The Suffering of Love Regis Martin, 2006 The topic of the meaning of human suffering the existence of evil and making sense of it all is one of universal interest The author uses the greatest example of evil and human suffering of modern times the Holocaust to put this discussion in the most stark and concrete terms possible for modern readers The Suffering of

Love Regis Martin, 1988 One of the Trinity Has Suffered: Balthasar's Theology of Divine Suffering in Dialogue Joshua R. Brotherton, 2020-01-01 Hans Urs von Balthasar's discourse on the descent of Christ into hell and its implications for the Triune God have been disputed for half a century One of the Trinity has Suffered evaluates and revises von Balthasar's theology of divine suffering in a way that interacts with and significantly enriches contemporary Catholic theology In this book Joshua R Brotherton engages twentieth century Thomistic theology as well as the thought of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI Joseph Ratzinger and Pope St John Paul II Drawing from the vast secondary literature on von Balthasar Brotherton offers a balanced assessment of his work on the topic of divine suffering both critical and appreciative Recognizing von Balthasar's laudable attempt to integrate mystical spirituality and systematic theology Brotherton seeks to distinguish valid insights from confused mixtures of metaphorical meta symbolic and philosophical metaphysical discourse on God particularly with respect to the classical problem of how the Creator who willed to become incarnate may be said to suffer Truly One of the Trinity has suffered and yet this mystery of faith must be carefully explained and understood in conformity with sustained Catholic reflection on divine immutability and simplicity the dual nature and unique personhood of Christ the Trinity of divine subsistent relations the freedom of God in creating and becoming man the analogy of being the problem of evil and the immensity and infinite value of Christ's redemptive suffering The Beggar's Banquet: A Personal Retreat on Christ,

His Mother, the Spiritual Life, and the Saints Regis Martin, 2014-01-01 The Beggar's Banquet is a feast of reflections to savor while meditating on the astounding mystery of God's love for His people Dr Regis Martin infuses these discourses on Christ His Mother the spiritual life and the saints with a wide breadth of influences the writings of popes mystics and theologians great works of literature and even poetry The author rekindles the familiar Gospel message with ever deepening wonder whetting the appetite for that which alone truly satisfies the Bread of Life From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation The work unfolds in two parts In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God's response to them In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy memory forgiveness and hope The

Trinity and Theodicy Jacob H. Friesenhahn, 2016-02-17 Why does God permit the great suffering and evil that we see in our world This basic question of human existence receives a fresh answer in this book as the mystery of evil is explored in the context of the mystery of the Trinity God's permission of evil and the way in which suffering can lead human persons into the life of the Trinity are discussed in dialogue with the great Swiss theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar In the light of Balthasar's model of the Trinity as divine self giving love we gain a profound grasp of the nature of suffering in human life by placing our suffering in the context of the divine life of the Triune God

Becoming a Handmaid of the Lord Ronda Chervin, Ronda De Sola Chervin, 2003-06 The journals of this well known Catholic writer detail the graces that sustained her during a mid life crisis It was in the year 1977 that I first started saving my journal entries The excerpts from the journals 1977 1995 describe special graces and reflections as I staggered through more decades of my life years that included a bout with breast cancer the death of my parents the suicide of our beloved son and the death of my dear husband in 1993 Excerpt from introduction Dr Chervin's journals are insightful inspiring and challenging

Light in Darkness Alyssa Lyra Pitstick, 2007-02-12 He descended into hell Hans Urs von Balthasar one of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century placed this affirmation of the Nicene Creed at the heart of his reflection on the world altering events of Holy Week asserting that this identification of God with the human experience is at the absolute center of the Christian faith Yet is such a descent to suffering really the essence of Catholic belief about the mystery of Holy Saturday Alyssa Lyra Pitstick's Light in Darkness the first comprehensive treatment of Balthasar's theology of Holy Saturday draws on the multiple yet unified resources of authoritative Catholic teaching on Christ's descent to challenge Balthasar's conclusions Pitstick conducts a thorough investigation of Balthasar's position that Christ suffered in his descent into hell and asks whether that is compatible with traditional teaching about Christ Light in Darkness is a thorough argument for the existence and authority of a traditional Catholic doctrine of Christ's descent as manifested in creeds statements of popes and councils Scripture and art from Eastern and Western traditions Pitstick's carefully argued contrarian work is sure to spur debate across the theological spectrum

