Visual Representations Trinity Historical Survey:

Visual Representations of the Trinity John Brainerd Macharg, 2017-05-26 Excerpt from Visual Representations of the Trinity An Historical Survey 1917 It is the purpose of this chapter to argue neither for nor against the dogma but to present for convenient reference an outline of the history of the features of its origin and development most important in connection with the visual representations to be considered that we may know something of the contemporary faith and oral teaching of the Church About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Visual Representations of the Trinity John Brainerd Macharg, 2023-07-18 John Brainerd Macharg provides an extensive survey of the visual representations of the Christian doctrine of the Trinity throughout history This study is an invaluable resource for art historians theologians and anyone interested in the intersection of religion and visual culture This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Visual Representations of the Trinity; an Historical Survey John Brainerd MacHarg, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1917 edition Excerpt chapter xx The Annunciation It may at first seem hardly likely that a representation of the Trinity was intended in pictures of The Annunciation Inasmuch as God the Son was conceived by the Holy Ghost it is somewhat difficult to localize God the Son when God the Father is shown above with the Dove proceeding from him to the Virgin Mediaeval artists were however equal to this difficulty and represented both God the Son and God the Holy Ghost on the rays of light extending from the Father to the Virgin In these pictures God the Son is usually a diminutive figure bearing a cross either preceding or following the Dove Examples of this curious representation of the Trinity are to be found in the following pictures 3 Domenico Panetti 5 Px 9 Ferrara Gal del Ateneo 10 sc 204 5 Ho 9 Lilienfeld 10 va v 1 High Altar 8 1415 1425 9 Liibeck Marienkirche 10 ka 201 25 1 Biblia Pauperum Edition of P Heitz Strasburg 1903 1 Bomisch Vesperale et Matutinale 5 Mv 8 End 14 C or beg 15C 9 Zittau City Library Ms A i Bl 1 ms Kunstbeilage 244 11 Ibid 246 In most examples of the Annunciation however God the Son is not represented It is a question whether in some pictures God the Son is represented or not by the Word which is spread before Mary This may seem a refinement of interpretation but in all probability we shall not outdo the mediaeval artists and theologians in what they thought and tried to represent A noteworthy example of the representation of the Annunciation in enamel is to be found in an exquisite triptych of the Metropolitan Museum New York Here the Book outspread before the kneeling Virgin is all but in the vertical axis of the picture with the Dove and Visual Representations of the Trinity John Brainerd MacHarg,1917 The Cornell Alumni News ,1919
