Making a Baby Samuel S. Thatcher, Debra Fulghum Bruce, Britt Berg, 2010 Discusses the causes of infertility explores natural and medical therapies to increase fertility and provides legal and financial advice to consider when undergoing treatment

When the Body Is the Target Sharon Klayman Farber, 2002-11-05 In this comprehensive and insightful work Dr Sharon K Farber provides an invaluable resource for the mental health professional who is struggling to understand self harm and its origins Using attachment theory to explain how addictive connections to pain and suffering develop she discusses various kinds and functions of self harm behavior From eating disorders to body modifications such as tattooing Dr Farber explores the language of self harm and the translation of that language and its psychic functions in the therapeutic setting She tells us When the body weeps tears of blood we need to wonder what terrible sorrows cannot be spoken Brilliantly illustrated with rich clinical material this book offers a practical approach to the diagnosis assessment and treatment of the increasing number of patients whose emotions are expressed through bodily harm The challenges of working with patients who tend to view the world of relationships in terms of predator and prey are clearly explicated and the stormy countertransference responses that threaten to destroy the treatment are given a full hearing Finally she shows how the attachment relationship formed in treatment can repair the traumatic attachment in mind body psyche and soul and can serve as the cornerstone of therapeutic change A Jason Aronson Book

Understanding Pain Naheed Ali, Moshe Lewis, 2015-04-01 Pain is informally defined as the body's way of uncovering a problem Whether due to an injury infection or something else pain alerts a person that something is not right Sometimes pain goes along with inflammation and swelling and when it does the problem is more evident Oftentimes pain is more generalized to the entire body signaling a viral infection such as a flu virus Still other times there is no apparent root cause for a person's pain Yet millions of people suffer from some form of pain on a daily basis Understanding Pain walks readers through the various types of pain the causes and symptoms as well as the methods of treatment currently available From prescription medication to acupuncture and massage therapy various approaches may work for some but not for others But handling pain is essential for living well and functioning on a daily basis Here the authors provide a comprehensive introduction to the subject covering self care as well as caring for others in pain and addressing alternative as well as traditional methods of pain management
