Residential Real Estate Anupam Nanda, 2019-03-20 Residential Real Estate introduces readers to the economic fundamentals and emerging issues in housing markets The book investigates housing market issues within local regional national and international contexts in order to provide students with an understanding of the economic principles that underpin residential property markets Key topics covered include Location choice in urban areas Housing supply and demand Housing finance and housing as an asset class Demographic shifts and implications for housing Sustainable homes and digitalisation in housing Drawing on market level information readers are encouraged to recognise the supply and demand drivers and modelling of dynamic housing markets at various spatial scales and the implications of trends within an urban and regional context e.g. urbanisation, ageing population, migration, digitalisation. With research based discussions and coverage of relevant literature, this is an ideal textbook for students of residential real estate, property and related business studies courses at UG and PG levels, as well as a reference book with research topics for researchers. This book will also be of interest to professionals and policymakers.

The Undergraduate Research Handbook Gina Wisker, 2018-10-26. This is a comprehensive guide to planning and producing high quality dissertations, written assignments and project reports at undergraduate level. It supports students of all disciplines through each stage of the research process, from drafting questions and reviewing the literature through to collecting data and presenting their work. It provides practical guidance on common problems, including writer's block and managing deadlines, and contextualises this with examples of real students' experience of research. This text will be invaluable to undergraduate students undertaking academic research in all subject areas. New to this Edition: Features new and updated content on the internet and critical thinking and analytical skills in relation to developing and following through with a research agenda.

Understanding Disability Policies Robert F. Drake, 1999-02-08. This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the development and consequences of disability policies, contrasting policies grounded in medical definitions of disability with a social model of disability supported by disability rights campaigners in their pursuit of anti-discrimination legislation. British policies are set in comparative context and the impacts of policy on disabled people according to their class, gender, age and ethnicity are explored.

Indigenous Homelessness Evelyn Peters, Julia Christensen, 2016-10-28. Being homeless in one's homeland is a colonial legacy for many Indigenous people in settler societies. The construction of Commonwealth nation states from colonial settler societies depended on the dispossession of Indigenous peoples from their lands. The legacy of that dispossession and related attempts at assimilation that disrupted Indigenous practices, languages and cultures, including patterns of housing and land use, can be seen today in the disproportionate number of Indigenous people affected by homelessness in both rural and urban settings. Essays in this collection explore the meaning and scope of Indigenous homelessness in Canada, Australia and New Zealand. They argue that effective policy and support programs aimed at relieving Indigenous homelessness must be rooted in Indigenous conceptions of home, land and kinship and cannot ignore the context of systemic inequality, institutionalization, landlessness among other things that stem from a history of colonialism.

Indigenous Homelessness: Perspectives from Canada, New Zealand and Australia provides a comprehensive exploration of the Indigenous experience of homelessness. It testifies to ongoing cultural resilience and lays the groundwork for practices and policies designed to better address the conditions that lead to homelessness among Indigenous peoples.

The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities Mary Romero, Eric Margolis, 2008-04-15. The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities is a first-rate collection of social science scholarship on inequalities, emphasizing race, ethnicity, class, gender, sexuality, age and nationality. Highlights themes that represent the scope and range of theoretical orientations, contemporary emphases and emerging topics in the field of social inequalities Gives special attention to debates in the field developing trends and directions and interdisciplinary influences in the study of social inequalities Includes an editorial introduction and suggestions for further reading

Research Handbook on Homelessness Guy Johnson, Dennis Culhane, Suzanne Fitzpatrick, Stephen Metraux, Eoin O'Sullivan, 2024-08-06 The Research Handbook on Homelessness presents a comprehensive account of the current knowledge and understanding of homelessness the substantial challenges it presents and the latest developments in responding to the issue Bringing together 54 of the world's leading scholars in this field this multidisciplinary Research Handbook acknowledges the increasing interest in homelessness across various academic disciplines and highlights the constant evolution of this issue as well as the research methods that accompany it
