Book of Answers for a Young CEO Debasish Sahoo, 2007-08. When asked about the qualities needed to be an effective CEO, the answers are to me quite basic: Respect for and ability to get along with many different kinds of people, including those that do not share your views. The will to honor promises that one makes to his family and the understanding that work and home life must be balanced. Gerard J Arpey, CEO American Airlines: Be positive about challenges you encounter for no matter how successful you are, you will encounter them. William Clay Ford, Chairman and CEO Ford Motor Company: In the real world, leaders are rarely faced with a simple choice between right and wrong. Leaders can't avoid ambiguity but must learn to be decisive in spite of it. Sy Sternberg, CEO New York Life: I think anyone willing to work hard for their goals learns from their mistakes and cares about others has the makings to become a wonderful leader. Gary Kelly, CEO Southwest Airlines: Find the right people and the right information to help you get the job done. Ronald A Williams, CEO Aetna: Understand opportunities don't come in an envelope labeled opportunities; create value. Be honest, have a vision, work hard. Edward Zore, CEO Northwestern Mutual: Success requires envisioning, embracing and driving change. The only way to turn potential into higher levels of achievements is to continuously change. Susan M Ivey, CEO Reynolds American: Surround yourself with people smarter than you. People make it happen and great people are necessary to make any idea come alive Maggie Wilderotter CEO Frontier Communications I believe hard work dedication and the willingness to take calculated risks not only in my personal life but in my career as well have contributed to my success Have a passion for whatever you do Robert A Reynolds CEO Graybar Electric Curriculum Bulletin ,1946
