities The book revisits the history of fluid modernity in the Middle East from late Ottoman times to the present It focuses on water conflict and cooperation between states Israel and Arab states and Turkey Syria and Iraq on state policies towards subaltern subjects Israel and Turkey in relation to Palestinians and Kurds respectively and on the water politics of rebellious movements After a conceptual chapter discussing fluid modernity the book traces water politics in the region in a diachronic perspective It explores how water diplomacy infrastructure loans reservoir construction discourses of sovereignty and conflict have weighed on the development of governance and governmentality in the region Fluid Modernity will be of great interest to postgraduates researchers academics and intellectuals interested in Middle East Studies Hydropolitics Water and Society Geopolitics Political Theory Resistance as well as to NGOs dealing with water Practicing Ethnography in a Globalizing World June C. Nash, 2007 In this book distinguished anthropologist June Nash demonstrates how ethnography can illuminate a wide array of global problems She describes encounters with an urban U S community undergoing de industrialization with Mandalay rice cultivators accommodating to post World War II independence through animistic practices with Mayans mobilizing for autonomy and with Andean peasants and miners confronting the International Monetary Fund Having worked in a great variety of cultural settings around the world Nash challenges us to expand our anthropological horizons and to think about local problems in a global manner War Department, Office of the Chief of Staff, War College Division, General Staff, 1909 The Lyric, 2002 Freshwaters and Wetlands of Patagonia Gabriela Mataloni, Rubén D. Quintana, 2022-09-29 The Freshwaters of Patagonia adopts a socioecological approach in which experts from across Patagonia review recent scientifically rigorous literature and data of their own thus synthesizing the current knowledge directly relevant to understand the present state and future trends of icefields freshwater and wetland ecosystems in this region The book's organization into three parts provides a studied and comprehensive view on the patterns and processes of the various ecosystems in Patagonia and describes the sociological aspects of freshwater ecosystems as well as characterizes the conservation of the freshwater and wetland ecosystems in Patagonia The chapters offer a broad state of the art overview of the current status of glaciers freshwater and wetland ecosystems of this region as well as studies of both local and large scale biodiversity patterns and study cases of extreme and naturally polluted environments The volume concludes with the current status of Patagonian freshwaters and discusses the scientific legal and administrative tools aimed at their sustainable management within the framework of the UNEP Sustainable Development Goals 2030 Agenda A broad audience of students scientists engineers environmental managers and policy makers will be interested in this volume From Al-Andalus to the Americas (13th-17th Centuries) ,2018-06-12 From Al Andalus to the Americas 13th 17th Centuries Destruction and Construcion of Societies offers a multi perspective view of the filiation of different colonial and settler colonial experiences from the Medieval Iberian Peninsula to the early Modern Americas All the articles in the volume refer the reader to colonial orders that extended over time that substantially reduced indigenous populations that imposed new productive strategies and created new social hierarchies The ideological background and how conquests were organised the treatment given to the conquered lands and people the political organisations and the old and new agricultural systems are issues discussed in this volume Contributors are David Abulafia Manuel Ardit Antonio Espino Adela F bregas Josep M Fradera Enric Guinot Helena Kirchner Antonio Malpica Virgilio Mart nez Enamorado Carmen Mena Ant nio Mendes F lix Retamero Inge Schjellerup Josep Torr and Antoni Virgili A Multidisciplinary Introduction to Desalination Alireza Bazargan,2022-09-01 Although more than 70% of the globe is covered with water only a small portion is suitable for direct human use making the scarcity of freshwater one of our plant s most serious challenges In this context desalination defined as the removal of salt from water is one of the possible solutions for overcoming our planet s municipal and industrial thirst By drawing upon the authoritative expertise of a remarkable team of international authors this book aims to provide an encompassing and multidisciplinary introduction to various aspects of desalination The forte of this publication is that it does not overtly focus on a particular sub topic of desalination but rather addresses the topic as a whole In other words the unique assortment of reader friendly chapters is designed to strike a delicate balance between the technical and non technical The book is divided into five general sections The first section presents an overview of water scarcity followed by a review of integrated water management and the alternatives to desalination The fundamentals of desalination are provided including simple water chemistry The second section covers the conventional technologies of today including thermal and membrane desalination processes The topics of pre and post treatment are given due credit as no desalination plant can operate without them The third section reviews the history of how desalination technologies originated including a review of today s RSection four is concerned with energy and environmental issues including the application of renewable and nuclear energy minimization of energy usage and the water energy nexus brine management and environmental impacts Finally section five covers the social and commercial issues ranging from rural desalination to the politics of desalination Desalination costs and feasibility are presented as well as issues in business development and the future market prospects Effectively A Multidisciplinary Introduction to Desalination aims to be a holistic go to compendium for anyone seeking a balanced understanding of the various facets of desalination

Why Do Some Civil Wars Not Happen? Witold Mucha, 2017-02-13 Since its early beginnings peace and conflict research has focused on causes of phenomena such as civil war terrorism and state failure The author merges this approach with a peace causes perspective and asks why civil war happened in Peru 1980 1995 though not in Bolivia which is striking given the structural similarities with Peru as well as a number of escalation episodes leading the country to the brink of civil war 2000 2008 He explores the political measures such as reforms and political dialogue which prevented the country from rather hazardous consequences

Protagonists of War Raymond Fagel, 2021-10-01 Juli n Romero Sancho D vila Crist bal de Mondrag n and Francisco de Vald s were prominent Spanish military commanders during the first decade of the Revolt in the Low Countries 1567 1577 Occupying key positions in this conflict they featured as central characters in various war narratives and episodic descriptions of the events they were involved in ranging from chronicles poems theatre plays engravings and songs to news pamphlets To this day they still figure as protagonists of historical novels brave heroes in some cruel oppressors in others Yet personal first hand accounts also exist Archival research into the letters written by these commanders now makes it possible to include their perspectives and the way they describe their own experiences Looking through the eyes of four Spanish commanders Protagonists of War provides the reader with an alternative reading of the Revolt contrasting the subjective experiences of these protagonists with fictionalised perceptions

Water Governance in Bolivia Nasya Sara Razavi, 2022-04-28 This book examines water remunicipalization in Cochabamba since the Water War offering innovative methodological and theoretical conceptualizations of what it means to be public helping to move debates on water services beyond the paralyzing binary of public versus private with a focus on the contested terrain of community engagement around water services The Cochabamba Water War of 2000 brought together city residents of all stripes to mobilize against water privatization and gain back public control of the city s water utility This event catapulted anti privatization movements around the world but two decades later the water movement s vision of democratic water provision remains largely unfulfilled and the city suffers from a protracted water crisis Building a typology of participation this book explores the difficulty in rebuilding a strong public water service in Cochabamba by analyzing the different and often incompatible understandings and interpretations of social control and public participation Applying this framework to the Bolivian context and more specifically to the water and sanitation sector in Cochabamba the book uncovers whose interests are served and which groups are included or excluded from decision making and access to water This exercise illustrates how in their implementation participatory practices are not linear and can be distorted or appropriated towards different ends This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of water governance natural resource management public policy social movements and Latin American studies
