The city buildings are silhouetted against the bright sky. A dark rectangular box is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing the title text.

Burke, 2012-12-06 Although women now represent over forty percent of the workforce in most countries organizations have been slow to capitalize on the potential of their women employees This volume focuses on the business case for change sources of resistance including male backlash denial inaction and repression and both organizational and legislative initiatives to support women Limitations of affirmative action programs and policies are identified New approaches towards creating a more level playing field in organizations are proposed This volume should be of interest to women and men in managerial and professional positions women and men studying in professional fields such as business law and government organizations interested in managerial best practice and academic researchers whose work examines women in management issues Handbook on Women in Business and Management D. business and management disciplines The Handbook presents the current state of knowledge about women in business and management and specifies the directions for future research likely to be most constructive for advancing the representation treatment quality of life and success of women who work in these fields It provides the foundations for improved societal and organizational structures policies and relational practices affecting all in business and management Thus by enhancing the knowledge base that improves the work and life situations of women it suggests ways to elevate the societal and organizational systems for all The Handbook will be an essential reference source for recent advances in research and theory informing both scholars of organization studies gender diversity and feminism human resource specialists and educators of and consultants to business organizations and management Women in Corporate Leadership ,1996 Women of Color in Corporate Management ,1997 Women in Management Worldwide Ronald J.
