Approaches in Education Vol 9 No SI 2020      Postnational Feminisms Hena Ahmad, 2010 Postnational Feminisms Postcolonial Identities and Cosmopolitanism in the Works of Kamala Markandaya Tsitsi Dangaremba Ama Ata Aidoo and Anita Desai offers a significant contribution to the field of postcolonial and Third World feminist studies It reevaluates the ways in which Third World women writers interrogate the relationship between woman and nation in the postcolonial context Hena Ahmad brings forth the concept of postnational feminism which she deploys to show how these major writers challenge the role of women as signifiers of national cultures in their works This innovative concept illuminates the ambivalence of these uniquely positioned writers as Ahmad explores the connection between postnationalism and Third World feminism Soetan, 2018-12-12 Sustainable development is now intricately linked not just to economic growth but more importantly to the quality of life of people in terms of their social status political participation cultural freedom environmental justice and inclusive development For previously colonized nations like Nigeria these linkages are believed to have been influenced by the legacies of colonial rule positively or otherwise Through the Gender Lens A Century of Social and Political Development in Nigeria looks at how colonialism has enabled or hindered the roles of the state in promoting inclusive development in general and gender equality in particular in the process of nation building In this edited volume scholars analyze a host of policies strategies and programs as well as empirical evidence to expose how types of governance from direct colonial rule in the country from 1914 through her independence in 1960 a Republic in 1963 and to different post independence governance periods have influenced gender relations and the impacts of these on Nigerian women Diverse sectoral perspectives from education health culture environment and especially politics are presented to explain the level of attainment or otherwise of gender equality and the implications for Nigeria s road to sustainable development The emphasis on the role of the state in development particularly indicts the social and political domains of governance Hence the main focus of inquiry in the volume In its twelve chapters the authors analyze available data and other information to draw relevant conclusions identify lessons of experience including from some cross country comparisons and make concrete recommendations for more gender inclusive systems of governance in the next century of Nigeria s nationhood Speaking Our Selves Asiimwe Deborah

Kawe,Robert H. Vorlicky,2025-03-04 Speaking Our Selves brings together eight remarkable plays by women writers from the under represented African countries of Tanzania Mozambique Ethiopia Mali Burundi Benin and Sudan plus a play by award winning Ugandan playwright and volume coeditor Asiimwe Kawe Four of the plays are translated into English from Kiswahili French or Kirundi and French while most of the plays preserve African indigenous languages including Runyankore Lusoga Mina Fon Bambara Luganda Kiswahili and Kirundi Although the plays are united in presenting women as central figures who own their voices they also represent a rich diversity of story telling Each unique dramaturgy is rooted in African forms of story telling that occasionally merge with recognizable Western forms to create hybrid dramatic forms These hybrid methods emphasize the striking ways in which African women writers continue to experiment with form moving beyond Western influenced dramaturgy if and when it jeopardizes their authentic ways of artistic expression and creation through language movement and music centered in African Cosmology The plays within Speaking Our Selves confront a range of ideas and issues including women embracing the potential of agency in often contested subject positions confronting their historical object positions in worlds of devastating patriarchal authority resisting toxic masculinity and persistent oppressive binaries of gender roles finding power in communities of women increasing their acumen in financial business and economic spheres facing tensions between traditional religious tenets and efforts toward secularization living with perpetual acts of violence toward their bodies and the rising mental health issues among girls and women across the continent Readers and audiences are challenged by these plays not to be passive witnesses by observing from safe vantage points but rather to be active participants in the stories being told
