what we see in the mirror is what Barb Roose calls our ugly struggle with beauty. It's a struggle that negatively affects not only our self image and self esteem but also our relationships with God and others. What is the answer? We desperately need to regain God's perspective on beauty. During this six week Bible study women will unpack the beliefs or experiences that are holding them hostage. Together they will explore God's truth about beauty throughout the Scriptures, digging into passages in both the Old and New Testaments and applying the truths in their lives. They will move away from over focusing on unrealistic expectations and perceived flaws toward God's viewpoint of their hearts, minds, bodies and souls. As women make this journey they will be set free from the trap of comparison and self ridicule. Become comfortable in their own skin. Reach beyond themselves to encourage and support other women. By learning to see the goodness, blessing and purpose for their bodies, no matter their size, shape or style, women will overcome discontent and comparison and learn to live fully as the beautifully unique creations God designed them to be. The participant workbook includes five days of lessons for each week combining study of Scripture with personal reflection, application and prayer. Other components for the Bible study available separately include a Leader Guide, DVD with six 19-28 minute sessions and boxed Leader Kit, an all inclusive box containing one copy of each of the Bible study's components.

Take a Closer Look for Teens Jonathan Rogers, 2007-07-31 What does the Bible have to say to you today? Take a closer look Once upon a time in the twenty first century to be exact a daring group of teenagers like you became serious about seeking the Truth and living it Some had been taught the Bible since they were young and others had never before opened the Word of God What they had in common was a desire to draw nearer to the Lord of heaven and earth Take a Closer Look for Teens was created for young people who see faith as more than a fairy tale They see it as a reality that can change their hearts and their world So open your eyes See all God has in store for you

The 'Geometrics' of the Rahab Story Andrzej Toczyski SDB,2018-05-17 Examines the dialectic relationship between the text conceived as the vehicle of narrative communication and the reader in an assement of the story of Rahab the prostitute from Jericho in Josuha 2 Toczyski uses his study to examine how this story has been read by various audiences across time the different interpretive perspectives and methodologies that have thus been brought to the text and the influences this has had on the manner in which the story has been interpreted In particular Toczyski focuses on internal literary analysis of Joshua 2 and the external historical approach and what this can say about the readers of the text The purpose of such insight is to register how successive interpretations overlap and set the interpretative pattern for subsequent generations of readers As a result of this conceptual framework Toczyski presents the Rahab story in the broader context of the communicative process which has been challenging the story s readers for centuries This deep immersion into both internal and external contexts reveals the generally overlooked thread within the Rahab story namely the power of storytelling which may prove relevant for contemporary readers by providing grounds for inter cultural dialogue in the postmodern world
