Youth Participation In Europe Beyond Discourses Practices And Realities:

Youth Participation in Europe Patricia Loncle, 2012-10-10 In a period when social unrest and youth dissatisfaction has manifested itself through highly public protests the question of youth participation in democratic societies is at the forefront This book offers a fresh look at youth participation examining official and unofficial constructions of participation by young people in a range of sociopolitical domains It explores the motivations and rationales underlying official attempts to increase participation among young people and offers a critique of those various efforts effectiveness Based on original research data from a significant study it provides a thorough analysis of an important sector of democratic societies Youth Participation in Europe Patricia Loncle, Andreas Walther, Virginie Muniglia, Morena Cuconato, 2013 This timely book offers a fresh look at youth participation examining official and unofficial constructions of participation by young people in a range of sociopolitical domains Young People and the Struggle for Participation Andreas Walther, Janet Batsleer, Patricia Loncle, Axel Pohl, 2019-07-10 Young People and the Struggle for Participation rethinks dominant concepts and meanings of participation by exploring what young people do in public spaces and what these spaces mean to them individually and collectively This book discusses how different spaces and places structure and are in turn structured by young peoples activities Drawing on findings from a comparative study in eight European cities insights into different styles of youth participation emerging from formal non formal and informal settings are presented The book provides a comparative analysis of how transnational discourses national welfare states and local youth policies affect youth participation It also investigates how it comes about that young people get involved in different forms of participation in the course of their biographies This book will appeal to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of youth studies community studies sociology of education political science social work psychology and anthropology Young People's Participation Maria Bruselius-Jensen, Ilaria Pitti, Kay Tisdall, 2022-09 This book explores how young people across different European contexts participate in decision making and foster changes on issues that concern them and their communities giving new insights into discourses on young people s as active citizens across Europe Reshaping Youth Participation Gráinne McMahon, Harriet Rowley, Janet Batsleer, 2022-11-14 Reshaping Youth Participation reframes discussions around youth political social civic and cultural participation Drawing upon insights on democracy and citizenship self organising and protest movements and arts activism as engaged social activism chapters consider the spaces in which young people find voice and action Youth Participation and Democracy Eeva Luhtakallio, Veikko Eranti, Georg Boldt, Maija Jokela, Lotta Junnilainen, Taina Meriluoto, Tuukka Ylä-Anttila, 2024-08-19 How do young people participate in democratic societies This book introduces the concept of doing society as a new theory of political action Focused on Finnish youth it innovatively blends cutting edge empirical research with agenda setting theoretical development Redefining political action the authors expand beyond traditional public sphere scaling from formal to informal and unconventional modes of engaging The book captures diverse engagement from memes to social movements from participatory budgeting to street parties and from sleek politicians to detached people in the margins In doing so it provides a holistic view of the ways in which young people participate or do not participate in society and their role in cultural change

Working with Young People Xavier Úcar,Pere Soler-Masó,Anna Planas-Lladó,2020 It is common to refer to the dynamism and vitality of young people as a source of change creation and innovation but they are often also considered a problem that we do not know how to respond to Young people can make adults feel uncomfortable because they are neither children who can be told what to do nor adults to be treated as equals From the perspective of adults their status is socially and culturally ambiguous

Community Practice and Urban Youth Melvin Delgado,2015-10-30 Community Practice and Urban Youth is for graduate level students in fields that offer youth studies and community practice courses Practitioners in these fields too will find the book particularly useful in furthering the integration of social justice as a conceptual and philosophical foundation The use of food environmental justice and immigrant rights and the book s focus on service learning and civic engagement involving these three topics offers an innovative approach for courses

The Oxford Handbook of Intergenerational Connections Elizabeth F. Fideler,2025 The need to develop connections between members of different generations is being driven by a host of trends and challenges including demographic shifts workforce shortages and multigenerational teams educational gaps caregiving demands youth and senior health and housing problems economic insecurity and rapid technological change Many of these trends and challenges already under way were accelerated or exacerbated by the COVID 19 pandemic This handbook presents what is known about the spectrum of intergenerational initiatives in the United States and abroad the very first to do so in reference book form It addresses specifically what increases cooperation interaction or exchange between any two or more generations and how to foster the sharing of skills knowledge or experience between old and young Comprising 30 chapters each written by leading experts in their field the handbook is organized around five sections Cross Generational Relationships Older Adults Working with Younger People Younger People Helping Older Adults Global Perspectives on Intergenerational Relationships and Recommendations for Strengthening and Sustaining the Intergenerational Movement

