Unraveling Reweaving Africana Womanhood Feminist:

A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo, 2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women's political participation. The author's primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng's concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism. It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women's oppression. The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life, a salient principle of Christian ethics, and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures. This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity. Using a sophiological hermeneutic, this in-depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism. It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio-political ethic. The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching. The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians, postcolonial theorists, inculturation theology, African males, and Jon Sobrino's liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology.

Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood Rose Mary Amenga-Etego, Rosetta E. Ross, 2015-12-15 In this collection, continental and diasporan African women interrogate the concept sacred text and analyze ways oral and written religious texts intersect with violence against African descended women and girls. While the sanctioned idea of a sacred text is written literature, this project interrupts that conception by drawing attention to speech and other embodied practices that have sacral authority within the social imaginary. As a volume focused on religion and violence, essays in this collection analyze religions' authorization of violence against women and girls, contest the legitimacy of some religious texts, and affirm other writing, especially memoir, as redemptive. Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood arises from three years of conversation of continental and diasporan women, most recently continued in the July 6-10, 2014 Consultation of African and African Diasporan Women in Religion and Theology, and privileges experiences and contexts of continental and diasporan African women and girls. Interlocutors include African traditionalists, Christian Protestants and Catholics, Muslims, and women embodying hybrid practices of these and other traditions.

Minoritized Women Reading Race and Ethnicity Mitzi J. Smith, Jin Young Choi, 2020-09-24 Nonwhite women primarily appear as marginalized voices if at all in volumes that address constructions of race ethnicity and early Christian texts Employing an intersectional approach the contributors analyze historical cultural literary and ideological constructions of racial ethnic identities which intersect with gender sexuality class religion slavery and or power Given their small numbers in academic biblical studies this book represents a critical mass of nonwhite women scholars and offers a critique of dominant knowledge production Filling a significant epistemological gap this seminal text provides provocative innovative and critical insights into constructions of race ethnicity in ancient and modern texts and contexts

Religion, Women of Color, and the Suffrage Movement Simon Mary Asese A. Ahiokhai, 2024-04-08 The year 2020 marks the centenary of the passing of the 19th Amendment that allowed for women in the United States to vote The strategic struggle of women demanding equal dignity and the right to vote in the United States helped to shed light on the systemic evils that have plagued the collective history of the country Ideologies of racism genderism classism and many more were and continue to be used to deny women their dignities both in the United States and in other parts of the world This work sheds light on the intersectionality of religion class gender philosophy theology and culture as they shape the experiences of women especially women of color A fundamental question that this volume aims to address is What does it mean to be a woman of color in a world where systems of erasure dominate The title of this volume is meant to showcase a deliberate engagement with the uncelebrated insights and perspectives of women of color in a world where systemic discrimination persists and to articulate new strategies and paradigms for recognizing their contributions to the broader struggles for freedom and equity of women in our world

Africana Womanism Clenora Hudson (Weems), 2019-10-02 First published in 1993 this is a new edition of the classic text in which Clenora Hudson Weems sets out a paradigm for women of African descent Examining the status struggles and experiences of the Africana woman forced into exile in Europe Latin America the United States or at Home in Africa the theory outlines the experience of Africana women as unique and separate from that of some other women of color and of course from white women Differentiating itself from the problematic theories of Western feminisms Africana Womanism allows an establishment of cultural identity and relationship directly to ancestry and land This new edition includes five new chapters as well as an evolution of the classic Africana womanist paradigm to that of Africana Melanated Womanism It shows how race class and gender must be prioritized in the fight against every day racial dominance Africana Womanism Reclaiming Ourselves offers a new term and paradigm for women of African descent A family centered concept prioritizing race class and gender it offers eighteen features of the Africana womanist self namer self definer family centered genuine in sisterhood strong in concert with male in the liberation struggle whole authentic flexible role player respected recognized spiritual male compatible respectful of elders adaptable ambitious mothering nurturing applying them to characters in novels by Hurston B Marshall Morrison and McMillan It evolves from Africana Womanism to Africana Melanated Womanism This is an important work and essential reading for researchers and students in women and gender studies Africana studies African American studies literary studies and cultural studies particularly with the emergence of family centrality community and collective engagement the very cornerstone of Africana Womanism since its inception Elevating Humanity via Africana Womanism Clenora Hudson (Weems),2024-12-17 Elevating Humanity via Africana Womanism is a short but powerful book advocating synergy via unity collectivity as a panacea for all societal ills It discusses the Africana Womanism theory an authentic family centered concept for all women of African descent as a grid upon which to erect the private and public personae of all positive Africana people Within the context of our cultural and historical matrix it opens with defining the paradigm while promoting the importance of prioritizing race class and gender the triple plight of Black women A workable strategy for ensuring equality for all it closes on a note of love and spirituality while embracing the special connection between Africana men and women the 2 sided human coin This introduction logically and convincingly speaks truth to power about who we Black women are beginning in Part One with naming and defining ourselves with the foreknowledge of the seminal role of our male counterparts It identifies the 18 descriptors of the true Africana woman and her male counterpart Part Two offers fruitful commentary via sharing some of the many contributions we have given to society which could enhance self esteem among our people many of whom have come to not love themselves and even their own due to inadequate historical documentation

