Gender and Succession in Medieval and Early Modern Islam Alyssa Gabbay, 2020-03-19 In Gender and Succession in Medieval and Early Modern Islam Bilateral Descent and the Legacy of Fatima Alyssa Gabbay examines episodes in pre modern Islamic history in which individuals or societies recognized descent from both men and women Fatima daughter of the Prophet Muhammad features prominently in this study for her example constituted a striking precedent for acknowledging bilateral descent in both Sunni and Shi i societies with all of its ramifications for female inheritance succession and identity Covering a broad geographical and chronological swath Gender and Succession in Medieval and Early Modern Islam presents alternative perspectives to patriarchal narratives and breaks new ground in its focus upon how people conceived of family structures and bloodlines In so doing it builds upon a tradition of studies seeking to dispel monolithic understandings of Islam and Gender

Recasting Islamic Law Rachel M. Scott, 2021-03-15 By examining the intersection of Islamic law state law religion and culture in the Egyptian nation building process Recasting Islamic Law highlights how the sharia when attached to constitutional commitments is reshaped into modern Islamic state law Rachel M Scott analyzes the complex effects of constitutional commitments to the sharia in the wake of the Egyptian Revolution of 2011 She argues that the sharia is not dismantled by the modern state when it is applied as modern Islamic state law but rather recast in its service In showing the particular forms that the sharia takes when it is applied as modern Islamic state law Scott pushes back against assumptions that introductions of the sharia into modern state law result in either the revival of medieval Islam or in its complete transformation Scott engages with premodern law and with the Ottoman legal legacy on topics concerning Egypt s Coptic community women s rights personal status law and the relationship between religious scholars and the Supreme Constitutional Court Recasting Islamic Law considers modern Islamic state law s discontinuities and its continuities with premodern sharia Thanks to generous funding from Virginia Tech and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu volume are which social mechanisms lead to conflicting or shifting gender dynamics against the backdrop of global entanglements and interdependencies and to what extent are neocolonial gender regimes at work in this regard How are varying gender cultures sociohistorically and culturally structured and how are they connected within global power relations How can established hierarchies and asymmetries become an object of criticism How can historical cultural social and political specificities be analysed without gendered and other reifications That way the volume aims to promote border thinking in sociological understanding of social reality towards multiple gender cultures and plural modernities

Modernizing Patriarchy Katja Žvan Elliott, 2015-09-01 Morocco is hailed by academics international NGO workers and the media as a trailblazer in women's rights and legal reforms The country is considered a model for other countries in the Middle East and North African region but has Morocco made as much progress as experts and government officials claim In Modernizing Patriarchy Katja van Elliott examines why women's rights advances are lauded in Morocco in theory but are often not recognized in reality despite the efforts of both Islamist and secular feminists In Morocco female literacy rates remain among the lowest in the region many women are victims of gender based violence despite legal reforms and girls as young as twelve are still engaged to adult men despite numerous reforms Based on extensive ethnographic research and fieldwork in Oued al Ouliyā Modernizing Patriarchy offers a window into the life of Moroccan Muslim women who though often young and educated find it difficult to lead a dignified life in a country where they are expected to have only one destiny that of wife and mother van Elliott exposes their struggles with modernity and the legal reforms that are supposedly ameliorating their lives In a balanced approach she also presents male voices and their reasons for criticizing the prevailing women's rights discourse Compelling and insightful Modernizing Patriarchy exposes the rarely talked about reality of Morocco's approach toward reform

Gender and Divorce in Europe: 1600 - 1900 Andrea

Griesebner, Evdioxios Doxiadis, 2023-08-18 Getting divorced and remarried are now common practices in European societies even if the rules differ from one country to the next Civil marriage law still echoes religious marriage law which for centuries determined which persons could enter into marriage with each other and how validly contracted marriages could be ended Religions and denominations also had different regulations regarding whether a divorce only ended marital obligations or also permitted remarriage during the lifetime of the divorced spouse This book deals with predominantly handwritten documents of divorce proceedings from the British Isles to Western Central and Southeastern Europe and from 1600 to the 1930s The praxeological analysis reveals the arguments and strategies put forward to obtain or prevent divorce as well as the social and above all economic conditions and arrangements connected with divorce The contributions break new ground by combining previously often separate fields of research and regions of investigation It makes clear that the gender order doesn't always run along religious lines as was too often assumed This book will be of interest to all scholars and students of economic social religious cultural legal and gender history as well as gender and well being in a broader sense
