OSERS News in Print ,1993 Hand in Hand Diane P. Wormsley,Frances Mary D'Andrea, Curriculum and Instruction A. Jonathan Eakle,2012-08-14 Education of America s school children always has been and always will be a hot button issue From what should be taught to how to pay for education to how to keep kids safe in schools impassioned debates emerge and mushroom both within the scholarly community and among the general public This volume in the point counterpoint Debating Issues in American Education reference series tackles the topic of curriculum and instruction Fifteen to twenty chapters explore such varied issues as alternative curriculum curriculum control standardized curricula subject versus student centered curricula textbooks and more Each chapter opens with an introductory essay by the volume editor followed by point counterpoint articles written and signed by invited experts and concludes with Further Readings and Resources thus providing readers with views on multiple sides of curriculum and instruction issues and pointing them toward more in depth resources for further exploration Handbook of Research on Special Education Teacher Preparation Paul T. Sindelar,Erica D. McCray,Mary T. Brownell,Benjamin Lignugaris/Kraft,2014-03-05 Compilations of research on teacher preparation often include no more than a cursory mention of the specific roles and needs of special education teachers Although the work that special education teachers perform does indeed differ from the work of classroom teachers teacher preparation in the two fields has much in common The purpose of this seven part handbook is to expand our knowledge of teacher education broadly by providing an in depth look at the most up to date research on special education teacher preparation Opening chapters ground the collection in political and economic context while subsequent sections delve deeply into issues related to the current state of our special education workforce and offer insights into how to best prepare and sustain that workforce Ultimately by illuminating the particularities of special education teacher preparation this landmark handbook addresses the state of current research in the field and sets an agenda for future scholarship Behavior Analysis and Treatment Ron Van Houten,Saul Axelrod,2013-11-22 In May 1986 the Association for Behavior Analysis ABA established a task force on the right to effective behavioral treatment The mandate of this task force was to identify and delineate specific rights as they apply to behavioral treatment Impetus for this project came in part from the controversy over the use of aversive procedures which some held had no place in treatment and with evolution of the treatment process were no longer necessary In contrast others cited evidence that programs based on positive reinforcement alone were sometimes not effective in treating severe problems These researchers and practitioners desired to ensure that clients and guardians be permitted to choose treatments that included punishment procedures when assessments warranted their use The first editor approached Ogden Lindsley president of ABA about establishing a task force to examine this issue The ABA council decided to broaden the mandate to include an examination of clients right to effective behavioral treatment in general The first editor was asked to chair the task force and appointed Saul Axelrod Jon S Bailey Judith E Favell Richard M Foxx and O Ivar Lovaas as members Brian A Iwata was appointed liaison by the ABA council