The history of youth work in Europe, Volume 5 - Autonomy through dependency Siurala, Lasse,Coussée, Filip,Suurpää, Leena,Williamson, Howard,Council of Europe,2016-05-17 The History of youth work in Europe series aims to achieve better understanding of current challenges in youth work and youth policy Volume 5 addresses questions like How have government policies and administrative practices over the past few decades affected youth work What kind of strategies has youth work developed to react to them and to create a positive space for work with young people Can educational approaches of youth work like social pedagogy help mediate between young people in their ever changing lives and society Co operation between youth policy youth research and youth work has been called the Magic Triangle but is the magic still there This publication discusses these and other topics from a variety of perspectives The authors come not only from Europe

but also from the USA Australia and South Africa providing a refreshing comparative reflection on youth work issues and opportunities which is revealed to be global in nature They also have diverse and varied backgrounds in youth research youth work youth policy making and youth worker training This comparative historical perspective puts some of the pieces of the youth work puzzle together while many are left unconnected It also becomes apparent that there is an element of randomness in the historical development of youth work Many structures policies approaches and methods are not historically necessary Rather many things could have come out differently This volume on the history of youth work provides many readings it provides a rich collection of national youth histories to complement and build upon the four earlier volumes and histories and analyses of youth work for readers to compare with their own experience sharpen their critical view and inspire their thinking

Youth Active Citizenship in Europe Shakuntala Banaji, Sam Mejias, 2020-04-25 This volume engages with the contested concept of active citizenship It analyses the use and understanding of active citizenship in youth civic and political initiatives in the Czech Republic Estonia Germany Italy Portugal and the UK Using ethnographic data and insights from the cross European project CATCH EyoU the contributors to this collection illuminate the experiences of young people taking action for social change It does so at a unique moment when a resurgent populist political right is deploying racial prejudice and neoliberal protectionism in both established media and new digital media to fuel xenophobic nationalism The book asks a range of questions including What is life like for active young citizens with an interest in the civic and political spheres What practices relationships and motivations characterise their participatory movements organisations initiatives and groups The chapters use case studies to analyse how friendship and emotion social media diversity work racism precarity and burnout feed into motivating and developing or curtailing sustained pro democratic activism Youth Active Citizenship in Europe will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including politics sociology education and cultural studies

De Gruyter Handbook of Youth Activism Cihan Erdal, Jacqueline Kennelly, 2025-12-29 This is the first handbook to focus exclusively on youth activism to outline the current state of research and identify promising emerging areas and to forecast what new developments one might anticipate in the future It provides a comprehensive introduction to theoretical and methodological approaches as well as insights into the directions of both the scholarly field and the phenomenon of youth activism itself within the context of global power relations Youth political socialization civic engagement and citizenship attributes have frequently been highlighted as arenas of global concern often by pundits and politicians declaiming the supposed democratic deficit amongst more recent generations Youth activism scholarship has often engaged with these debates providing critical responses to more mainstream analyses of young people as apathetic apolitical or unconcerned about the society in which they live In its place youth activism scholarship provides more nuanced accounts of the possibilities and potentials for meaningful youth engagement in political social change and conversely the barriers and proscriptions that prevent some young people from taking up a place within the polity

Models of European

Civil Society Adam Jarosz,Katarzyna Kącka,2018-11-12 The following volume is devoted to the issues of European models of civil societies The aim of the authors is not to exhaust the whole topic but to bring forward some studies related to the civil society both in the historical but also present perspective Civil society is an important factor in a well functioning state and crucial for developing a real active and conscious community which is able to control the state and its servants Even more importantly when the state fails to react to negative developments or leaders misuse their power to enforce it in fulfilling its duties and in the most radical or dramatic cases to replace it or change the governors Democratic order gives the society enough tools to do this and the internet social media and other new means of communication improve the level of self organisation and shorten the time for potential reactions

Young People and Political Participation Jacqueline Briggs,2016-11-08 This book analyses the various ways and the extent to which young people participate in politics focusing primarily on the UK and including cross national comparisons where relevant It covers topics including what is meant by political participation youth political participation on a pan European basis new social media and youth political participation whether the voting age should be lowered to 16 youth participation at the local level and young women and political participation Written in a lively and engaging style the book provides a detailed investigation into the extent to which young people in the twenty first century are interested and participate in politics The author has included interviews with many young people as well as with academics and specialists in the field The book s greatest contribution is to the debate surrounding whether or not the voting age should be lowered to 16 a timely and thought provoking analysis

Youth Activism in the Radical Right of Brazil and Germany Beatriz Besen,2025-05-24 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of radical right youth activism in Brazil and Germany examining the complex pathways of political engagement through innovative biographical and narrative research By exploring the tensions between democratic and anti democratic practices the study reveals how young activists navigate political landscapes uncovering the intricate relationships between conservative discourses neoliberalism and political identity formation Drawing on political psychology and post structuralist approaches the author challenges traditional interpretations of youth political participation Combining in depth interviews and comparative analysis the book sheds light on the motivations discourses and mechanisms that have driven and sustained their engagement By offering a comparative perspective it reveals both the specific national dynamics and the transnational patterns that characterize radical right youth activism today Youth Activism in the Radical Right of Brazil and Germany On the Thresholds of Politics is essential for scholars of psychology politics and sociology as well as for students and policymakers seeking to understand the growing youth engagement in radical right wing movements and its challenges for contemporary democracy The original manuscript of this book was written in Brazilian Portuguese and translated into English with the help of artificial intelligence A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content

