The Power of Preaching Gary Wilkerson, Joshu West, Voddie T. Baucham, Jr., Carter Conlon, Tim Dilena, R. T. Kendall, Claude Houde, John Bailey, 2025-02-04 In our churches today we have allowed ourselves to hold to a low view of God instead of seeing Him as Who He really is And in today's world of seeking the most likes and followers many Christian pastors and leaders are finding themselves preaching what people want to hear instead of what God wants to say In The Power of Preaching eight experienced men of God who have stayed true to the preaching of God's Word offer guidance on how to avoid appealing to the masses and instead encourage the reader to let God's Word speak for itself Be encouraged and revitalized to be ministers of truth in a world caught up in lies

The Church and the Surprising Offense of God's Love (Foreword by Mark Dever) Jonathan Leeman, 2010-01-08 When the world speaks of love it often means unconditional acceptance Many churches have adopted this mind set in their practice of membership and discipline if they have not done away with such structures entirely Yet God's love and God's gospel are different than what the world expects writes Jonathan Leeman They're centered in his character which draws a clear boundary between what is holy and what is not It's this line that the local church should represent in its member practices because the careful exercise of such authority is God's means for guarding the gospel marking off a people and thereby defining his love for the world So how should churches receive and dismiss members How should Christians view their submission to the church Are there dangers in such submission The Church and the Surprising Offense of God's Love responds with biblical theological and practical guidance from both corporate and individual perspectives It's a resource that will help pastors and their congregations upend worldly conceptions and recover a biblical understanding and practice of church authority

95 Theses for a New Reformation Aaron Hebbard, 2017-10-09 Five hundred years ago Martin Luther wrote his Ninety Five Theses inaugurating the Protestant Reformation and with it exemplified an unflinching devotion to return to the Word of God as the ultimate authority Today the church is also in desperate need for reformation a new reformation to correct her shortcomings and meet the challenges of the day Some might see everything as fine some might see everything as hopeless and others might simply dismiss the church as irrelevant too impotent to reform herself much less to strengthen the disintegrating family or address the downward spiraling culture with a prophetic voice 95 Theses for a New Reformation confronts the necessity for reformation today head on Over thirty of today's pastors theologians and church leaders analyze ninety five current problems search the Scriptures for solutions and make sound biblical appropriations to implement into the life of the church family and culture On this 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation let us pray that the Lord will again revive his church for his own glory and for the purification of Christ's
