Van Hugo Claus tot hoelahoep Kevin Absillis, Katrien Jacobs, 2007 Historische artikelen over de cultuur in Vlaanderen in de jaren vijftig Holocaust Historiography in Context David Bankier, Dan Mikhman, 2008 The modes in which historical research is being shaped have become themselves topics of research Holocaust historiography the documentation depiction and analysis of one of the most horrific events in human history is today a wide ranging academic field in which Jewish and non Jewish scholars throughout the world are active But how did this historiography especially its Jewish aspect emerge and by what factors was it shaped This volume examines the very beginnings of the effort to apply scholarly standards to the understanding of the Holocaust when World War II was still raging and immediately after it had ended The Assassination of Theo van Gogh Ron Eyerman, 2008-08-28 Explores the motives mass media attention and narrative interpretation of the November 2004 murder of Dutch filmmaker Theo van Gogh Britain and the Netherlands A. C. Duke, 2012-12-06 War has ever exercised a great appeal on men s minds Oscar Wilde s witticism notwithstanding this fascination cannot be attributed simply to the wicked character of war The demonic forces released by war have caught the artistic imagination while sages have reflected on the enigmatic readiness of each new generation to wage war despite the destruction disillusion and exhaustion that war is known to bring in its train If there never was a good war and a bad peace why did armed conflicts recur with such distressing regularity Was large scale violence an intrinsic condition of Man The answers given to such questions have differed widely it has even been suggested that the states of war and peace are not as far removed from one another as is usually supposed The causes of war and the interaction between war and society have long been the subject of philosophical enquiry and historical analysis According to Thucydides no one was ever compelled to go to war Cicero remarked how dumb were the laws in time of war while Clausewitz s profound observation concerning the affinity between war and politics has become almost a commonplace War being the severest test a society or state can experience historians have naturally been concerned to investigate their relationship Collaboration with the Nazis Roni Stauber, 2010-09-13 This book examines the changes in representing collaboration especially in the destruction of European Jewry in the public discourse and the historiography of various countries In Europe In particular it shows how representations and responses have been conditioned by national and political trends and constraints The Lure of Fascism in Western Europe D. Orlow, 2016-04-13 This book breaks new ground by analyzing the reciprocal relationship between a fascism that had reached the power phase Nazi Germany and fascist movements in two neighbouring countries which were attempting to come to power in their respective societies The World Reacts to the Holocaust David S. Wyman, Charles H. Rosenzweig, 1996-09-24 Among the issues examined are the extent of the human destruction the degree of collaboration Jewish reactions and efforts to save the Jews Making Histories Paul Ashton, Tanya Evans, Paula Hamilton, 2020-09-21 If historical culture is the specific and particular ways that a society engages with its past this book aims to situate the professional practice of public history now emerging across the world within that framework It links the increasingly varied practices of memory and history making such as genealogy podcasting re enactment family histories memoir writing film making and facebook histories with the work that professional historians do both in and out of the academy Making Histories asks questions about the role of the expert and notions of authority within a landscape that is increasingly concerned with connection to the past and authenticity The book is divided into four parts 1 Resistance Rights Authority 2 Memory Memorialization Commemoration 3 Performance Transmission Reception 4 Family Private Self The four sections outline major themes emerging in public history across the world in the 21st century which are all underpinned by the impact of new media on historical practice and our central argument for the volume which advocates a more capacious definition of what constitutes public history
