Vakmanschap Is Meesterschap:

Alles Went, Ook Een Adolesce Theo Compernelle, 2003 Vakmanschap is meesterschap, 1965 The Routledge Intermediate Dutch Reader Eddy Verbaan, Christine Sas, Janneke Louwerse, 2013-07-18 The Routledge Intermediate Dutch Reader has been specially designed for upper intermediate learners of Dutch and comprises a broad selection of graded readings. The readings are taken from a range of contemporary Dutch writing from newspapers and magazines through to specialist journals and the internet. The texts have been specifically selected to ensure students receive maximum exposure to topics pertaining to Dutch language culture and society making this Reader an enjoyable and stimulating resource with a meaningful cultural context. Each reading is fully supported by a general introduction, a vocabulary list with example sentences, a number of text comprehension questions and extensive vocabulary exercises with model answers provided in the key, a wide variety of speaking exercises relevant to the vocabulary and topic at hand, a number of internet research tasks, a short list of suggested further reading. A full glossary of words, an overview of fixed word combinations and an outline of irregular verbs are also available as free downloads at <http://www.routledge.com/books/details/9780415550086>. Suitable for both class use and independent study. The Routledge Intermediate Dutch Reader is an essential tool for facilitating vocabulary learning and increasing reading proficiency.

Mass Media Advertising Edith Smit, 1999 For most consumers advertising is less important than advertisers might think. Advertising appears to function as something in the background that is hardly noticed as wallpaper. But mass mediated advertising should at least function as a reminder when people are making choices. Smit addresses these questions through in-depth interviews, a nation-wide telephone survey with follow-up mail and a face-to-face survey. Edith Smit is associate professor at the Department of Communication at the University of Amsterdam and at the Amsterdam School of Communications Research. She is also Deputy Director of Swocc, the Dutch Foundation for Fundamental Research on Commercial Communication.

Processes, Terms and Cycles: Steps on the Road to Infinity Aart Middeldorp, 2005-12-13 This Festschrift is dedicated to Jan Willem Klop on the occasion of his 60th birthday. The volume comprises a total of 23 scientific papers by close friends and colleagues written specifically for this book. The papers are different in nature: some report on new research, others have the character of a survey, and again others are mainly expository. Every contribution has been thoroughly refereed at least twice. In many cases the first round of referee reports led to significant revision of the original paper which was again reviewed. The articles especially focus upon the lambda calculus, term rewriting and process algebra, the fields to which Jan Willem Klop has made fundamental contributions.

The Heineken Story Barbara Smit, 2014-11-06 Heineken is known all around the world but few of the drinkers who eagerly watch the foam rise in their glass have heard of the business ploys, marketing tricks and extraordinary characters that transformed the Dutch family business into a global brand. Taking us on a journey from a small brewery in Amsterdam in 1864 to the present day The Heineken Story tells the remarkable and sometimes controversial true story of one of the world's largest brewing companies and of Alfred Freddy Heineken the singular business man who secured its position From spectacular takeovers and inspired marketing campaigns to a kidnapping that brought in the largest ransom ever paid for an individual this is a gripping account of the battle for the international beer market Barbara Smit has experience writing on family drama marketing and consumer culture and in The Heineken Story she has put together a narrative that is meticulously researched and fizzing with competition personalities and betrayal

The Conscience and Self-Conscious Emotions in Adolescence Frans Schalkwijk, 2014-09-15 The consequences of apparent moral failings in an individual are something that can be seen frequently in the media and in everyday life One issue that is rarely addressed in public discussion about someone's lack of conscience is any thought as to how the conscience actually functions In The Conscience and Self-Conscious Emotions in Adolescence Frans Schalkwijk presents a new definition of the conscience as a psychic function in which self-conscious emotions and empathy are dominant Schalkwijk combines current scientific research into empathy shame and guilt as well as his rich clinical experience to create a wealth of information for clinicians working with children and adolescents This book is a superb guide for operationalizing the diagnostics of the conscience presenting a developmental approach to the theory and diagnostics of the conscience and integrating psychoanalytic cognitive behavioural social psychological and neurobiological theories Research has shown that human behaviours are often enacted well below our potential cognitive level In this book a balance is found between affective and cognitive aspects of the conscience Accessibly written and incorporating case studies and detailed notation throughout this is a highly practical work ideal for psychoanalysts psychiatrists psychologists students and professionals working with children adolescents and adults
