Women's Life Writing Women's Life Writing:

Women's Life-writing Linda S. Coleman, 1997 The essays in this collection offer readers vivid and varied evidence of the female response to recurring attempts by culture to artificially limit identity along the gendered lines of private and public experience Calling on voices both familiar and little known British and American black and white young and old poor and rich heterosexual and lesbian the essayists explore how women within unique personal and historical conditions used life writing as a means of both self understanding and connection to a community of sympathetic others real or imagined The life writings within this anthology span the modern history of the genre itself with writers drawn from as early as the seventeenth century and as late as the 1990s British Women's Life Writing, 1760-1840 A. Culley, 2014-07-22 British Women's Life Writing 1760 1840 brings together for the first time a wide range of print and manuscript sources to demonstrate women's innovative approach to self representation It examines canonical writers such as Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Robinson and Helen Maria Williams amongst others Women's Life Writing and Early Modern Ireland Julie A. Eckerle, Naomi McAreavey, 2019-06-01 Women's Life Writing and Early Modern Ireland provides an original perspective on both new and familiar texts in this first critical collection to focus on seventeenth century women's life writing in a specifically Irish context By shifting the focus away from England even though many of these writers would have identified themselves as English and making Ireland and Irishness the focus of their essays the contributors resituate women's narratives in a powerful and revealing landscape This volume addresses a range of genres from letters to book marginalia and a number of different women from now canonical life writers such as Mary Rich and Ann Fanshawe to far less familiar figures such as Eliza Blennerhassett and the correspondents and supplicants of William King archbishop of Dublin The writings of the Boyle sisters and the Duchess of Ormonde women from the two most important families in seventeenth century Ireland also receive a thorough analysis These innovative and nuanced scholarly considerations of the powerful influence of Ireland on these writers construction of self provide fresh illuminating insights into both their writing and their broader cultural context Women's Life Writing, 1700-1850 D. Cook, A. Culley, 2016-04-13 This collection discusses British and Irish life writings by women in the period 1700 1850 It argues for the importance of women's life writing as part of the culture and practice of eighteenth century and Romantic auto biography exploring the complex relationships between constructions of femininity life writing forms and models of authorship Women's Life Writing and Imagined Communities Cynthia Anne Huff, 2005 Recognising the great legacy of women's life writings this book draws on a wealth of sources to critically examine the impact of these writings on our communities Text and Image in Women's Life Writing Valérie Baisnée-Keay, Corinne Bigot, Nicoleta Alexoae-Zagni, Stephanie Genty, Claire Bazin, 2022-01-12 This book examines the relationship between words and images in various life writing works produced by nineteenth to twenty first century American and British women It addresses the politics of images in women's life writing contending that the presence or absence of images is often strategic Including a range of different forms of life writing chapters draw on traditional auto biographies travel narratives memoirs diaries autofiction cancer narratives graphic memoirs artistic installations quilts and online performances as life writing moves from page to screen and other media The book explores a wide range of women who have crossed the boundary between text and image painters who have become writers novelists who have become painters writers who hesitate between images and words models who seize the camera and artists who use the frame as a page

Women's Life Writing in Post-Communist Romania Simona Mitroiu, 2022-11-07 This book analyzes the impact of abusive regimes of power on women's lives and on their self expression through close readings of life writing by women in communist Romania In particular it examines the forms of agency and privacy available to women under totalitarianism and the modes of relationships in which their lives were embedded The self expression and self reflexive processes that are to be found in the body of Romanian women's autobiographical writings this study presents create complex private narratives that underpin the creative development of inclusive memories of the past through shared responsibility and shared agency At the same time however the way these private personal narratives intertwined with collective and official historical narratives exemplifies the multidimensional nature of privacy as well as the radical redefinition of agency in this period This book argues for a broader understanding of the narratives of the communist past one that reflects the complexity of individual and social interactions and allows a deep exploration of the interconnected relations between memory trauma nostalgia agency and privacy

Romantic women's life writing Susan Civale, 2019-03-14 This book explores how the publication of women's life writing influenced the reputation of its writers and of the genre itself during the long nineteenth century It provides case studies of Frances Burney Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Robinson and Mary Hays four writers whose names were caught up in debates about the moral and literary respectability of publishing the private Focusing on gender genre and authorship this study examines key works of life writing by and about these women and the reception of these texts It argues for the importance of life writing a crucial site of affective and imaginative identification in shaping authorial reputation and afterlife The book ultimately constructs a fuller picture of the literary field in the long nineteenth century and the role of women writers and their life writing within it

Genre and Women's Life Writing in Early Modern England Michelle M. Dowd, Julie A. Eckerle, 2016-04-15 By taking account of the ways in which early modern women made use of formal and generic structures to constitute themselves in writing the essays collected here interrogate the discursive contours of gendered identity in sixteenth and seventeenth century England The contributors explore how generic choice mixture and revision influence narrative constructions of the female self in early modern England Collectively they situate women's life writings within the broader textual culture of early modern England while maintaining a focus on the particular rhetorical devices and narrative structures that comprise individual texts Reconsidering women's life writing in light of recent critical trends most notably historical formalism this volume produces both new readings of early modern texts such as Margaret Cavendish's autobiography and the diary of Anne Clifford and a new understanding of the complex relationships between literary forms and early modern women's selves. This volume engages with new critical methods to make innovative connections between canonical and non-canonical writing in so doing it helps to shape the future of scholarship on early modern women.

Mothering, Public Leadership, and Women's Life Writing Claire Wolfeich, 2017-07-31. In Mothering Public Leadership and Women's Life Writing Claire E. Wolfeich presents a series of case studies in Christian spirituality bringing mothers' autobiographical writing into focus for theological reflection. From the medieval mystic Margery Kempe to the twentieth-century activist Dorothy Day from African American preacher Jarena Lee to labor organizer Dolores Huerta the book mines women's first person writing surfacing critical issues for theological analysis. Listening deeply to these diverse maternal voices the book advances creative theological reflection on work vocation time poverty Sabbath and spiritual guidance. Mothering Public Leadership and Women's Life Writing demonstrates the significance of the study of mothering for theology and spirituality studies and the import of life writing as an underutilized source for practical theology.
