Cuffy found a little animal covered with stiff sharp quills and he knew that it was a porcupine And all at once Cuffy felt very hungry He remembered that his father had sometimes brought home porcupine meat and yes Cuffy actually smacked his lips His mother was always telling him not to smack his lips but Cuffy forgot all about it now As Cuffy came running up Mr Porcupine rolled himself into a round ball and lay perfectly still Now Cuffy remembered that his father had often told him never to touch a porcupine because if he should he would get his paws stuck full of quills But now Cuffy decided that he would show his father that he too was clever enough to kill a porcupine So he stepped close to the little round prickly ball and gave it one good hard cuff
