Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore Anonymous, 2024-01-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 General catalogue of printed books British museum. Dept. of printed books, 1931 Pliny the Book-Maker Ilaria Marchesi, 2015-07-30 What did it mean in terms of social cultural and literary negotiations to publish one's own work in Rome at the end of the first century CE What kinds of traces has the author's work as editor left on the text as we read it How can we interpret them What kind of well choreographed balancing act was needed to ensure immediate availability and success for one's work in terms of its historical contemporary audience while guaranteeing its long lasting appeal with a hypothetical one These are the key questions behind the essays in this collection as they address Pliny the Younger's complex self editorial strategies and what they were intended to achieve The individual studies use philological and interpretive arguments to reveal that Pliny's nine book collection of private epistles is a carefully arranged work designed ultimately and primarily to address that peculiar kind of audience that we have come to conceptualize as posterity In doing so they suggest that in the collected form of the Epistles meaning is produced by the interplay of multiple factors Immediate context placement in the book linkage achieved by way of formal or thematic patterns recurrence of addressees happenings and dates all impact individual texts in Pliny's collection and charge them with sense Pliny the Book Maker is intended as a contribution to the larger recent re orientation of Pliny studies which looks to shift the focus of analysis from strictly socio historical data mining to a literary re evaluation of Pliny's texts CATALOGUE OF GREEK AND LATIN CLASSICS MODERN LATINISTS AND HELLENISTS MACARONI, 1884 2000-2999, Language and literature Princeton University. Library, 1920 Vitruvius Indra Kagis McEwen, 2004-09-17 A historical study of Vitruvius's De architectura showing that his purpose in writing the whole body of architecture was shaped by the imperial Roman project of world domination Vitruvius's De architectura is the only major work on architecture to survive from classical antiquity and until the eighteenth century it was the text to which all other architectural treatises referred While European classicists have focused on the factual truth of the text itself English speaking architects and architectural theorists have viewed it as a timeless source of valuable metaphors Departing from both perspectives Indra Kagis McEwen examines the work s meaning and significance in its own time Vitruvius dedicated De architectura to his patron Augustus Caesar the first Roman emperor whose rise to power inspired its composition near the end of the first century B C McEwen argues that the imperial project of world dominion shaped Vitruvius s purpose in writing what he calls the whole body of architecture Specifically Vitruvius s aim was to present his discipline as the means for making the emperor s body congruent with the imagined body of the world he would rule Each of the book s four chapters treats a different Vitruvian body Chapter 1 The Angelic Body deals with the book as a book in terms of contemporary events and thought particularly Stoicism and Stoic theories of language Chapter 2 The Herculean Body addresses the book s and its author s relation to Augustus whose double Vitruvius means the architect to be Chapter 3 The Body Beautiful discusses the relation of proportion and geometry to architectural beauty and the role of beauty in forging the new world order Finally Chapter 4 The Body of the King explores the nature and unprecedented extent of Augustan building programs Included is an examination of the famous statue of Augustus from Prima Porta sculpted soon after the appearance of De architectura
