Upcoming Movies:

Repertory Movie Theaters of New York City Ben Davis, 2017-03-04 New York's repertory movie houses specialized in presenting films ignored by mainstream and art house audiences. Curating vintage and undistributed movies from various countries, they educated the public about the art of film at a time when the cinema had begun to be respected as an art form. Operating on shoestring budgets in funky settings, each repertory house had its own personality reflecting the preferences of the often eccentric proprietor. While a few theaters existed in other cities, New York offered the greatest number and variety. Focusing on the active years from 1960 through 1994, this book documents the repertory movement in the context of economics and film culture.

You're Only as Good as Your Next One Mike Medavoy, 2013-06-25 An under-read and engaging show biz memoir. The New Yorker: If I had a talent for anything, it was a talent for knowing who was talented. Mike Medavoy is a Hollywood rarity: a studio executive who, though never far from controversy, has remained well-loved and respected through four decades of moviemaking. What further sets him apart is his role in bringing to the screen some of the most acclaimed Oscar-winning films of our time: Apocalypse Now, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Amadeus, The Silence of the Lambs, Philadelphia, and Sleepless in Seattle are just some of the projects he greenlighted at United Artists, Orion, TriStar, his own Phoenix Pictures. The ultimate lose-lose situation for a studio executive: to wind up with a commercial bomb and a bad movie. Of course, there are the box office disasters and the films, as Medavoy says, for which I should be shot. They too have a place in his fascinating memoir, a pull-no-punches account of financial and political maneuvering and of working with the industry's brightest star power, including Steven Spielberg, Martin Scorsese, Francis Ford Coppola, Kevin Costner, Robert De Niro, Jodie Foster, Sharon Stone, Michael Douglas, Meg Ryan, and countless others. Putting together the elements of a film is a succession of best guesses. Medavoy speaks out on how movie studio buyouts have stymied the creative process and brought an end to the hands-off golden age of filmmaking. An eyewitness to Hollywood history in the making, he gives a powerful and poignant view of the past and future of a world he knows intimately.

Do the Movies Have a Future? David Denby, 2012-10-02 A selection of essays by a prestigious New Yorker film critic examines the art business and future of America's troubled movie industry, exploring topics ranging from fandom and the work of critics James Agee and Pauline Kael while evaluating how the global marketplace is threatening film with increasing demands for spectacle and digitalization.
