This step by step guide provides practical ways to develop marketing strategies that generate growth and shareholder value.

Managing Marketing Roger Palmer, Juanita Cockton, Graham Cooper, 2012-06-14 The newly qualified manager may well be equipped with the skills of the What of marketing and management but not know the How. The practicing marketer is well served with guides on strategy, mainly of the four minute plan variety but poorly served in terms of basic advice on implementing the strategy and plans. This book is therefore designed to give clear guidance in managing the marketing function as a practical entity and allowing the new marketer to grasp how the theory can be applied to the job. Written by practitioners who are also active in the marketing education and training sectors, it gives the reader a clear overview of how the key areas of marketing knowledge can be made operationally effective. How to make marketing practical and measurable. A huge range of examples and vignettes illustrating best practice. A truly international perspective. The book will be an invaluable toolkit for the newly qualified and newly appointed marketer trying to apply their knowledge of the theory A Very Short, Fairly Interesting and Reasonably Cheap Book about Studying Marketing Jim Blythe, 2006-10-18 Studying Marketing is packed full of lively debate and funny anecdotes covering topics marketing students are familiar with such as key thinkers and concepts and some they are not. It looks at areas most textbooks ignore such as the development of marketing as a discipline and as an academic subject and raises arguments that students haven't heard about in their lectures. Conceived by Chris Grey as an antidote to conventional textbooks, each book in the Very Short Fairly Interesting and Reasonably Cheap series takes a core area of the curriculum and turns it on its head by providing a critical and sophisticated overview of the key issues and debates in an informal conversational and often humorous way. Suitable for Marketing students at Undergraduate and Postgraduate level. Along with professionals involved in marketing and anyone interested in how marketing works.
