Visual Political Communication in Popular Chinese Television Series Florian Schneider, 2012-09-14 Visual Political Communication in Popular Chinese Television Series has been granted the EastAsiaNet 2014 Award In Visual Political Communication in Popular Chinese Television Series Florian Schneider analyses political discourses in Chinese TV dramas the most popular entertainment format in China today Schneider shows that despite their often nationalistic stories of glorious emperors and courageous officials such programmes should not be mistaken for official propaganda Instead the highly didactical messages of such series are the outcome of complex cultural governance practices which are influenced by diffuse political interests commercial considerations viewing habits and ideological assumptions Schneider argues that these interlinking factors lead to a highly restrictive creative environment and to conservative entertainment content that ultimately risks creating precisely the kind of passive masses that Chinese media workers and government officials are trying so hard to emancipate

Computer Gaming World, 2001 Who Gets to Be Indian? Dina Gilio-Whitaker, 2025-10-07 An investigation into how Native American identity became a commodity from cultural appropriation to ethnic fraud to disenrollment Settler capitalism has been so effective that the very identities of Indigenous people have been usurped misconstrued and weaponized In Who Gets to Be Indian scholar and writer Dina Gilio Whitaker Colville Confederated Tribes explores how ethnic fraud and the commodification of Indianness has resulted in mass confusion about what it means to be Indigenous in the United States As an entry point to the seemingly intractable problem of ethnic fraud Gilio Whitaker critically looks to the film industry including a case study of Sacheen Littlefeather who is most known as the Native American woman that rejected an Oscar on behalf of Marlon Brando in 1973 though later revealed she was not who she said she was Gilio Whitaker argues that this pretendian phenomenon originated in Southern California when the United States was forcing assimilation of Indians into white America culturally but also into its capitalist economic system With Indianness becoming a marketized commodity in the Hollywood film business the field became open to anyone who could convincingly adopt an Indian persona Deeply researched using socio historical analysis Gilio Whitaker offers insights from her own experiences grappling with identity to provide clarity and help readers understand how the commodification of Indianness have ultimately left many people of legitimate American Indian heritage to be disconnected from their tribes Personal and compelling Gilio Whitaker takes settler capitalism to task and helps us better understand how we got here in order to counteract the abuses of pretendianism and disenrollment Cable Vision ,2001 Broadcasting & Cable ,2000 Brandweek ,2000
