Womens Costume Of The Near And Middle East:

Women's Costume of the Near and Middle East Jennifer M. Scarce, 2003 A lucid account of the development of women's dress from the fourteenth to the early twentieth century This is set in the broader context of social and economic background of the Ottoman Empire giving the subject a new and fascinating slant

Women's Costume of the Near and Middle East Jennifer M. Scarce, 2014-04-08 The historical and cultural richness of the Near and Middle East is reflected visually in its costume In this book Jennifer Scarce makes brilliant use of years of research to provide a lucid account of the development of women's dress from the fourteenth to the early twentieth centuries Her study of costume is set in the broader context of the social and economic background of the Ottoman Empire giving the subject a new and fascinating slant A detailed discussion of cut and construction is accompanied by pattern layouts and numerous photographs which clearly illustrate the different styles of dress through the centuries Women's costume of the Near and Middle East is a hitherto sadly neglected subject After years of original research across the world this gap has been admirably filled by Jennifer Scarce's scholarly readable study

Women's Costume of the Near and Middle East Jennifer M. Scarce, 1987 Traces the history and development of women's clothing in the Near and Middle East from the fourteenth century to the early twentieth century with emphasis on the influence of the Ottoman Empire

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies

Encyclopedia of National Dress Jill Condra, 2013-04-09 This two volume set presents information and images of the varied clothing and textiles of cultures around the world allowing readers to better appreciate the richness and diversity of human culture and history The contributors to Encyclopedia of National Dress Traditional Clothing around the World examine clothing that is symbolic of the people who live in regions all over the world providing a historical and geographic perspective that illustrates how people dress and explains the reasons behind the material design and style The encyclopedia features a preface and introduction to its contents Each entry in the encyclopedia includes a short historical and geographical background for the topic before discussing the clothing of people in that country or region of the world This work will be of great interest to high school students researching fashion fashion history or history as well as to undergraduate students and general readers interested in anthropology textiles fashion ethnology history or ethnic dress

Hats and Headwear around the World Beverly Chico, 2013-10-03 This concise encyclopedia examines headwear around the world from ancient times to the modern era comprising entries that address cultural significance religion historical events geography demographic and ethnic issues fashion and contemporary trends Are feathers from endangered bird species still commonly used on hats Why do many Muslim women cover their heads How has advancing technology influenced modern headwear This concise encyclopedia provides the answers to these questions and many more regarding headwear and human culture in its examination of headwear around the world It examines topics from ancient times to the modern era providing not only detailed physical descriptions and historical facts but also information that addresses cultural significance religion historical events geography demographic and ethnic issues fashion and contemporary trends The entries reveal fascinating insights into headwear as historical aesthetic fashion utilitarian mystical and symbolic apparel and supplies comprehensive analyses of hats across the globe unavailable in the existing literature A Social History of Late Ottoman Women Duygu Köksal, Anastasia Falierou, 2013-10-10 In A Social History of the Late Ottoman Women New Perspectives Duygu Köksal and Anastasia Falierou bring together new research on women of different geographies and communities of the late Ottoman Empire Making use of archives literary works diaries newspapers almanacs art works or cartoons the contributors focus particularly on the ways in which women gained power and exercised agency in late Ottoman Empire and early Republican Turkey The articles convincingly show that women's agency cannot be unearthed without narrating how women were involved in shaping their own and others lives even in the most unexpected areas of their existence The women's activities described here do not simply reflect modernizing trends or westernizing attitudes or their defensive denial They provide an array of local responses where the local can never be found and should never be conceptualized in its initial unchanged or authentic state Ottoman Dress and Design in the West Charlotte Jirousek, Sara Catterall, 2019-01-25 This amply illustrated attractive book is valuable for dress history scholars an ideal textbook for courses on clothing and cultural history The Journal of Dress History Ottoman Dress and Design in the West is a richly illustrated exploration of the relationship between West and Near East through the visual culture of dress Charlotte Jirousek examines the history of dress and fashion in the broader context of western relationships with the Mediterranean world from the dawn of Islam through the end of the twentieth century The significance of dress is made apparent by the author's careful attention to its political economic and cultural context The reader comes to understand that dress reflects not simply the self and one's relation to community but also that community's relation to a wider world through trade colonization religion and technology The chapters provide broad historical background on Ottoman influence and European exoticization of that influence while the captions and illustrations provide detailed studies of illuminations paintings and sculptures to show how these influences were absorbed into everyday living Through the medium of dress Jirousek details a continually shifting Ottoman frontier that is closely tied to European and American history In doing so she explores and celebrates an essential source of influence that for too long has been relegated to the periphery A City Consumed Nancy Reynolds, 2012-07-11 Though now remembered as an act of anti colonial protest leading to the Egyptian military coup of 1952 the Cairo Fire that burned through downtown stores and businesses appeared to many at the time as an act of urban self destruction and national suicide The logic behind this latter view has now been largely lost Offering a revised history Nancy Reynolds looks to the decades leading up to the fire to show that the lines between foreign and native in city space and commercial merchandise were never so starkly drawn Consumer goods occupied an uneasy place on anti colonial agendas for decades in Egypt before the great Cairo Fire Nationalist leaders frequently railed against commerce as a form of colonial captivity yet simultaneously expanded local production and consumption to anchor a newly independent economy Close examination of struggles over dress and shopping reveals that nationhood coalesced informally from the conflicts and collaboration of consumers from below as well as more institutional and prescriptive mandates

Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations
