Edward Sheriff Curtis Edward S. Curtis, Florence Curtis Graybill, Victor Boesen, 2000 First published in 1976 this book is the classic photographic record of Native American life by one of America's greatest photographers From 1904 to 1930 Curtis sought out the vanishing tribes with an unwavering passion to record the faces and lifestyles of the Indians before they vanished forever 95 duotone plates Visions of a Vanishing Race Florence Curtis Graybill, Edward Sheriff Curtis, 1994 182 photos incl 95 duotones Orig 35 00 Visions of a Vanishing Race A. D. Coleman, 1975 Alien Visions Margaret Ziolkowski, 2005 There are many parallels and some revealing differences in the encounter between on the one hand the Americans and various Indian tribes and on the other the Russians and some of the peoples of the Caucasus and Siberia The enduring cultural consequences of these encounters provide a fruitful area of inquiry for the comparative examination of national images in literatures The major focus on this study is the perceptions and literary portrayal of the Chechens by the Russians and the Navajos by the Americans Both the Chechen in Russian literature and the Navajo in American literature are often constructs images derived from a potent combination of prejudices and received assumptions In each case a relatively sizable corpus of writings produced over a century or longer exemplifies or attempts to counter persistent and influential modes of cultural stereotyping The diachronic analysis of the portrayal of either the Chechens or the Navajos illuminates patterns of prejudice that have immense implications for both popular and high culture The juxtaposition of the discussion of the two groups as they have been treated in Russian and American literature can deepen our understanding of the commonalities present in attempted cultural domination or ethnic idealization Margaret Ziolkowski is Professor of Russian at Miami University Ohio The Vanishing Race, 1925 The Vanishing Race Joseph Kossuth Dixon, 1913 As We See It Suzanne Newman Fricke, 2023-10-15 In As We See It Suzanne Newman Fricke invites readers to explore the work and careers of ten contemporary Native American photographers Jamison Banks Anna Hoover Tom Jones Larry McNeil Shelley Niro Wendy Red Star Beverly Singer Matika Wilber William Wilson and Tiffney Yazzie Inspired by As We See It an exhibition of these artists work cocurated by Fricke in 2015 the book showcases the extraordinary achievements of these groundbreaking photographers As We See It presents dialogues in which the artists share their unique perspectives about the history and current state of photography Each chapter includes an overview of the photographer's career as well as examples of the artist's work For added context Fricke includes an introduction a preface that explores the original exhibition of the same name and an essay that challenges the ghost of Edward S Curtis whose work serves as a counterpoint to the photography of contemporary Native Americans The text is designed to be read as a whole or in sections for anyone teaching Native American photography As We See It is an invaluable addition to the library of anyone interested in Native American photography and will be the key source for teachers researchers and lovers of photography for years to come
