The Spiritual Practices Of Rumi Radical Techniques For Beholding The Divine:

The Spiritual Practices of Rumi Will Johnson, 2007-08-13 The secret Rumi found in beholding the Divine in his sacred relationship with Shams i Tabriz Shows how in 1244 Sufi poet and mystic Jalaluddin Rumi was first brought to a state of ecstatic union with the cosmos and all its creatures Reveals the radical spiritual practice Rumi formulated in his private retreat with the mendicant seeker Shams i Tabriz Uses the poetry and prose of Rumi to explain how to come face to face with the Divine One of the most extraordinary events in the history of Sufism occurred in 1244 when the Sufi poet and mystic Jalaluddin Rumi met a wandering seeker named Shams i Tabriz Upon meeting the two men immediately went into private retreat together emerging ninety days later in a transformed condition In The Spiritual Practices of Rumi Will Johnson reveals the radical spiritual practice that transpired between Rumi and Shams To put it simply they sat and gazed into each other's eyes Because the eyes are portals to the soul their sustained gazing formed the basis of a devotional practice that opened the doors to a profoundly ecstatic state of divine union Johnson draws on the poetry and prose of Rumi to unfold his story He also explains how one may embark on the practice of intentional gazing to experience the state of ecstatic divine union shared by Rumi and Shams so many centuries ago Spiritual Practices of Rumi Will Johnson, 2007 Rumi's Four Essential Practices Will Johnson, 2010-01-19 Poems and commentary that open the door for a new generation to experience the ecstatic and embodied spiritual truths contained in Rumi's poetry Reveals how the four practices of eating lightly breathing deeply moving freely and gazing intently can invoke the divinity within us all Explains how these practices dissolve the self's need for identity so that we may experience a state of transcendent ecstasy and union with the divine Takes Rumi's path to finding God from theoretical to embodied practices The great thirteenth century Sufi mystic and poet Jalaluddin Rumi began his life as an orthodox Islamic believer but felt that to fully experience complete union with the divine he must abandon institutionalized religion and its prescribed forms of worship Surrendering his will to his overriding urge for a much more immediate intuitive and compelling union with the divine he found that by manipulating certain behavioral aspects of his physiology eating lightly breathing deeply moving freely and gazing raptly he was capable of loosening the rigid confines of the self thereby overriding its limitations and achieving a transcendent merging with his own divinity His message is simple if you wish to affect the spirit you must first make changes in the way your body responds to the world Through clearly written commentary interspersed with Rumi's beautiful poems this book details these four practices in a very precise way As such it is a sweet and open invitation to follow the examples set forth in order to embark upon one's own path of inner illumination The freshness of Rumi's poetry dissolves the 700 years that separate his life from our own time making his message as pertinent today as when he walked the streets of Konya Anatolia present day Turkey reciting his inspiring verse This book allows us through Rumi's gentle guidance to touch the face of God that resides deep within us all Embracing the Divine Feminine, 2014-10-07 More than ancient erotic love poetry this celebration of the human relationship with

Wisdom can be a companion for your own spiritual journey The Song of Songs is the Hebrew Bible's deeply erotic poem of love sexual yearning and consummation Holding it sacred yet troubled by its thinly veiled eroticism Jews and Christians for millennia have read the Song of Songs as an allegory of God's love for Israel the classic Jewish understanding or Jesus's love for his Church the classic Christian understanding This fresh translation restores the Song's eroticism and interprets it as a celebration of the love between the Divine Feminine and the contemporary spiritual seeker Scholar and award winning teacher Rami Shapiro renders this ancient love song as Lady Wisdom offering seekers physical and spiritual intimacy with her so that they might awaken to and participate wisely in the unity of God woman man and nature His intriguing facing page commentary provides historical religious and spiritual insights from Christian and Jewish wisdom traditions as well as clear comparisons to other translations Now you can understand the poetry beauty genius and mystery of the Song of Songs with no previous knowledge of the Hebrew Bible or wisdom literature Compelling in its novelty and accessible in its presentation this version of the Song of Songs will beckon you more deeply into Jewish Christian sacred texts while offering you wisdom teachings and practices rooted in but not limited to religion

