Encounter, Transformation, and Identity Ian Fowler, Verkijika G. Fanson, 2009-07-01 Bringing together key historical and innovative ethnographic materials on the peoples of the South West Province of Cameroon and the Nigerian borderlands this volume presents critical and analytical approaches to the production of ethnic political religious and gendered identities in the region The contributors examine a range of issues relating to identity including first encounters and conflict as well as global networking trans national families enculturation gender resistance and death In addition to a number of very striking illustrations of ethnographic and material culture this volume contains key maps from early German sources and other original cartographical materials Remember Hungary, 1956 Tibor Glant, 2007 Consisting of five essays examining the American portrayal of the Hungarian Revolution of 1956 this title examines depictions in the New York Times history textbooks fiction prose art and memoirs of diplomats Masquerades in African Society Walter E. A. Van Beek, Harrie M. Leyten, 2023 What is the meaning of masks and masquerades in African traditions and how can we understand their role in rituals and performances Why do we find masks in some African regions and not in others and what does this mask habitat say about the general dynamics of masquerades in Africa Though masks are among the most famous art icons of Africa exploration of their uses and the way in which they articulate social characteristics of African societies has been underexamined This book takes an anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of masquerades on the African continent to show how mask rituals are an integral part of African indigenous religions and societies and are informed by and linked to specific types of social and ecological conditions Having established the commonalities of mask rituals and a mask typology the authors look at the varieties of mask performances and the types of rituals in which masks function in rites of passage and in rituals of gender power and identity Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003 Journeys of Transformation John D. Barbour, 2022-03-31 Western Buddhist travel narratives are autobiographical accounts of a journey to a Buddhist culture Dozens of such narratives have since the 1970s describe treks in Tibet periods of residence in a Zen monastery pilgrimages to Buddhist sites and teachers and other Asian odysseys The best known of these works is Peter Matthiessen's The Snow Leopard further reflections emerge from thirty writers including John Blofeld Jan Van de Wetering Thomas Merton Oliver Statler Robert Thurman Gretel Ehrlich and Bill Porter The Buddhist concept of no self helps these authors interpret certain pivotal experiences of unselfing and is also a catalyst that provokes and enables such events The writers' spiritual memoirs describe how their journeys brought about a new understanding of Buddhist enlightenment and so transformed their lives Showing how travel can elicit self transformation this book is a compelling exploration of the journeys and religious changes of both individuals and Buddhism itself The West Brian Levack, Edward Muir, Meredith Veldman, 2010-03 The West Encounters Transformations takes a new approach to telling the story of Western civilization Rather than looking at Western civilization only as the history of Europe from ancient times to the present this groundbreaking book examines the changing nature of the West how the definition of the West has evolved and has been transformed throughout history It explores the ways Western civilization has changed as a result of cultural encounters with different beliefs ideas technologies and peoples both outside the West and within it Presenting a balanced treatment of political social religious and cultural history this text emphasizes the ever shifting boundaries of the geographic and cultural realm of the West The Russo-Turkish War, 1768-1774 Brian L. Davies,2016-01-28 The Russo Turkish War was one of the most decisive conflicts of the 18th century In this book Brian Davies offers a thorough survey of the war and explains why it was crucial to the political triumph of Catherine the Great the southward expansion of the Russian Empire and the rollback of Ottoman power from southeastern Europe The war completed the incorporation of Ukraine into the Russian Empire ended the independence of the great Cossack hosts removed once and for all the military threat from the Crimean Khanate began the partitions of Poland and encouraged Catherine II to plan projects to complete the liberation of the lower Danubian and Balkan Slavs and Greeks The war legitimated and secured the power of Catherine II finally made the Pontic steppe safe for agricultural colonization and won ports enabling Russia to control the Black Sea and become a leading grain exporter Traditionally historians Sorel for example have treated this war as the beginning of the Eastern Question the question of how the European powers should manage the decline of the Ottoman Empire A thorough grasp of the Russo Turkish War is essential to understanding the complexity and volatility of diplomacy in 18th century Europe This book will be an invaluable resource for all scholars and students on European military history and the history of Eastern Europe American Book Publishing Record ,2006
