Wait Time Memoir Cancer Writing:

Reading and Writing Cancer Susan Gubar, 2016-05-17 An important addition to the literature of cancer by an award winning scholar and memoirist Elaborating upon her Living with Cancer column in the New York Times Susan Gubar helps patients caregivers and the specialists who seek to serve them In a book both enlightening and practical she describes how the activities of reading and writing can right some of cancer s wrongs To stimulate the writing process she proposes specific exercises prompts and models In discussions of the diary of Fanny Burney the stories of Leo Tolstoy and Alice Munro numerous memoirs novels paintings photographs and blogs Gubar shows how readers can learn from art that deepens our comprehension of what it means to live or die with the disease From a writer whose own memoir Memoir of a Debulked Woman Enduring Ovarian Cancer was described by the New York Times Book Review as moving and instructive and incredibly brave this volume opens a path to healing

The Role of Conflict on the Individual and Society Theresa MacNeil-Kelly, 2020-07-08 The Role of Conflict on Society and the Individual uses a variety of interdisciplinary approaches to explore how humans both observe and confront our differences with one another and with the world around us Contributors examine conflict in various contexts including conflict within families interracial relationships sports society and ourselves to determine how conflict manifests itself in our everyday lives

Writing & Selling Your Memoir Paula Balzer, 2011-07-09 There s more to writing a memoir than just writing your life story A memoir isn t one long diary entry Rather it s a well crafted story about a crucial often exceptionally difficult time in someone s life Writing Selling Your Memoir talks readers through the process of telling their most personal stories in a compelling relatable and readable manner Unlike other books dedicated to the art and craft of writing memoir it teaches readers how to approach the genre with love respect and know how without sentimentalizing it Drawing on her experience working with New York Times best selling memoirists literary agent Paula Balzer carefully explores the genre and provides readers with step by step instruction on how to Identify strong opening and closing points Find and develop a strong central hook that readers can relate to Structure a memoir to maximize readability Use dialogue and pacing to enhance intimacy Approach honesty and truthfulness Build a successful author platform around their memoir Get an agent s attention Get published Full of tips techniques detailed exercises and examples from best selling memoirs as well as sidebars from well known memoir authors Writing Selling Your Memoir teaches you how to approach an often tricky genre and tell your story without sentimentalizing it

Wait Time Kenneth Sherman, 2015-12-16 When poet and essayist Kenneth Sherman was diagnosed with cancer he began keeping a notebook of observations that blossomed into this powerful memoir With incisive and evocative language Sherman presents a clear eyed view of what the cancer patient feels and thinks His narrative voice is personal but not confessional practical but not cold thoughtful and searching but not self pitying or self absorbed The author s wait time for surgery on a malignant tumour was exceptionally long and riddled with bureaucratic bumbling thus he asks our health care providers and administrators if our system cannot be made efficient and more humane While he is honest about what is good and bad in our system he is not stridently political or given to directing blame His narrative is interwoven with engaging ruminations on the meaning of illness in society and is peppered with references to other writers thoughts on the subject A widely published poet Sherman helps the reader understand the deep connection between disease and creativity the ways in which we write out of our suffering Wait Time will be of special interest to anyone facing a serious illness as well as to health care providers social workers and psychologists working in the field Its thoughtful observations on health life priorities time and mortality will make it of interest to all readers
