Urban Social Geography Paul L. Knox, 1982 Communities Within Cities Wayne K. D. Davies, David T. Herbert, 1993-02-09 Explores contemporary urban geography using the concept of community Links theoretical concepts with empirical experience Produces an interpretation of the complex social pattern of European and North American cities through its themes of local social interaction community interaction sense of place planned neighborhoods and caring communities Urban Social Geography Paul Knox, Steven Pinch, 2014-09-15 The 6th edition of this highly respected text builds upon the successful structure engaging writing style and clear presentation of previous editions Examining urban social geography from a theoretical and historical perspective it also explores how it has developed into the modern day Taking account of recent critical work whilst simultaneously presenting well established approaches to the subject it ensures students are well informed about all the issues The result is a topical book that is clear and accessible for students Urban Social Geography Paul Leslie Knox, 1998 Urban Social Geography Paul Knox, 2009 Communities Within Cities Wayne Kenneth David Davies, David T. Herbert, 1993 The Dictionary of Human Geography Derek Gregory, Ron Johnston, Geraldine Pratt, Michael Watts, Sarah Whatmore, 2011-09-23 THE DICTIONARY OF HUMAN GEOGRAPHY Even better than before the Dictionary is an essential tool for all human geographers and over the years has provided an invaluable guide to the changing boundaries and content of the discipline No one can afford to be without this fifth edition Linda McDowell University of Oxford From explanations of core concepts and central debates to lucid discussions of the theories driving contemporary research this is the best conceptual map to the creative and critical thinking that characterises contemporary human geography The fifth edition belongs on the bookshelf of all serious students Gerard Toal Virginia Tech With an exceptional balance between breadth and depth this is undoubtedly a timely and ground breaking revision of the Dictionary An outstanding accomplishment of the editors and contributors and a comprehensive and essential reference for any student or scholar interested in human geography Mei Po Kwan Ohio State University I can't imagine life without it Definitive detailed yet accessible there's still no single volume reference work in the field to rival it Noel Castree University of Manchester The Dictionary of Human Geography represents the definitive guide to issues and ideas methods and theories in human geography Now in its fifth edition this ground breaking text has been comprehensively revised to reflect the changing nature and practice of human geography and its rapidly developing connections with other fields The major entries not only describe the development of concepts contributions and debates in human geography but also advance them Shorter definitional entries allow quick reference and coverage of the wider subject area Changes to the fifth edition include entries from many new contributors at the forefront of developments in the field and over 300 key terms appearing for the first time It features a new consolidated bibliography along with a detailed index and systematic cross referencing of headwords The Dictionary of Human Geography continues to be the one guidebook no student instructor or researcher in the field can afford to be without The Geographical Sciences During 1986—2015 Shuying Leng,Xizhang Gao,Tao Pei,Guoyou Zhang,Liangfu Chen,Xi Chen,Canfei He,Daming He,Xiaoyan Li,Chunye Lin,Hongyan Liu,Weidong Liu,Yihe Lü,Shilong Piao,Qiuhong Tang,Fulu Tao,Lide Tian,Xiaohua Tong,Cunde Xiao,Desheng Xue,Linsheng Yang,Linwang Yuan,Yuanming Zheng,Huiyi Zhu,Liping Zhu,2016-07-28 In four chapters and an introduction this book systematically helps readers understand the development of the Geographical Sciences both in China and in the world during the past 30 years Through data analysis of methodologies including CiteSpace TDA qualitative analysis questionnaires data mining and mathematical statistics the book explains the evolution of research topics and their driving factors in the Geographical Sciences and its four branches namely Physical Geography Human Geography Geographical Information Science and Environmental Geography It also identifies the role of the Geographical Sciences in the analysis of strategic issues such as global change and terrestrial ecosystems terrestrial water cycle and water resources land change global cryosphere evolution and land surface processes on the Tibetan Plateau economic globalization and local responses regional sustainable development remote sensing modelling and parameter inversion spatial analysis and simulation and tempo spatial processes and modelling of environmental pollutants It then discusses research development and inadequacy of Chinese Geographical Sciences in the above mentioned topics as well as in the fields including Geomorphology and Quaternary environmental change Ecohydrology ecosystem services the urbanization process and mechanism medical and health geography international rivers and transboundary environment and resources detection and attribution of changes in land surface sensitive components and uncertainty of spatial information