New Drivers of Division Ya Ping Wang, Keith Kintrea, David Everatt, Debolina Kundu, 2025-09-02 This open access book provides recent trends of urbanization and inequality in Africa and Asia It addresses the inequality challenges of urbanization and large scale rural to urban migration It answers questions around socio economic and spatial inequalities and how serious those are in cities in Africa and Asia under 21st century urbanization Chapters demonstrate how the old neighborhood division in cities based on race ethnicity religion apartheid tribes caste and migrant are replaced by social class through sorting in the housing market The analyses go beyond the normal income inequality consideration and take a broader perspective on inequality by considering these issues at the neighborhood level to reveal the new spatial divisions in cities As such it is essential reading for academics and students in urban studies sociology geography planning and policymakers working on urban development around the world Religion, Heritage and the Sustainable City Yamini Narayanan, 2014-10-10 The speed and scale of urbanisation in India is unprecedented almost anywhere in the world and has tremendous global implications The religious influence on the urban experience has resonances for all aspects of urban sustainability in India and yet it remains a blind spot while articulating sustainable urban policy This book explores the historical and on going influence of religion on urban planning design space utilisation urban identities and communities It argues that the conceptual and empirical approaches to planning sustainable cities in India need to be developed out of analytical concepts that define local sense of place and identity Examining how Hindu religious heritage beliefs and religiously influenced planning practices have impacted on sustainable urbanisation development in Jaipur and Indian cities in general the book identifies the challenges and opportunities that ritualistic and belief resources pose for sustainability It focuses on three key aspects spatial segregation and ghettoisation gender inclusive urban development and the nexus between religion nature and urban development This cutting edge book is one of the first case studies linking Hindu religion heritage urban development women and the environment in a way that responds to the realities of Indian cities It opens up discussion on the nexus of religion and development drawing out insightful policy implications for the sustainable urban planning of many cities in India and elsewhere in South Asia and the developing world
