The Virgin Suicides Perfection Learning Corporation, 2019 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Virgin suicides Jeffrey Eugenides, 2010 Jeunes belles et fragiles les cinq filles Lisbon se suicident en l'espace d'une année Difficile de comprendre ce qui se passe derrière les murs de la villa familiale un quotidien touffant une mer plus sereine que les autres une folie contagieuse Des garçons du quartier effrayés et fascinés observent les filles s'effondrer une à une Devenus adultes ils s'interrogent encore

Home on the Horizon Sally Bayley, 2010 In this study of space and place Sally Bayley examines the meaning of home in American literature and culture Moving from the nineteenth century homestead of Emily Dickinson to the present day reality of Bob Dylan Bayley investigates the relationship of the domestic frontier to the wide open spaces of the American outdoors In contemporary America she argues the experience of home is increasingly isolated leading to unsettling moments of domestic fallout At the centre of the book is the exposed and often shifting domain of the domestic threshold Emily Dickinson's doorstep Edward Hopper's doors and windows and Harper Lee's front porch Bayley tracks these historically fragile territories through contemporary literature and film including Cormac McCarthy's No Country For Old Men Lars Von Trier's Dogville and Andrew Dominik's The Assassination of Jesse James By The Coward Robert Ford works that explore local domestic territories as emblems of nation The culturally potent sites of the American home the hearth porch backyard front lawn bathroom and basement are positioned in relation to the more contested sites of the American motel and hotel

The American Midwest in Film and Literature Adam R. Ochońicky, 2021-12-22 A critical overview of the evolution contestation and fragmentation of the Midwest's symbolic and often contradictory meanings in American culture How do works from film and literature Sister Carrie Native Son Meet Me in St Louis Halloween and A History of Violence for example imagine reify and reproduce Midwestern identity And what are the repercussions of such regional narratives and images circulating in American culture In The American Midwest in Film and Literature Nostalgia Violence and Regionalism Adam R Ochońicky provides a critical overview of the evolution contestation and fragmentation of the Midwest's symbolic and often contradictory meanings Using the frontier writings of Frederick Jackson Turner as a starting point this book establishes a succession of Midwestern filmic and literary texts stretching from the late 19th century through the beginning of the 21st century and argues that the manifold properties of nostalgia have continually transformed popular understandings and ideological uses of the Midwest's place identity Ochonicky identifies three primary modes of nostalgia at play across a set of textual objects the projection of nostalgia onto physical landscapes and into the cultural sphere nostalgic spatiality nostalgia as a cultural force that regulates behaviors identities and appearances nostalgic violence and the progressive potential of nostalgia to generate an acknowledgment and possible rectification of ways in which the flawed past negatively affects the present nostalgic atonement While developing these new conceptions of nostalgia Ochonicky reveals how an under examined area of regional study has received critical attention throughout the histories of American film and literature as well as in related materials and discourses From the closing of the Western frontier to the polarized political and cultural climate of the 21st century this book demonstrates how film and literature have been and continue to be vital forums for illuminating the complex interplay of regionalism and nostalgia Ochonicky presents an important reading of how nostalgia shapes the Midwest in the American imagination as a place of identity and violence Past and present slip in this compelling and well researched approach to the workings of contemporary culture Vera Dika author of Recycled Culture in Contemporary Art and Film The Use of Nostalgia By centering the concept of region Adam Ochonicky provides an insightful and refreshing reading of American popular culture In texts ranging from Richard Wright's Native Son to John Carpenter's Halloween Ochonicky demonstrates the complex terrain of the Midwest in our cultural imaginary and the diverse memories and meanings we project upon it Kendall R Phillips author of A Place of Darkness The Rhetoric of Horror in Early American Cinema Syracuse University Australian Book Review, 2003 Housekeeping Marilynne Robinson, 2015-11-03 These pocket sized titles are stunning They make the perfect stocking stuffers Metro Bought together or separately these fiction titles are ideal stocking stuffers for the literature lover USA Today Newly reissued as a Picador Modern Classic Marilynne Robinson's brilliant PEN Hemingway Award winning first novel Housekeeping is the story of Ruth and her younger sister Lucille who grow up haphazardly first under the care of their competent grandmother then of two comically bumbling great aunts and finally of Sylvie the eccentric and remote sister of their dead mother The family house is in the small town of Fingerbone on a glacial lake in the Far West the same lake where their grandfather died in a spectacular train wreck and their mother drove off a cliff to her death It is a town chastened by an outsized landscape and extravagant weather and chastened again by an awareness that the whole of human history had occurred elsewhere Ruth and Lucille's struggle toward adulthood beautifully illuminates the price of loss and survival and the dangerous and deep undertow of transience For more than twenty years Picador has been producing beautifully packaged literary fiction and nonfiction books from Manhattan's Flatiron Building Our Twentieth Anniversary Modern Classics line pairs iconic books The Virgin Suicides by
