Unscheduled Meetings Life Changing Encounters With Wildlife From Around The Globe:

Unscheduled Meetings Rachel Oliver, 2013 Describes the author's personal experiences in encounters all unexpected with some of the most startling wild animals on several continents Up to this point our understanding of wildlife has been very limited and recent observations demonstrate that animals from domestic to wild have unusual powers and capabilities that have thus far defied scientific understanding Amazon book description

The Gift of Shamanism Itzhak Beery, 2015-03-13 Discover the shamanic powers within each of us Explores ayahuasca rituals in the Amazon messages from power animals and plant spirits intuitive dreams soul retrieval and holograms of past lives and spirits Explains the shamanic way of seeing to diagnose spiritual emotional and physical ailments via candle readings remote viewing and shamanic journeys Details how the author has helped individuals communicate with loved ones who have passed on and release themselves from negative spirits Each and every one of us has shamanic powers Glimpses of them can arise at any age in the form of intuitive dreams d j vu spontaneous visions and out of body experiences Most people dismiss these experiences However by embracing these gifts we can unlock our shamanic potential to change ourselves and the world around us Revealing his transformation from skeptic to respected shamanic healer Itzhak Beery explains how after countless prescient dreams and visions throughout his life that he brushed off a series of synchronistic events led to his first shamanism workshop with Michael Harner renowned shamanism scholar and teacher This in turn led to a trip to South America with John Perkins to work with indigenous shamanic healers Beery shares his experiences with ayahuasca rituals in the Amazon messages from power animals and plant spirits dreams that foretold future events and holographic sightings of past lives and spiritual entities both evil and benign He details his shamanic way of seeing to diagnose spiritual emotional and physical ailments via candle readings and remote viewing Explaining how we are always surrounded by spirits he recounts helping people communicate with loved ones who have passed on and shares powerful stories of soul retrieval during shamanic journeys to other worlds Through his true stories of visions that manifested in reality Beery reveals that we are all shamans By igniting our natural intuition and developing trust for our inner powers we can each connect to the oneness of nature where all knowledge is found

Elements of Being Daniela Hofmann, Jessica Mills, Andrew Cochran, 2005 This volume is the product of a Theoretical Archaeology Group TAG conference session held at Lampeter Wales in December 2003 entitled Mentalities and Identities in Motion Included here are all the papers held there and more besides The session centred on the role of past ways of thinking feeling and acting in social transformation and exploring past worldviews as instead of being relegated to the fictional or anecdotal an integral part of every aspect of human life not just explicit contexts of power struggles and domination but also approachable from the material evidence The contributions are widely spread across space and time ranging from Northern Ireland to Sicily from France to Bulgaria and covering almost every period from the Mesolithic to the Thirty Years War On top of this they are also very different in methodology in the ways they have interpreted the session title and approached their evidence Before rushing headlong into this kaleidoscopic mix then it is worth briefly explaining the rationale behind the session title and the selection and arrangement of papers

Biodiversity: An Overview Mukesh Kumar,G.S.

Paliwal,2011-07-15 India s phytodiversity is one of the most significant in the world India is one of the twelve mega biodiversity centers in the world and also an important center of origin of agrobiodiversity It is therefore very important to study document and conserve the plant wealth of India and also of the world before its possible extinction There are convincing scientific economic and sociological reasons for giving priority to the conservation of the major centers of plant diversity throughout the world The strategies to conserve the biodiversity include establishment of protected area network and corridors with emphasis on appropriate levels of management reduction of anthropogenic pressure on natural populations by cultivating them elsewhere programmes of augmentation reintroduction and introduction of target taxa restoration of degraded habitats etc The conservation strategies can be either in situ conservation of genetic resources within their ecosystem and natural habitat or ex situ conservation of components of genetic material of biological diversity outside their natural habitat The choice of conservation strategy depends upon the nature of the material to be conserved i e the life cycle and mode of reproduction size of individual population and ecological status Ex situ techniques include the establishment of botanical and zoological gardens banks of pollen seed tissue culture DNA etc Establishment of forest reserves national parks protected areas and on farm conservation of valuable plant varieties is being promoted to facilitate their in situ conservation