Governance of Educational Trajectories in Europe Andreas Walther,Marcelo Parreira do Amaral,Morena

Cuconato, Roger Dale, 2016-05-19 Drawing on findings from a large EU funded research project that took place over three years this book analyses educational trajectories of young people in eight European countries Finland France Germany Italy the Netherlands Poland Slovenia and the United Kingdom Contributors explore interactions between structural and institutional contexts of educational trajectories the individual meaning attached to education and the strategies adopted by young people to cope with its demands The book also analyses the decision making processes of individual students placing them firmly within the social contexts of their families local schools national education systems and welfare states as well as transnational policy contexts In considering educational disadvantage the book is based on primary cross national research with systematic analysis of the different themes addressed As every chapter is co authored by two or three researchers each based in a different country the book goes beyond the usual country based chapter design to provide an enriched insight into both comparative theory and research methods

Framing Civic Engagement, Political Participation and Active Citizenship in Europe Cristiano Bee, Roberta Guerrina, 2017-12-22 This book evaluates the role that civic engagement political participation and active citizenship can play in promoting the establishment of a European polity The chapters included here examine how the practice of active citizenship is managed and constructed in the context of a European drive to increase civic engagement and political participation in three member states Portugal Italy and the UK and one accession country Turkey Looking at both processes and policies promoting active citizenship at the European and national levels this book uncovers current discourses as well as political priorities and values that surround the activities of non governmental organizations NGOs Of particular interest are debates about the nature and level of civic and political participation and engagement of marginal groups women youths migrants and minorities as they are particularly vulnerable to social exclusion The book focuses on the interaction between institutions and civil society actors addressing a number of questions related to their reciprocal role in influencing shaping criticising or disregarding certain political priorities This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Civil Society

Eastern European Youth Cultures in a Global Context Matthias Schwartz, Heike Winkel, 2016-04-29 The demise of state Socialisms caused radical social cultural and economic changes in Eastern Europe Since then young people have been confronted with fundamental disruptions and transformations to their daily environment while an unsettling globalized world substantially reshapes local belongings and conventional values In times of multiple instabilities and uncertainties this volume argues young people prefer to try to adjust to given circumstances than to adopt the behaviour of potential rebellious adolescent role models dissident counter cultures or artistic breakings of taboo Eastern European Youth Cultures in a Global Context takes this situation as a starting point for an examination of generational change cultural belongings political activism and everyday practices of young people in different Eastern European countries from an interdisciplinary perspective It argues that the conditions of global change not only call for a differentiated evaluation of youth cultures but also for a revision of our understanding of youth itself in Eastern Europe and beyond Youth at the Margins ELENA SÁNCHEZ-MONTIJANO, Jose SÁNCHEZ GARCÍA, 2019-01-23 The 2011 Arab uprisings led to a great proliferation of studies on the situations in the Arab countries of the Mediterranean with particular attention given to their young people whose role was particularly central Eight years on in depth exploration is still needed of the conditions in which millions of mainly young people demanded change In this context this volume examines the state and diversity of the forms of socioeconomic political and cultural marginalization facing the region s young men and women as well as the strategies and routes of contestation by which they escape them Through the interdisciplinary empiricism of this book based on the results emerging from the SAHWA Project funded by the European Commission under the Seventh Framework Programme grant agreement no 613174 we aspire to build a complex description and analysis of the current situation of the Arab Mediterranean youth The aim is to fathom out young people s patterns agency and living conditions focusing on the relational character of the juvenile worlds actively constructed by themselves The authors explore the main trends that are reflected in the social strategies cultural constructions and changes within the Arab youth population and whether the creation of new lifestyles and the emergence of youth cultures are an indicator of sociopolitical transitions To answer all these questions the researchers have conducted a comprehensive study in five Arab Mediterranean countries Algeria Egypt Lebanon Morocco and Tunisia Based on mixed method research the data collection is composed of two primary sources the SAHWA Youth Survey 2016 2017 in which 10 000 young people were interviewed and the SAHWA Ethnographic Fieldwork 2015 involving more than 200 young people Social Work, Social Welfare, Unemployment and Vulnerability Among Youth Vibeke Bak Nielsen, Petra Malin, Ilse Julkunen, Lars Uggerhøj, 2022-05-23 Social Work Social Welfare Unemployment and Vulnerability Among Youth critically analyses contemporary welfare state interventions on unemployment and poverty among youth in a context of societal transformation It also considers how we can develop future knowledge and methods in evolving welfare institutions Young people constitute a group that is particularly exposed to high unemployment identity and future uncertainties economic difficulties and educational and housing challenges Experiences from social work and research have shown that young people often face multiple issues which are often interlinked In social work this is a challenge owing to little knowledge on the most pressing needs of different groups seen from the perspective of young people themselves The authors focus on the tension points in practice and examine policy developments around young people and welfare dynamics based on discussions and research in the Nordic countries and beyond In doing so this book connects research based knowledge with the challenges social workers meet in their everyday practices It will be of interest to all scholars students and professionals working within the following fields social work social policy child and youth studies and sociology