Witness to Wonder: The World of Catholic Sacrament Regis Martin, 2017-05-25

Toward a Theology of Psychological Disorder Marcia Webb, 2017-08-15 How do Christians in the twenty first century understand psychological disorders What does Scripture have to teach us about these conditions Marcia Webb examines attitudes about psychological disorder in the church today and compares them to the scriptural testimony She offers theological and psychological insights to help contemporary Christians integrate biblical perspectives with current scientific knowledge about mental illness

He Speaks to You Helena Burns FSP, 2012-06-22 Discerning your vocation can be difficult But endowed with the spiritual guidance contained within this book and with Jesus as your lifelong coach you'll be on your way

Confession of a Catholic Worker Larry Chapp, 2023-04-05 Everyone knows there is a crisis in the Catholic Church and in the world around us Some say it is capitalism gone wild Others say it is the decay of tradition family and objective truth Still others say it is the rise of radical reactionary conservatism Though all may not agree on the nature of the crisis who doesn't agree that there is one and who isn't worried For Larry Chapp crisis is always the norm of Christian existence In a cold dying world choked by greed the Gospel calls for radical love and radical living according to the Sermon on the Mount Using the theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar Peter Maurin and Dorothy Day Chapp argues that the real remedy to the disease of sin is not niceness not political liberation not fancy liturgical dress not technical rigor but a free decision to live totally and joyfully in Jesus Christ without compromise Just as the martyrs chose God over life itself so each Christian must in the crucial hour choose Jesus over all things Everything hinges on the moment of Christian witness

What Is the Church? Regis Martin, 2003-06-01 What Is the Church is Regis Martin's delightful meditation on the beauty and the depth of the Catholic Church Solidly orthodox and universal in its outlook this is a work for anyone who wishes to understand more deeply what it means to be Catholic In his 1998 encyclical Tertio Millennio Adveniente Pope John Paul II asked catechists and theologians to promote a deeper understanding of the ecclesiological doctrine of the Second Vatican Council as contained primarily in the Dogmatic Constitution Lumen Gentium no 47 To respond to this call Dr Regis Martin wrote What Is the Church in order to present a faithful ecclesiology in simple accessible terms

Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

New Covenant, 1997 The Mysticism of Ordinary Life Andrew Prevot, 2023 The Mysticism of Ordinary Life presents a new vision of Christian mystical theology offering critical interpretations of the theologians philosophers and intersectional feminists who draw on mystical traditions to affirm ordinary life arguing that everyday experiences of divine grace can be an empowering source of social transformation

Visions and Faces of the Tragic Paul M. Blowers, 2020 This study presses beyond the pervasive early Christian aversion to pagan theatrical art in all its forms and investigates the growing critical engagement with the genre of tragedy by Christian authors especially in the post-Constantinian era

New Oxford Review, 1996 The Silent God and the Silenced Min-Ah Cho, 2025 By exploring silence as more than just the mere absence of sound scholars have addressed silence as a means through which one genuinely listens to Dasein Heidegger as an antidote to a reactive volatile and opinion slinging culture Susan Sontag or as a communication alternative to the violent and turbulent rhetoric of the dominant narrative Commonly recognized in these studies is the spiritual and mystical dimension of silence that transcends the rational and the comprehensible This book begins where these theories leave off arguing that ultimate silence arises from Christian mystical tradition and theology The book particularly engages with Michel de Certeau s exploration of the empty tomb metaphor Evagrius Ponticus writings on hesychasm Søren Kierkegaard s reflections Jean Luc Nancy s notion of divine place and Sarah Coakley s prayerful vulnerability The book also puts ultimate silence into conversation with writers and artists namely Mary Oliver Simone Weil Susan Sontag and the poet and performance artist Theresa Hak Kyung Cha The book establishes a theory that makes the spiritual tradition of silence available for its practice in our everyday life grounded in the inexhaustible mystery of the spiritual With a deeper theological understanding of contemplation that transcends the rational the practice of silence in everyday life facilitates engagement between listener and speaker that allows both parties to deepen the relationship Provided by publisher Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2013-01-17 A Christian response to global realities of human inequality poverty violence and ecological destruction in the twenty first century