and spatial analysis It shows that the NSFC has driven the development in all these topics and fields In addition the book summarises trends of the Geographical Sciences in China and the research level in major countries of the world through an overview of geographical education in colleges and universities the analysis of publications citations and author networks of SCI SSCI and CSCD indexed articles and the description of Sino USA Sino UK and Sino German cooperation This book serves as an important reference to anyone interested in geographical sciences and related fields Transforming Chinese Cities Mark Wang,Pookong Kee,Jia Gao,2014-04-03 The urbanisation of China over the last three decades has been a hugely significant development both for China s reform process and for the world more generally This book presents recent research findings on China s continuing urban transformation Subjects covered include the decline of the rural urban divide the spatial restructuring of Chinese urban centres and urban infrastructure migrant workers new housing and new communities and green responses to urban environmental problems The book is particularly valuable in that it includes much new work by scholars based inside China Prague and Central Bohemia Martin Ouředníček,2022-10-01 The theme of socio spatial differentiation has belonged to the core issues of social geography and urban studies for a long time The general aim of the book is to describe and explain the current socio spatial differentiation of Prague and the Central Bohemian Region and the processes that have influenced it during the first two decades of the twenty first century The book offers its own theoretical perspective on the structuration of spatial patterns and the social environment a general view of regional development and the main socio spatial processes of the period after transition Maps are an important part of this volume and concentrate crucial information within most chapters Apart from the static information described in the maps the book offers a look at current population processes as hinted at by the subtitle of the publication The presentation and evaluation of processes require more dynamic forms of cartographic visualisation and new methods of investigation Among them new tools of segregation measurement various approaches for the use of mobile phone data and an innovative form of population forecast are presented in the book The common thread connecting all chapters is a regional focus on Prague and the Central Bohemian Region and a quantitative approach to comparing spatial patterns and regional processes

Himalayan Quality of Life Benjamin L. Saitluanga, 2017-04-18 The book is a study of intra urban inequality in quality of life QOL in Aizawl city The main objectives of the study include analysis of processes and patterns of social differentiation along the three dimensional space of Aizawl city as well as analysis of spatial inequality in QOL at the lowest administrative structure of the city An investigation into spatial pattern of residential differentiation was done at both horizontal and vertical spaces Spatial variation in well being of residents of Aizawl city and the quality of their immediate environment was also studied by taking both objective and subjective indicators The study employed a number of descriptive inferential and multivariate statistical techniques including correlation factor analysis principal component analysis cluster analysis and spatial autocorrelation methods like Moran's I and Local Indicators of Spatial Association LISA Mapping techniques and graphical methods like Choropleth map histogram and line graph were also used With the help of factor analysis the social space of Aizawl city was found to be differentiated along socio economic status family status household size status workers status and ethnic status The most important factor determining residential differentiation was socio economic status Choropleth map of factor scores reveals that the inner city localities were dominated by high socio economic class while poorer people dominated the peripheries Non local ethnic minorities were few but concentrated in some adjoining peripheral localities as well as in inner city localities which have been inhabited by their ancestors since the colonial period Vertical pattern of residential differentiation was also analyzed by taking income variable as a proxy of socio economic status Multi storey buildings in Aizawl city were co inhabited by both richer people and poorer people The richer people were found at the top floors while the poorer people occupied the basement floors Normally the owners of the buildings were found at the top floors while the basement floors were dominated by the renters Spatial variation in QOL was measured with the help of principal component analysis as a weighting technique by taking variables pertaining to both objective and subjective QOL dimensions The values of composite QOL index showed that the central localities have scored better than their peripheral counterparts Correlation analysis of the relationship between objective indicators and subjective indicators provided a low positive value indicating the absence of relationship between the two dimensions of quality of life Spatial autocorrelation analysis