Mullins, 2018-02-06

The Best Native American Stories For Children features stories which have been selected for young readers while presenting children with a chance to explore Native American history. Contained within 186 pages in 6x9 format, Mullins brings history to life along with original art by award-winning artist C. L. Hause. Most Native American tribes did not write down or record their history, so we have to find out about their past in other ways. They used games, myths, dance, and impersonation to teach the children of their history and ways of life. Their storytelling was filled with family heritage and stories of the earth. It is through storytelling that the rich history of the Native American tribes is alive and well today. It has been shared and preserved and still pays tribute to fallen heroes of the past. It is through these glimpses into the past and these stories, much like the ones that are contained in this book, that you can see what a proud heritage they possess and how in tune with the Earth Native Americans really are. Included in this collection are: The Woman and Her Bear, The First Moccisons, At The Rainbow's End, The Gift of Corn, The Gift of the Peace Pipe, How the Deer got His Horns, The Orphan Boy Captured by the Bad Thunderbirds, Dream Walk, The Origin of Fire, and the Canoe. How the Milky Way Came To Be, Turtle Goes to War, How the Bear Lost His Tail, The Origin of the Pleiades, and the Pine. The Story of the Drum, Ghost of the White Deer, The Boy and the Turtles, The Story of the Buffalo, Painted Lodges, The Story of the First Pine Trees. Welch,Michael Whitcomb-Tavey,2020-01-21 Spring Theme Life This spring Daily Bible Study presents a series of readings supporting the theme Life Readings come from Old and New Testament texts These daily readings which prepare us for the 13 lessons in Adult Bible Studies are written by Sue Mink Michael Whitcomb Tavey and Clara Welch Wilderness Suffering is a reality of life and the readings in this unit take us to places in Scripture where suffering is a dominant theme From the Old Testament and the New Testament we read stories that take place in gardens and in the wilderness We also retrace the exile of the people of Judah and better understand the suffering that experience brought We examine these stories not to wallow in misery but to understand them as a context for hope and salvation as we too live through times of suffering Salvation Suffering is not the end of our story when God is involved with us Thus the readings in this second unit are about salvation They explore the new start for the people of Judah represented by the rebuilding of the Temple in Haggai s time and the new start for humankind announced by John the Baptist and accomplished through the death and resurrection of Jesus new starts made possible by God s initiative Grace One of the early readings in this quarter is about the expulsion from the garden of Eden the loss of paradise In the readings from this unit we see the Bible's prophecy of the return to paradise the kingdom of God made possible by God's grace along with other points in Scripture at which God's grace was operative. Each of these readings reminds us that God's grace is an ongoing force in life for those who are faithful to God. This ongoing day by day Bible study series is a great companion to Adult Bible Studies but can also be used as a standalone study for anyone wanting daily time with God. It is presented in quarterly segments Bible based Christ focused and United Methodist approved. This resource helps individuals develop the discipline of studying the Bible every day and coordinates with the lesson themes of Adult Bible Studies. Each lesson includes a one page Bible study for each day of the quarter along with introductory reflection questions and commentary on the daily Scripture passage, life application and a concluding prayer. Now in response to feedback we are introducing new features and benefits to the resources including:

- A comprehensive Bible study plan with more flexibility in terms of Scripture selection and topics
- Observation of the church seasons including Advent and Lent
