Prostitution Narratives Caroline Norma,Melinda Tankard Reist,2016-07-01 For too long the global sex industry and its vested interests have dominated the prostitution debate repeating the same old line that sex work is just like any job In large sections of the media academia public policy government and the law the sex industry has had its way Little is said of the damage violation suffering and torment of prostitution on the bodies and minds of mostly women and children nor of the deaths suicides and murders that are routine in the sex industry Prostitution Narratives Stories of Survival in the Sex Trade refutes the lies and debunks the myths spread by the industry through the lived experiences of women who have survived prostitution These disturbing stories give voice to formerly prostituted women who explain why they entered the sex trade They bravely and courageously recount their intimate experiences of harm and humiliation at the hands of sex buyers pimps and traffickers and reveal their escape and emergence as survivors Edited by Caroline Norma and Melinda Tankard Reist Prostitution Narratives documents the reality of prostitution revealing the cost to the lives of women and girls Prostitution Narratives Stories of Survival in the Sex Trade will strengthen and support the global campaign to abolish prostitution provide solidarity and solace to those who bear its scars and hopefully help women and girls exit this dehumanising industry

The Holy Spirit and Public Life Mark J. Cartledge,2022-04-04 The Holy Spirit and Public Life offers a masterful analysis of the intersections between pneumatology and public theology as well as contemporary Christianity and secular society Examining issues from race to domestic violence with compassion as well as critical rigour Mark J Cartledge one of the UK s leading authorities on the Pentecostal Charismatic Movement skilfully anchors his argument in both the biblical text and insight and empirical data from the contemporary world His deep appreciation of the many ways in which the Christian faith inspires and empowers transformative social engagement will motivate and mould the rising commitment among Pentecostals and Charismatics to live the gospel in the public square in the power of the Spirit Finally Cartledge proposes that the church engage with society by being truthful with love This posture provides the integrating center for the life of the church and its mission in the world

Civilization at Risk Ron D. Petite, 2021-03-09 A devastating human rights war has unfolded with precious few warriors to combat it let alone stem the brutal injustice that is of Holocaust dimensions If there is any scourge that puts Civilization at Risk it is the malignant disregard for the human rights of millions of people who suffer slavery and inhumane treatment at the hands of fellow human beings With 30 million people in slavery today 30 million Seeds of Strife have been sown as the souls of these victims are seared beyond human recognition Human Trafficking cannot be combated by indifference or ignorance but by the education of people worldwide to awaken them to this 21st Century scourge as well as by instilling in people across the globe the courage and determination to stand and fight this evil Civilization at Risk Seeds of Strife Second Edition offers an immediate call to arms to fight the evil that the human slaver wages against any attempt to create a just and benevolent civilization As the pen is mightier than the sword so too this book cuts to the quick to confront and dispel any efforts to mitigate the horrors of the 21st Century Holocaust that is Human Trafficking

Restoring All Things John Stonestreet, Warren Cole Smith, 2015-04-28 It s easy to get discouraged by the headlines It can often feel as if God has left the building like we are on our own We want to believe God s promises to us and we search for signs of his continuing restoration of the world in which we live Now with passion and heart two leading experts on Christianity and culture cut through the chaos and uncertainty to show readers how God is powerfully active and intensely engaged in fulfilling his promise to restore all things unto himself Through inspiring real life stories of justice mercy love and forgiveness in our midst Smith and Stonestreet present a God who is intimately involved in his creation and using his church to work out the redemption of this world

The Church's Response to Domestic Violence Dr. Char M. Newbold, 2024-06-13 Abuse is hiding in our churches Our women and children are being wounded and even dying in their homes by those who have committed to love and protect them Domestic violence is present in families you would never suspect from the most respected to the least noticed even the family sitting near you in church Women are told God hates divorce learn to submit pray more turn the other cheek look at the plank in their own eye first forgive 70 times 7 By giving such advice to women living in abusive relationships well intentioned church leaders are sending women and children back into dangerous possibly deadly situations In The Church's Response to Domestic Violence a guide based on scriptural truth church leaders will learn the complexities of the dynamics of domestic violence who abuses and who is abused the effects of violence in the home the dangers of couples counseling how to respond to disclosures of abuse why she keeps going back why she doesn't just leave We need our clergy and church leaders to reject the false ideologies that put God's children at risk and equip the Church to be the clear voice of hope and healing for families International Books in Print ,1986 A Cry Of The Heart Debra Rush, Penelope Childers, 2020-07-21 Forced into sex trafficking as a teenager Debra Rush makes a daring escape then struggles for years with post traumatic stress Her true story proves no one is beyond redemption Journey with Debra from despair to success and find a reason to hope Stolen Katariina PhD Rosenblatt, Cecil Murphey, 2014-09-30