The Rubais of Rumi ,2007-07-17 The first English translation of the rubais of Rumi Presents 233 of the most evocative of Rumi's 1 700 rubais Shows that the mystical embrace is the way to directly experience the Divine Rumi is well known for the over 44 000 verses that appear in a 23 volume collection called the Divan i Kebir Yet Rumi also composed 1 700 rubais short aphorisms and observations whose depth and message belie their brevity The form of rubais first became well known through the 11th century collection The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam But unlike Khayyam who like most poets would sit and carefully craft each word Rumi would compose and speak his poems through the spontaneous language of poetry that poured from his lips as he traveled the streets of Konya Anatolia present day Turkey Very few of Rumi's rubais have been translated into any of the languages of the contemporary Western world Now Nevit O Ergin the translator of the complete Divan i Kebir and Will Johnson present here 233 of the most evocative of Rumi's 1 700 rubais Rumi's poetry expresses profound and complex truths in beautiful yet simple language He reveals that by going deep into the interior of our heart and soul we can arrive at a place in which we once again merge and connect with the divine This mystical quest Rumi contends is the birthright of us all Anything less than a complete dissolving into the world of divine union will not provide the satisfaction and peace that we all seek The simple yet profound spiritual truths and visions contained in The Rubais of Rumi lead the way to the path of reconnection to the direct energies of God

Luminous Life Jacob Israel Liberman, 2018-01-22 Let Light Guide Your Life The most important things in life are our health and happiness Yet most of us are neither healthy nor happy We have been led to believe that if we think ahead and make the right choices we can manifest our dreams Yet despite our best efforts we still have more disease and discontent than ever before Is it possible that our essential ideas about life are flawed We are all aware of the impact of sunlight on a plant's growth and development But few of us realize that a plant actually sees where light is emanating from and positions itself to be in optimal alignment with it This phenomenon however is not just occurring in the plant kingdom humans are also fundamentally directed by light In Luminous Life Dr Jacob Israel Liberman integrates scientific research clinical practice and direct experience to demonstrate how the luminous intelligence we call light effortlessly guides us toward health contentment and a life filled with purpose

