strong connection that Indo Canadians continue to forge with their homeland The Roman-Urdu Journal ,1881 The Hindustan Review ,1909 INFA Press and Advertisers Year Book ,1972 All India Directory of Manufacturers and Dealers: Chemicals ,1966 The INFA Press Year Book ,1963 Benn's Press Directory ,1978 The Press in Colonial India Nayeem Showkat,2025-09-30 This book examines the history of the press in the princely state of Jammu and Kashmir under the British Raj Based on extensive archival data the author meticulously traces and documents the history of freedom of the press speech and assembly as well as the restrictions imposed in the princely state of Jammu and Kashmir during British colonialism Structured chronologically the book presents a historical narrative of the press in the state during the Dogra period 1846 1947 and further shows the continuities during the decade of Partition 1947 1957 It analyses a novel aspect of communication by examining symbolic resources and the communication history of the region The book sheds light on the significant role of culture as a form of political and mass communication particularly in the absence of newspapers bringing forth previously undisclosed aspects to the public domain Presenting a comprehensive legal history of the press in the princely state of Jammu and Kashmir the book will be of interest to those intrigued by the history of South Asia Media and Communication Studies and Journalism Bengali Cinema Sharmistha Gooptu,2010-11 Covering the years spanning cinema s emergence as a popular form in Bengal in the first half of the twentieth century this book examines the main genres and trends produced by this cinema and leads up to Bengali cinema s last phase of transition in the 1980s Arguing that Bengali cinema has been a key economic and social institution the author highlights that the Bengali filmic imaginary existed over and above the imaginary of the Indian nation This book argues that a definitive history of Bengali cinema presents an alternative understanding to the currently influential notion of the Hindi film as the Indian or national cinema It suggests that the Bengali cinema presents a history which brings to the fore the deeply contested terrain of national cinema and shows the creation of the alternative imaginary of the Bengali film The author indicates that the case of the Bengali cinema demonstrates the emergence of a public domain that set up a definitive discourse of difference with respect to the all India Hindi film popularly classified as Bollywood cinema and which pre empted its subsumption within the more pervasive culture of the Bombay Hindi cinema As the first comprehensive historical work on Bengali cinema this book makes a significant contribution to both Film and Cultural Studies and South Asian Studies in general *Swami Brahmanand Tirth J.