Sex trafficking is currently a hot news topic but it is not a new problem or just a problem in other countries Every year an estimated 300 000 American children are at risk of being lured into the sex trade some as young as eight years old It is thought that up to 90 percent of victims are never rescued Stolen is the true story of one survivor who escaped more than once First recruited while staying with her family at a hotel in Miami Beach Katariina Rosenblatt was already a lonely and abused young girl who was yearning to be loved She fell into the hands of a confident young woman who pretended friendship but slowly lured her into a child prostitution ring For years afterward a cycle of false friendship threats drugs and violence kept her trapped As Kat shares her harrowing experiences readers will quickly realize the frightening truth that these terrible things could have happened to any child a neighbor a niece a friend a sister a daughter But beyond that they will see that there is real hope for the victims of sex trafficking Stolen is more than a warning It is a celebration of survival that will inspire The Lucky One Jenni S. Jessen, 2016 Jenni masterfully weaves steadfast truths into a story that shakes our world view our theology and our ideas of what a human can bear Hettie Brittz motivational speaker and author Fearless Free and un Natural Mom Whether you read this book to try to understand some of the darkness of sex trafficking or to find healing for your own wounds you will not be disappointed Adele Booysen D Min The Lucky One is a disturbing and riveting entry into the world of sexual abuse human trafficking evil and redemption Your heart will be sensitized to a great evil but far more you too will be invited to taste the goodness of God in the land of the living Dan B Allender Ph D Professor of Counseling Psychology Founding President The Seattle School of Theology and Psychology This book is heartbreaking Not in the pain that it describes which is horrific but in the beauty that it calls out to in the midst of the pain Christa Foster Crawford Anti Trafficking Consultant Trafficking Resource Connection Adjunct Assistant Professor of Children at Risk Fuller Theological Seminary School of Intercultural Studies She was only four years old when she was sold into the sex trade White picket fences and steepled churches all guarded secrets that were not ever supposed to be told In kindergarten she began praying every night that Jesus would let her die In second grade she sat in church on a Sunday morning swinging her feet from a wooden pew behind the man who had paid to rape her the night before Her perpetrators were from all walks of life An engineer a police officer a bait shop owner business men farmers younger men and old different men all feeding the same lust The only thing that they had in common was their brutal love for little girls She shouldn't have survived it If God had answered her prayers she wouldn't have Here is the true account of how she was brought out of captivity and into a life of freedom Social Work Practice with Survivors of Sex Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation Andrea J. Nichols, Tonya Edmond, Erin C. Heil, 2018 As awareness of sex trafficking and exploitation have grown so has the need for improved social work responses In this volume expert practitioners survivors and researchers model the best practices for working with this population providing a comprehensive guide to the emerging field of practice with sex trafficking survivors

One Thousand Elsewhere Keeya Vawar, 2021-06 Every year more than 300 000 youth are victims of human trafficking and sexual exploitation across the United States What's scarcely known is that Black Girls are disproportionately at risk of being trafficked and their stories often go untold for reasons far more complicated than mere reporting or statistical oversight She was given the opportunity to escape the abusive and tumultuous home life and faced with the prospect of meeting some of the biggest and most influential names in the music industry She was presented with the possibility of creating the life she always wanted 16 year old Keeya found herself on a Greyhound bus to Atlanta Georgia in the Spring of 1992 Lured into a life of debauchery and exploitation that would leave her hollow and disaffected for years to come she survived One of the most harrowing accounts of the reality of juvenile abuse and victimization ever told One Thousand Elsewhere takes you into a world where innocence is traded for survival where trust is sacrificed on the altar of instinct and where love and safety are dreams scarcely obtained Few have come out of the shadows to tell their truth and fewer even would dare divulge the kind of raw and unforgettable details shared here by Keeya Vawar In this brave account of a survival story Keeya leaves readers mesmerized and on the edge of their seats as she details the incredible twists and turns on the unforgettable path that led to ultimate freedom One Thousand Elsewhere will etch an indelible inscription on the walls of the heart and soul of anyone who dares to indulge in this triumphant true story The Outcast Daughter Justin

Toppins, 2020-06-04 Have you ever watched the news and been so haunted by a story that you had to know more about those involved In the documentary film Irreclaimable this is exactly what happens to Justin Toppins For more than a year he sets to learn about the dark world of sex trafficking He sits down with the victims sex workers and even law enforcement He starts with the hope of simply learning from each person's story but soon finds it impossible to separate the harrowing tales from the kind and thoughtful people who lived through them In Our Backyard Nita Belles, 2015-05-26 In recent years

Americans have woken up to the reality that human trafficking is not just something that happens in other countries But what most still do not understand is that neither is it something that just happens to other people such as runaways or the disenfranchised The human trafficker is no respecter of faith education or socioeconomic status and even kids who are raised in solid families in middle and upper class suburbs can fall victim Likewise labor trafficking happens in our cities neighborhoods and rural areas Through true stories and years of boots on the ground experience including at the Super Bowl anti trafficking expert Nita Belles teaches readers everything they need to know about human trafficking in the United States and what they can do to join the fight against it She helps concerned parents friends teachers law enforcement government officials and other leaders understand all forms of trafficking identify risk factors and take practical steps to keep their loved ones and neighbors safe from predators Called to Rescue Cyndi Romine,2013-08 Inspired by the work of Dr Cyndi Romine