Breathing through the Whole Body Will Johnson, 2012-01-25 Explores the Buddha's own words on breathing meditation for healing wholeness and a deeper understanding of his teachings Explains the complete series of steps in the Buddha's Satipatthana Sutta for refining awareness of the breath from posture and center of gravity to extending breath awareness beyond the nostrils lungs and abdomen to the entire body Shows that stillness in meditation refers only to the mind not to the body Reveals breath to be a direct agent of healing for chronic tensions and an agitated mind Explaining how stillness in meditation refers not to a rigid and frozen body but to a quality of mind Will Johnson examines the Buddha's own words at the core of the Satipatthana Sutta As you breathe in breathe in through the whole body as you breathe out breathe out through the whole body an instruction often overlooked in the majority of Buddhist schools Exploring the Buddha's complete series of steps for deepening awareness of the breath he shows how to invite natural responsive movement back into the posture of meditation by extending breath awareness beyond the nostrils lungs and abdomen to the entire body a practice that unifies the breath body and mind into a single shared phenomenon Showing how the flow of breath is directly affected by chronic tensions in the body and in the mind Johnson explains that when breath starts flowing through more and more of the body it becomes a direct agent of healing massaging and melting any areas of tension it touches and moves through whether physical or emotional By breathing through the whole body in accordance with the Buddha's instructions on breath the body becomes much more comfortable the mind starts resolving its addiction to thinking and meditative practice deepens much more rapidly allowing the teachings of the Buddha to be directly glimpsed and revealed Re-discovering Age(ing) Núria Casado-Gual, Emma Domínguez Rué, Maricel Oró-Piqueras, 2019-06-13 Since Mentor Telemachus advisor in Homer's Odyssey gave name to the figure of the wise teacher fictional representations of mentoring have permeated classic and contemporary cultural texts of different literary genres such as fiction poetry and life writing The contributions of this volume explore wisdom in old age through a series of narratives of mentorship which either from a critical or a personal perspective undermine ageist views of later life Eyes Wide Open Will Johnson, 2016-04-11 Meditation practices to awaken the body and create a mind like a mirror to literally see things as they are Draws on the story of the monk Shenxiu to create a meditation practice for profound relaxation inclusion and connection to the world around us and realization of our essential nature Explains how our attitudes beliefs and bodily tensions distort our perceptions and lead to our sense of separation from the world outside our bodies Details techniques of vision such as sky gazing eye gazing and mirror gazing that lead to an ecstatic mindfulness Right behind your eyes you are there You can feel yourself there looking So intimate is your connection with your looking that when you say I'm looking you're implying that how you look and what you see are a direct reflection of who you are in this moment Your attitudes and beliefs reflect what you see and the way you live in your body can color your perceptions as well This splitting in two of experience an inside the body world and an outside the body world creates in many of us a sense of isolation and loneliness a feeling of disconnection from the larger world at which we look But the visual field is equally capable of reflecting a sense of connection and inclusion an invitation to merge with the larger universe rather than confirming how irrevocably separated we are Drawing on the story of the seventh century Chinese monk Shenxiu Will Johnson offers meditation exercises to create a mind like a mirror cleansing it of obscuring layers of worry and emotion to literally see things as they are not just how we perceive them to be He explains how to awaken your body to the sensations we learn to ignore when we lose ourselves in thought and tense ourselves in ways that stifle the body's vibrancy He offers meditative techniques to silence the projections of the mind and enter into a condition of ecstatic mindfulness He details gazing practices such as sky gazing eye gazing and mirror gazing to cleanse our vision and remove whatever is distorting our perceptions Through this new kind of seeing divisions between your inner and outer world start to drop away You begin to experience an intimate connectivity to the world you look out onto By cleansing the mirror of the mind we can come out of the dreams of who we think we are and awaken into our true essential nature Posthuman Spiritualities in Contemporary Performance Silvia Battista, 2018-06-19 This book provides an interpretative analysis of the notion of spirituality through the lens of contemporary performance and posthuman theories The book examines five performance artworks The Artist is Present 2010 by Marina Abramovi The Deer Shelter Skyscape 2007 by James Turrell CAT 1998 by Ansuman Biswas Journey to the Lower World by Marcus Coates 2004 and the work with pollen by Wolfgang Laib Through the analysis of these works the notion of spirituality is grounded in materiality and embodiment allowing the conceptual juxtaposition of spirit and matter to introduce the paradoxical as the guiding thread of the narrative of the book Here the human is interrogated and negotiated with within a plurality of other living organisms intangible existences and micro and macrocosmic ecologies Silence meditation shamanic journeys reciprocal gazing restraint and contemplation are analyzed as technologies used to manipulate perception and adventure into the multilayered condition of matter Tales of a Modern Sufi Nevit O. Ergin,2009-02-12 A collection of modern Sufi tales by renowned Rumi translator and Sufi initiate Nevit Ergin Contains 24 deceptively simple stories that invoke questioning and awareness By the renowned English translator of Rumi s complete Divan i Kebir Sufi stories have traditionally been a means of opening a portal that allows us to advance from our basic perceptions into states of extraordinary awareness This collection of deceptively simple stories by renowned Rumi translator and Sufi Nevit Ergin has the ability to remove readers complacent sense of self and identity and to expand their ordinary awareness of reality from every possible direction In his stories the primrose path we travel suddenly turns into a trickster s hall of mirrors where we learn that we are not children of Adam and Eve so much as children of our perceptions The protagonists and antagonists of these stories are constantly morphing and exchanging places They exist in a world where individuals are stalked by a cricket that is an invisible monster with the face of a demon confront the ambiguous burden of ridding oneself of one s own corpse and discover the invisible fence of reality existing in the layers of a discarded piece of art The symbols in these stories are booby traps designed to release the mind from the sense of its own importance and awaken the realization that if you refuse to be born you cannot die Blind faith the author says has proved itself incapable of producing wisdom tolerance or world peace This is because the answers to humanity s problems lie beyond our ordinary perception and require love and ecstasy to be made visible Our thirst for wisdom and understanding must go to the fountain of universal truth These stories provide water from that fountain Living on the Other Side Lisa M. Hess,2025-05-15 Living on the Other Side recounts and aims to redress the unspoken largely unconscious abandonment of the Feminine in ecclesial and academic settings through an economic trinity of voices a feminist with a forgiveness problem a conscious feminine theologian serving in academic and ecclesial environments unconsciously hostile to the Feminine and a preacher s wife coming to voice about the realities of congregational Christianity held redemptively in covenantal love Fruit of decades in theological education these pages demonstrate the necessity of sacred bewilderment for deepening spiritual maturity the purposes of rage becoming holy when able to acknowledge its limitation and an unexpected freedom that arises when forgiveness finds us in faith renewed in the Body of Humanity Current and prospective students in theology and religion seasoned pastors and willing congregations will find a compelling narrative and theological sense making of one woman s life in the Spirit disrupted so to become regrounded in a renewed and renewing trinitarianism arising out of historic Christian
