Regimes of Value in Tourism

Emilie Crossley, David Picard, 2017-10-02 Drawing from ethnographic work in five continents this book demonstrates how different regimes of value in tourism can coexist collide and compete across a varied geographic terrain Much theory in tourism economics defines value as a measure of monetary worth a concept governing commodity exchange and a gauge for tourist satisfaction The research included in this volume shows that tourism not only feeds off existing conceptions of value as a monetary category but that it is also instrumental in reproducing and reinforcing those subjective morally heightened and highly intangible values that make tourism and the tourism economy a complex social cultural political and psychological phenomenon The book pushes the debate about the tourism economy beyond a simplistic understanding of producer consumer relations instead suggesting a refocus on the social spatial and temporal lags in tourism production and the ensuing differentiated regimes of values This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change

Theming Asia

Maribeth Erb, Chin Ee

Ong, 2018-10-18 Theming Asia Culture Nature and Heritage in a Transforming Environment presents a theoretical thematic and empirical examination of theming theme parks and themed spaces in contemporary Asia Drawing on cases from China Hong Kong Japan Kazakhstan Malaysia and Singapore it details how the proliferation of theming in places of consumption education entertainment and everyday life has shaped the social and spatial terrains of modern day Asia This is done largely through the radical transformation of ideas of culture nature and heritage a theoretical and empirical area that warrants urgent and dedicated scholarly inquiry Providing an innovative study of theme parks and themed spaces in contemporary Asia this publication highlights the critical role of theming in the making ordering branding as well as contestation of cultural natural and heritage places The intersections of these processes are foregrounded within the context of Disneyization the experience economy imagineered spaces and debates over authenticity and superficiality A diverse range of case studies as well as a general theoretical introduction give much room for revisiting and reimagining issues of culture and nature in a transforming Asia This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Methods, Moments, and Ethnographic Spaces in Asia Nayantara Sheoran Appleton, Caroline Bennett, 2021-04-15 Asia is changing Socio political shifts in the world economy technological advances of monumental scales movements of people and ideas alongside ongoing post colonization projects across the region have created an emerging Asia one confident and assertive of its place in the contemporary geopolitical sphere As political and economic powers reassert Asian sovereignty in opposition to perceived Northern dominance and dramatic and rapid development in the region shift the relationship between the centre and the periphery new renderings and imaginations of hierarchies of identity and power come to the fore This changing environment leads to emerging challenges for anthropologists working in the region both those who have been working there for years and new scholars entering the field This volume considers these changes and the implications of this on our practice By focusing on Asia as a site of enquiry the contributors to this book discuss tensions and opportunities arising in their ethnographic fieldwork in light of a changing Asia Drawing on personal reflections on Asia's global positioning in this contemporary moment the contributors consider how fieldwork is being negotiated within the changing dynamics of anthropology in the region This book then is a discussion on the shifting landscape of field sites and the resultant emerging research methodologies and is aimed at those who are already deeply immersed in fieldwork as well as those who are seeking ways to undertake it Planetary Biostyles Rodanthi Tzanelli, 2025-01-09 This innovative book addresses what life is in scholarship and public culture explores how it has been valued in the Anthropocene since the birth of critical theory and designs a new approach to understanding biographical styles of life or biostyles Locating Imagination in Popular Culture Nicky van Es, Stijn Reijnders, Leonieke Bolderman, Abby Waysdorf, 2020-12-29 Locating Imagination in Popular Culture offers a multi disciplinary account of the ways in which popular culture tourism and notions of place intertwine in an environment characterized by ongoing processes of globalization digitization and an increasingly ubiquitous nature of multi media Centred around the concept of imagination the authors demonstrate how popular culture and media are becoming increasingly important in the ways in which places and localities are imagined and how they also subsequently stimulate a desire to visit the actual places in which people's favourite stories are set With examples drawn from around the globe the book offers a unique study of the role of narratives conveyed through media in stimulating and reflecting desire in tourism This book will have appeal in a wide variety of academic disciplines ranging from media and cultural studies to fan and tourism studies cultural geography literary studies and cultural sociology