Africana Womanist Literary Theory Clenora Hudson-Weems,2004 By placing Africana womanism an evolutionary Africana paradigm within a literary context this book expands the layered meanings of this family centered race based theory and applies them to the works and ideas of renowned international literary figures such as Toni Morrison Paula Marshall and Buchi Emecheta Rediscoursing African Womanhood in the Search for Sustainable Renaissance Itai Muwati,2012

Reconstructing Womanhood, Reconstructing Feminism Delia Jarrett-Macauley,2005-08-04 Examines concepts of womanhood and feminism within the context of race and ethnicity and highlights the ways in which constructions of womanhood have traditionally excluded black women s experience Reconstructing Womanhood Hazel V. Carby,1987 Reconstructing Womanhood The Emergence of the Afro American Woman Novelist published in 1987 is a book by Hazel Carby which centers on slave narratives by women Carby received her Ph D in 1984 from Birmingham University Her doctoral dissertation later became the foundation for the book Wikipedia viewed Jan 7 2022 Ain't I a Woman bell hooks, 2014-12-17 A classic work of feminist scholarship Ain't I a Woman has become a must read for all those interested in the nature of black womanhood Examining the impact of sexism on black women during slavery the devaluation of black womanhood black male sexism racism among feminists and the black woman's involvement with feminism hooks attempts to move us beyond racist and sexist assumptions The result is nothing short of groundbreaking giving this book a critical place on every feminist scholar's bookshelf

Still Brave Stanlie Myrise James, Frances Smith Foster, Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2009 Still Brave is a monumental book that reminds us of the centrality of Black Womanist genius and talent grounded in courage and struggle We can never understand what it means to be modern new world or African without this precious volume Cornel West author of Race Matters Cheryl Clarke Angela Davis bell hooks June Jordan Audre Lorde and Alice Walker from the pioneers of black women's studies comes Still Brave The Evolution of Black Women's Studies the definitive collection of race and gender writings today Including Alice Walker's groundbreaking elucidation of the term womanist discussions of women's rights as human rights and a piece on the Obama factor the collection speaks to the ways that feminism has evolved and how black women have confronted racism within it

Africana Womanism Clenora Hudson-Weems, 2024-11 Africana Womanism An Introduction to Elevate Humanity is a short and powerful book advocating unity collectivity as a panacea for all societal ills It discusses the theory of Africana Womanism an authentic family centered concept for all women of African descent as a grid upon which to erect the private and public personae of all positive Africana people Within the context of our cultural and historical matrix it opens with defining the paradigm while promoting the importance of prioritizing race class and gender the triple plight of Black women A workable strategy for ensuring equality for all it closes on a note of love and spirituality while embracing the special connection between Africana men and women indeed the two sided human coin This introduction logically and convincingly speaks truth to power about who we Black women are beginning in Part One with naming and defining ourselves with the foreknowledge of the seminal role of our male counterparts It identifies the 18 descriptors of the true Africana woman and her male counterpart Part Two offers fruitful commentary via sharing some of the many contributions we have given to society which could enhance self esteem among our people many of whom have come to not love themselves and even their own due to inadequate historical documentation

