The Global and the Intimate Geraldine Pratt, Victoria Rosner, 2012 By placing the global and the intimate in near relation sixteen essays by prominent feminist scholars and authors forge a distinctively feminist approach to questions of transnational relations economic development and intercultural exchange This pairing enables personal modes of writing and engagement with globalization debates and forges a definition of justice keyed to the specificity of time place and feeling Writing from multiple disciplinary and geographical perspectives the contributors participate in a long standing feminist tradition of upending spatial hierarchies and making theory out of the practices of everyday life

Tapestry of Memory Nanci Adler, 2017-07-28 In this volume contributors present narratives and explore the way they influence the perception of the past While acknowledging the debate about the validity of qualitative research based on narratives this volume aims to illuminate how truth and evidence form part of a much wider debate on the representation of history The volume includes the work of historians but the interdisciplinary nature of the contributions shows that the validity debate also applies to the broader fields of cultural studies sociology and other social sciences The distinction between memory and testimony is a crucial theme Memory though selective is the basis of testimony Testimony provides an audience with information that becomes evidence of what was seen or experienced Such evidence can form the basis of legal truth Nanci Adler and Selma Leydesdorff divide the volume into three core sections Official Testimony and Other Facts and Evidence The Creation of New History and the Integration of Collective Memory in the Story of One's Self and Claims Based on Narratives vs Official History After a comprehensive introduction by the editors the volume offers twelve essays by leading scholars This work is a new offering in Transaction's acclaimed Memory and Narrative series

Border Cinema Monica Hanna, Rebecca A. Sheehan, 2019-04-15 The rise of digital media and globalization's intensification since the 1990s have significantly refigured global cinema's form and content The coincidence of digitalization and globalization has produced what this book helps to define and describe as a flourishing border cinema whose aesthetics reflect construct intervene in denature and reconfigure geopolitical borders This collection demonstrates how border cinema resists contemporary border fortification processes showing how cinematic media have functioned technologically and aesthetically to engender contemporary shifts in national and individual identities while proposing alternative conceptions of these identities to those promulgated by the often restrictive current political rhetoric and ideologies that represent a backlash to globalization

Performing Gender Violence B. Ozieblo, N. Hernando-Real, 2012-01-02 Violence against women in plays by women has earned little mention This revolutionary collection fills that gap focusing on plays by American women dramatists written in the last thirty years that deal with different forms of gender violence Each author discusses specific manifestations of violence in carefully selected plays psychological familial war time and social injustice This book encompasses the theatrical devices used to represent violence on the stage in an age of virtual immediate reality as much as the problematics of gender violence in modern society

The Train Journey Simone Gigliotti, 2009-07-01 Deportations by train were critical in the Nazis' genocidal vision of the Final Solution of the Jewish Question Historians have estimated that between 1941 and 1944 up to three million Jews were transported to their deaths in concentration and extermination camps In his writings on the Final Solution Raul Hilberg pondered the role of trains How can railways be regarded as anything more than physical equipment that was used when the time came to transport the Jews from various cities to shooting grounds and gas chambers in Eastern Europe This book explores the question by analyzing the victims' experiences at each stage of forced relocation the round ups and departures from the ghettos the captivity in trains and finally the arrival at the camps Utilizing a variety of published memoirs and unpublished testimonies the book argues that victims experienced the train journeys as mobile chambers comparable in importance to the more studied fixed locations of persecution such as ghettos and camps

Amidst Mass Atrocity and the Rubble of Theology Peter Admirand, 2012-03-16 It is hubris to claim answers to unanswerable questions Such questions however as part of their burden and worth must still be asked investigated and contemplated How there can be a loving all powerful God and a world stymied by suffering and evil is one of the unanswerable questions we must all struggle to answer even as our responses are closer to gasps silences and further questions More importantly how and whether one articulates a response will have deep lasting repercussions for any belief in God and in our judgments upon one another Throughout this wide ranging interdisciplinary work Peter Admirand draws upon his extensive research and background in theology and testimonial literature trauma and genocide studies cultural studies philosophy of religion interreligious studies and systematic theology As David Burrell writes in the Foreword The work's intricate structure organization and development will lead us to appreciate that the best one can settle for is a fractured faith built on a fractured theodicy expressed in a language explicitly fragmented pluralist and broken Open Wounds Martin Kagel, David Z. Saltz, 2022-02-14 This volume collects original essays on Hungarian German playwright and screenwriter George Tabori 1914 2007 and his remarkable contributions to the stage Tabori a Jewish refugee and a truly transnational author was best known for his work in New York theater that irreverently explored the Jewish experience particularly the Holocaust Although his illustrious career spanned a century two continents several languages and a variety of literary genres Tabori s work has received scant attention in American letters in spite of its significance for U S theater and Holocaust studies Until Tabori most dramas about the Holocaust were either rooted in American domestic realism striving to create a strong empathetic connection between the audience and Holocaust victims or featured an unembellished documentary style Tabori staked out a third position beyond realism and documentation The volume brings together the voices of international scholars to provide a comprehensive introduction to Tabori s theater as well as in depth analyses of his work discussing all of his major plays Individual essays address Tabori s postdramatic theater in relation to sacrificial ritual performance studies and post humanist approaches to the contemporary stage as well as performance aspects of his productions questions of ethics and aesthetics raised by his theater and his plays relation to Holocaust representation in popular culture Global Media, Biopolitics, and Affect Britta Timm Knudsen, Carsten Stage, 2014-12-05 Global Media Biopolitics and Affect shows how mediations of bodily vulnerability have become a strong political force in contemporary societies In discussions and struggles concerning war involvement healthcare issues charity democracy movements contested national pasts and climate change performances of bodily vulnerability is increasingly used by citizens to raise awareness create sympathy encourage political action and to circulate information in global media networks The book thus argues that bodily vulnerability can serve as a catalyst for affectively charging and disseminating particular political events or issues by means of media To investigate how when and why that happens and to evaluate the long term social impacts of mediating bodily vulnerability the book offers a theoretical framework for understanding the role of bodily vulnerability in contemporary digital media culture Likewise it presents a range of close empirical case studies in the areas of illness blogging global protests after the killing of Neda Agda Soltan in Iran charity communication green media activism online war commemoration and digital witnessing related to conflicts in Sarajevo and Ukraine
