Smith, 2004 The American Historical Association's Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women's history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise These volumes the second and third in a series of three complete their collected efforts The first volume of the series dealt with the broad themes necessary to understanding women's history around the world As a counterpoint volume 2 is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular places and during particular eras It examines women in ancient civilizations including women in China Japan and Korea women and gender in South and South East Asia Medieval women women and gender in Colonial Latin America and the history of women in the US to 1865 Authors included are Sarah Hughes and Brady Hughes Susan Mann Barbara N Ramusack Judith M Bennett Ann Twinam and Kathleen Brown As with volume 2 volume 3 also discusses current trends in gender and women's history from a regional perspective It includes essays on sub Saharan Africa the Middle East early and modern Europe Russian and the Soviet Union Latin American and North America after 1865 Asuncion Lavrin Ellen Dubois and Judith P Zinsser writing with Bonnie S Anderson Incorporating essays from top scholars ranging over an abundance of regions dates and methodologies the three volumes of Women's History in Global Perspective constitute an invaluable resource for anyone interested in a comprehensive overview on the latest in feminist scholarship Bonnie G Smith is the Board of Governors Professor of History and director of the Institute for Research on Women at Rutgers University She is the author of Confessions of a Concierge Madame Lucie's History of Twentieth Century France and many other books Who Cooked the Last Supper? Rosalind Miles, 2007-12-18 Who Cooked the Last Supper overturns the phallusy of history and gives voice to the untold history of the world the contributions of millions of unsung women Men dominate history because men write history There have been many heroes but no heroines Here in Who Cooked the Last Supper is the history you never learned but should have Without politics or polemics this brilliant and witty book overturns centuries of preconceptions to restore women to their rightful place at the center of culture revolution empire war and peace Spiced with tales of individual women who have shaped civilization celebrating the work and lives of women around the world and distinguished by a wealth of research Who Cooked the Last Supper redefines our concept of historical reality

Writing Women's History Since the Renaissance Mary Spongberg, 2017-03-08 The complaint of Catherine Morland in Jane Austen's Northanger Abbey that history has hardly any women at all is not an uncommon one Yet there is evidence to suggest that women have engaged in historical writing since ancient times This study traces the history of women's historical writing reclaiming the lives of individual women historians recovering women's historical writings from the past and focusing on how gender has shaped the genre of history Mary Spongberg brings together for the first time an extensive survey of the progress of women's historical writing from the Renaissance to the present demonstrating the continuities between women's historical writings in the past and the development of a distinctly woman-centred historiography Writing Women's History since the Renaissance also examines the relationship between women's history and the development of feminist consciousness suggesting that the study of history has alerted women to their unequal status and enabled them to use history to achieve women's rights Whether feminist or anti-feminist women who have had their historical writings published have served as role models for women seeking a voice in the public sphere and have been instrumental in encouraging the growth of a feminist discourse

Discovering Women's History Deirdre Beddoe, 2018-10-08 The highly practical guide introduces the reader to the main areas of British women's history education work family life sexuality and politics After an introduction to each topic detailed commentary is provided on a range of primary source material together with advice on further reading For the new edition the author has written a brand new chapter on how to choose a dissertation subject and the pitfalls to avoid

A History of Women in 100 Objects Professor Maggie Andrews, Dr Janis Lomas, 2018-02-23 The history of the world has been told in objects But what about the objects that tell the history of women What are the items that symbolise the journey of women from second class citizens with no legal rights no vote and no official status to the powerful people they are today And what are the objects that still oppress women even now From the corset to the contraceptive pill the bones of the first woman to Rosa Parks's mugshot and the iconic Mary Quant cape A History of Women in 100 Objects documents the developing role of women in society through the lens of the inanimate objects that touched women's lives were created by women or that at some time perhaps even still oppressed them Woven by two leading historians this complex fascinating and vital tale of women and womanhood is told with a lightness of touch and depth of experience that will appeal to all those interested in women's history