Further to Fly Sheila Radford-Hill, Theorizing Black Feminisms Stanlie Myrise James, Abena P. A. Busia, 1993 Theorizing Black Feminisms outlines some of the crucial debates going on within contemporary Black Feminist activity In so doing it brings together a collection of some of the most exciting work by Black women scholars around It presents essays across a range of subjects literature sociology history political science anthropology and art amongst others And it refuses to be limited by notions of disciplinary boundaries or divisions between theory and practice Most importantly all the essays celebrate Black women's agency and their pragmatic activism

Sensuous Knowledge Minna Salami, 2020-03-31 The creator of the internationally popular multiple award winning blog MsAfropolitan applies an Africa centered feminist sensibility to issues of racism and sexism challenging our illusions about oppression and liberation and daring women to embrace their power Sensuous Knowledge is a collection of thought provoking essays that explore questions central to how we see ourselves our history and our world What does it mean to be oppressed What does it mean to be liberated Why do women choose to follow authority even when they can be autonomous What is the cost of compromising one's true self What narratives particularly subjugate women and people of African heritage What kind of narrative can heal and empower As she considers these questions Salami offers fresh insights on key cultural issues that impact women's lives including power beauty and knowledge She also examines larger subjects such as Afrofuturism radical Black feminism and gender politics all with a historical outlook that is also future oriented Combining a storyteller's narrative playfulness and a social critic's intellectual rigor Salami draws upon a range of traditions and ideologies feminist theory popular culture including insights from Ms Lauryn Hill Beyoncé Audre Lorde Toni Morrison and others science philosophy African myths and origin stories and her own bold personal narrative to establish a language for change and self liberation Sensuous Knowledge inspires reflection and challenge us to formulate our own views Using ancestral knowledge to steer us toward freedom Salami reveals the ways that women have protested over the years in large and small ways models that inspire and empower us to define our own sense of womanhood today In this riveting meditation Salami asks women to break free of the prison made by ingrained male-centric biases and build a house themselves a home that can nurture us all

Africana-Melanated Womanism Clenora Hudson (Weems), 2022-08-12 This volume discusses two highly discussed contemporary phenomena namely closing the gap between high school college and university readership and generational wealth for Blacks A comprehensive book that spans the totality of life bringing together perceptive writers embracing inherent challenges in their fields via the Africana Womanist lens it speaks truth to Africana women and their families while offering plausible solutions for correcting historical and current societal ills It shows how Africana women prioritize race class and gender in combatting daily racial dominance utilizing the 18 distinct characteristics of Africana Womanism

African Women and Feminism Oyèrónké Oyěwùmí, 2003 Reclaiming Our Space Feminista Jones, 2019-01-29 A treatise of Black women's transformative influence in media and society placing them front and center in a new chapter of mainstream resistance and political engagement In Reclaiming Our Space social worker activist and cultural commentator Feminista Jones explores how Black women are changing culture society and the landscape of feminism by building digital communities and using social media as powerful platforms As Jones reveals some of the best loved devices of our shared social media language are a result of Black women's innovations from well known movement building hashtags BlackLivesMatter SayHerName and BlackGirlMagic to the now ubiquitous use of threaded tweets as a marketing and storytelling tool For some these online dialogues provide an introduction to the work of Black feminist icons like Angela Davis Barbara Smith bell hooks and the women of the Combahee River Collective For others this discourse provides a platform for continuing their feminist activism and scholarship in a new interactive way Complex conversations around race class and gender that have been happening behind the closed doors of academia for decades are now becoming part of the wider cultural vernacular one pithy tweet at a time With these important online conversations not only are Black women influencing popular culture and creating sociopolitical movements they are also galvanizing a new generation to learn and engage in Black feminist thought and theory and inspiring change in communities around them Hard hitting intelligent incisive yet bursting with humor and pop culture savvy Reclaiming Our Space is a survey of Black feminism s past present and future and it explains why intersectional movement building will save us all