was also performed to see the pattern of clustering of spatially weighted QOL variables across Local Councils With the help of Global Moran's I spatial clusters and spatial outliers were observed for objective dimension of QOL within the study area The value of Moran's I was found to be insignificant for subjective QOL dimension indicating the absence of significant pattern of clustering The study also identified 7 social areas of Aizawl city on the basis of factor scores and composite scores of QOL variables calculated for all Local Councils The identification of clusters was taken out with the help of hierarchical clustering method of cluster analysis These clusters were labeled appropriate names and their characteristics were described in detail The thesis concluded with recommendation of designating these social areas as social development planning zones for obtaining inclusive development

Routledge Revivals: The Design Professions and the Built Environment (1988) Paul L Knox, 2016-10-04 First published in 1988 this book argues that discussions of urban development often neglect to consider that much of the urban environment is designed by architects and planners and that the particular world view of architects and planners is crucial for the way proposals are taken up modified and carried out The author explores the world view of architects and planners considering their approach to design and the factors which influence this work patterns career paths and the firms in which they operate The author also studies their place in the political decision making process as it affects urban questions and then explores how architects and planners roles are changing Geographia Polonica ,1985 A Social Geography of the City David Ley,1983 What are the real social processes and situations that lie behind the maps and census data of urban geographers Ley brings behavioral and humanistic perspectives to the traditional analysis of urban land use and patterns With the focus on the broad historical contexts and social interactions that define the urban experience and mold its patterns he examines the geography of everyday life in the city with attention to the role of culture and values informal social groups and urban institutions and the politics and power relations of the city Special emphasis is given to the quality of city life including some provocative explanations for its geographic variations Illustrated Social Geography Vincent J. Del Casino, Jr.,2009-03-09 Introducing the debates that inform current social geographic research and theory and interrogating the historical development of social geography Social Geography A Critical Introduction explores how urban and rural spaces are organized in ways that construct and maintain social inequality Puts into context the assumptions of various strains of social geographic thought as they have developed historically Assists students in addressing key social geographic questions and methodologies Provides a showcase for cutting edge work in the field Is written in an accessible and lively style setting out a wide breadth of social geographic research Minority Internal Migration in Europe Gemma Catney,2016-04-22 Immigration is a major component of population change for countries across Europe However questions remain about where immigrants go after they arrive in a new country What are the patterns of internal migration of minorities immigrants and their descendants and what are the causes and implications of these flows Migration within a nation state is a powerful force redistributing the population and altering the demographic social and economic composition of regions cities and neighbourhoods Yet relatively little is known about the significance of ethnicity in migration processes or how population movement contributes to immigrant and ethnic integration Minority internal migration is an emerging field of academic interest in many European countries in the context of high levels of immigration and increased political interest in inter ethnic relations and place based policies This book brings together experts in the fields of migration ethnicity and diversity from across Europe to examine patterns of residential mobility of minorities and to synthesise key themes theories and methods The analyses presented make important contributions to theories of migration and minority integration and may inform policies that aim to respond to local population change and increasing diversity The conclusions of the book form an agenda for future research on minority and immigrant internal migration in developed societies International Seminar on Urban Social Geography ,1996 The Blackwell City Reader Gary Bridge,Sophie Watson,2010-03-08 Updated to reflect the most current thinking on urban studies The Blackwell City Reader Second Edition features a comprehensive selection of multidisciplinary readings relating to the analysis and experience of global cities Includes new sections of materialities and mobilities to capture the most recent debates The most international reader of its kind including extensive coverage of urban issues in Asia China and India Combines theoretical approaches with a wide range of geographical case studies Organized to be used as a stand alone text or alongside Blackwell's A Companion to the City
