Transforming Education in the Gulf Region Khalid Alshahrani, Mohamed Ally, 2016-07-01 Countries in the Arab Gulf are currently experiencing some of the fastest rates of growth and progress in the world Transforming Education in the Gulf Region argues that education systems in these countries need to use innovative pedagogies and best practices in teaching and learning to educate all citizens so that they obtain the knowledge and skills to be productive members of society This book will contribute to the transformation of education in the Gulf countries by suggesting best practices research outcomes and case studies from experts in the Gulf region It has become increasingly evident in recent years that Gulf countries need to use emerging learning technologies to cater for the needs of learners and to provide maximum flexibility in learning There is also a growing practical need to use electronic technologies since learning materials are more widely available in electronic formats than in paper based formats This book focuses on the role of emerging technologies and innovative pedagogies in transforming education in six Gulf countries in the region Saudi Arabia United Arab Emirates

Kuwait Qatar Oman and Bahrain With contributions from experts around the world the book argues that the time is right for Arab Gulf countries to make the transition to electronic learning and that they need to implement the outcomes of research and adopt best practices to transform and revolutionize education to prepare learners in the Gulf region for the 21st Century The book should be of interest to academics and students in the areas of higher education learning technologies education policy and education reform It should also be of interest to educators and policymakers in the Gulf region The Charter School Solution Tara Affolter,Jamel Donnor,2016-06-10 Challenging the popular perception that the free market can objectively ameliorate inequality and markedly improve student academic achievement this book examines the overly positivistic rhetoric surrounding charter schools Taking a multifocal approach this book examines how charter schools reproduce inequality in public education By linking charter schools to broader social issues and political economic factors such as neoliberalism race and class The Charter School Solution presents a more complete and nuanced assessment of charter schools in the context of the American public education system Ethics and Research with Young Children Christopher M. Schulte,2019-12-26 As researchers and theorists teachers and teacher educators parents and grandparents and advocates for children the authors featured in Ethics and Research with Young Children share a common inclination to counter the idea of an ethics that is conventional i e an ethics that reinforces existing models and discourses which position children as irrational and incompetent that de anonymize children s ways of working and being in the world that reduces and distorts the social cultural and political forces that shape children s everyday realities and that routinely subtracts from these realities the complex responsibilities that adults have especially as researchers to recognize ethics as situated relational intersectional and provisional Aligned with the interdisciplinary commitments of a Childhood Studies approach and informed by a range of theoretical and practical frameworks the perspectives offered in this volume are grounded in relationships between and among adults and children their shifting social cultural political and material realities and a world of ideas and experiences that impel them to face and reorient their ethical commitments to each other Routledge Handbook of Natural Resource Governance in Africa Hany Besada,Cristina D'Alessandro,Tefsi Golla,2024-03-13 The Routledge Handbook of Natural Resource Governance in Africa provides a comprehensive analysis of African natural resource governance stretching across the continent and encompassing water land extractive resources and mining Africa s natural resources are not only crucial for the continent from an economic environmental and political perspective but they are also of significant geopolitical importance with direct implication for meeting the global challenges outlined in the Sustainable Development Goals Whether an abundance of natural resources proves to be a curse or a blessing depends on the nature extent and outcome of the effort and experience of an individual country in governing and managing such assets It is with this in mind that this ground breaking handbook brings together experts from across the field of natural resource development to reflect on the varied regime types and paradigms within the continent s natural resource sectors the specific challenges they face and their role within global value chains The book first considers governance for sustainable development and discourses of land and development financing before going on to investigate the regulatory and policy impacts and socioeconomic implications of natural resource management Finally the Handbook situates the African continent within the emerging global energy transition examining trends in South South cooperation and new frontiers for the harnessing of critical tools in a sustainable future for natural resource governance and management Overall the Handbook s in depth analysis provides a unique blend of realism and optimism highlighting the importance of building a new sustainable African resource narrative for shared prosperity The handbook will be an essential read for researchers and policy makers with an interest in sustainable development and natural resource governance in Africa

Diverse Families, Desirable Schools Mira

Debs,2021-03-09 In Diverse Families Desirable Schools Mira Debs offers a richly detailed study of public Montessori schools which make up the largest group of progressive schools in the public sector As public Montessori schools expand rapidly as alternatives to traditional public schools the story of these schools Debs points out is a microcosm of the broader conflicts around public school choice Drawing on historical research interviews with public Montessori educators and ethnographic case studies Debs explores the forces that pull intentionally diverse progressive schools toward elitism At the heart of Debs s book is a thoughtful analysis of the notion of fit between parents and schools an idea that is central to school choice which is often marketed as an opportunity for parents to find the perfect fit for their kids By exploring parents varied motivations in choosing these schools and observing how families experience or fail to experience a good fit after having chosen a particular school Debs makes an original contribution to the literature on school choice and sheds light on the dilemmas entailed in maintaining diversity in progressive charter and magnet schools
