Women's Lives, Women's Rituals in the Hindu Tradition Tracy Pintchman, 2007-03-29 In this text 11 leading scholars of Hinduism explore the complex relationship between Hindu women's ritual activities and their lives beyond ritual

Women's Lives, Women's Rituals in the Hindu Tradition Tracy Pintchman, 2007-03-29 In this book Tracy Pintchman has assembled ten leading scholars of Hinduism to explore the complex relationship between Hindu women's rituals and their lives beyond ritual The book focuses particularly on the relationship of women's ritual practices to domesticity exposing and exploring the nuances complexities and limits of this relationship In many cultural and historical contexts including contemporary India women's everyday lives tend to revolve heavily around domestic and interpersonal concerns especially care for children the home husbands and other relatives Hence women's religiosity also tends to emphasize the domestic realm and the relationships most central to women But women's religious concerns certainly extend beyond domesticity Furthermore even the domestic religious activities that Hindu women perform may not merely replicate or affirm traditionally formulated domestic ideals but may function strategically to reconfigure reinterpret criticize or even reject such ideals This volume takes a fresh look at issues of the relationship between Hindu women's ritual practices and normative domesticity In so doing it emphasizes female innovation and agency in constituting and transforming both ritual and the domestic realm and calls attention to the limitations of normative domesticity as a category relevant to many forms of Hindu women's religious practice

Women in the Hindu Tradition Milton Cross, 2017-05-02 In this book Shirley has assembled ten leading scholars of Hinduism to explore the complex relationship between Hindu women's rituals and their lives beyond ritual The book focuses particularly on the relationship of women's ritual practices to domesticity exposing and exploring the nuances complexities and limits of this relationship In many cultural and historical contexts including contemporary India women's everyday lives tend to revolve heavily around domestic and interpersonal concerns especially care for children the home husbands and other relatives

Women and Violence in India Tamsin Bradley, 2017-02-28 India's endemic gender based violence has received increased international scrutiny and provoked waves of domestic protest and activism In recent years related studies on India and South Asia have proliferated but their analyses often fail to identify why violence flourishes Unwilling to simply accept patriarchy as the answer Tamsin Bradley presents new research examining how different groups in India conceptualise violence against women revealing beliefs around religion caste and gender that render aggression socially acceptable She also analyses the role that neoliberalism and its corollary consumerism play in reducing women to commodity objects for barter or exchange Unpacking varied conservative liberal and neoliberal ideologies active in India today Bradley argues that they can converge unexpectedly to normalise violence against women Due to these complex and overlapping factors rates of violence against women in India have actually increased despite decades of feminist campaigning This book will be crucial to those studying Indian gender politics and violence but also presents new data and methodologies which have practical implications for researchers and policymakers worldwide

Heroic Wives Rituals, Stories and the Virtues of Jain Wifeness M. Whitney Kelting, 2009-10-22 Although in Hinduism it is mainly used to refer to widow immolation the term sati means true woman a female hero Whitney Kelting has learned that in Jainism satis appear as subjects of devotional hymns This seems paradoxical given that Jain spirituality is to disengage oneself from worldly existence and Jain devotionism is usually directed toward those souls who have reached perfect detachment In fact however there is a vast corpus of popular texts many of them written by prominent scholar monks between the 16th and 18th centuries illustrating the distinctly worldly virtues of devoted Jain wives In this fieldwork based study Kelting explores the ways in which Jain women use sati narratives and rituals to understand wifeness as a choice which these women's ongoing ritual practices continually shape She focuses on eight well known Jain sati narratives recorded in both formal ritual contexts and in informal retellings and also as read aloud from printed versions She finds that one of the principal functions of Jain sati narratives is to contribute to a discourse of wifeness which addresses the concerns of Jain laywomen within the Jain value system and provides a fertile context in which Jain women can explore their questions of virtue and piety

Making Kantha, Making Home Pika Ghosh, 2020-07-15 In Bengal mothers swaddle their infants and cover their beds in colorful textiles that are passed down through generations They create these kantha from layers of soft recycled fabric strengthened with running stitches and use them as shawls covers and seating mats Making Kantha Making Home explores the social worlds shaped by the Bengali kantha that survive from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In the first study of colonial period women's embroidery that situates these objects historically and socially Pika Ghosh brings technique and aesthetic choices into discussion with iconography and regional culture Ghosh uses ethnographic and archival research inscriptions and images to locate embroiderers work within domestic networks and to show how imagery from poetry drama prints and watercolors expresses kantha artists visual literacy Affinities with older textile practices include the region's lucrative maritime trade in embroideries with Europe Africa and China This appraisal of individual objects alongside the people and stories behind the objects creation elevates kantha beyond consideration as mere handcraft to recognition as art

Learning from Other Religious Traditions Hans Gustafson, 2018-05-16 This book brings together academic scholars from across various religious traditions to reflect on the beauty they find in traditions other than their own They examine these aspects and reflect on how they inform and constructively assist with rethinking their own religious worldviews and practices Each scholar investigates the various implications questions insights and challenges that are generated in the process of doing so Traditions discussed

Contemporary Hinduism P. Pratap Kumar, 2014-09-11 Most overviews of Hindu belief and practice follow a history from the ancient Vedas to today Such approaches privilege Brahmanical traditions and create a sense of Hinduism as a homogenous system and culture and one which is largely unchanging and based solely on sacred texts In reality modern Hindu faith and culture present an extraordinary range of dynamic beliefs and practices Contemporary Hinduism aims to capture the full breadth of the Hindu worldview as practised today both in the sub continent and the diaspora Global and regional faith ritualised and everyday practice Brahmanical and non Brahmanical belief and ascetic and devotional traditions are all discussed Throughout the discussion is illustrated with detailed case material and images whilst key terms are highlighted and explained in a glossary Contemporary Hinduism presents students with a lively and engaging survey of Hinduism offering an introduction to the oldest and one of the most complex of world religions

Religion and Gender in the Developing World Tamsin Bradley, 2010-12-07 Faith based development organizations have become a central part of the lives of the women of rural Rajasthan and have come to represent an important aspect of both individual and collective identities And yet religious teachings continue to be used to exclude women from public decision making forums and render them vulnerable to increasing levels of domestic violence In a unique multi disciplinary approach combining a range of subjects Tamsin Bradley provides a unique study of the role of development organizations and faith organizations in the lives of women in rural Rajasthan Faith and religion emerge as being able to afford a space within which women are able to interact with one another and create an identity for themselves However faith proves not just to be a positive sphere in which women are able to assert themselves Its ambiguity becomes clear as the author explains that religious women often find their visions of social justice and equality marginalised by the dominance of male leadership Nevertheless Bradley also look at how religious women challenge male dominance drawing on their beliefs and practices in creative and innovative ways Thus a complex picture emerges and including insights from gender studies and anthropology Bradley argues that religion can both empower and disempower local communities and the women who live within them By analysing development through the prism of gender studies Bradley highlights the complex nature of power relationships that are at the very heart of development agendas and organizations and offers an invaluable contribution to the understanding of the nexus of varied disciplines in the analysis of women and religion in Rajasthan This book will be of interest to students reseachers and policy makers involved in various fields including those of Development Studies Religion Gender Studies and Social Anthropology
