Waging Reconciliation Gods Mission In A Time Of Globalization And Crisis:

Waging Reconciliation Ian T. Douglas, 2000-01-01 On September 20 2001 the planned date of the meeting of the Community of Bishops of the Episcopal Church was radically altered by the events of the previous week The planned topic was God s Mission God s Work in a Global Communion of Difference which was to focus on reconciliation within the Anglican Communion World events changed that The essays of this book are the papers delivered at that meeting which evoked a perspective at once personal and yet global in a new way In the chapel where the meeting was held there was a cross with Christ holding a hammer The Presiding Bishop spoke of this cross as being about the concept described in the Hebrew phrase tikkun olam or repair of the world The ensuing bishops pastoral letter to the church stated Let us therefore wage reconciliation Let us offer our gifts for the carrying out of God s ongoing work of reconciliation healing and making all things new To this we pledge ourselves and call our church

Church, Identity, and Change David A. Roozen, James R. Nieman, 2005-05-02 Since colonial days religious work in American has happened through denominations At least since the start of the twentieth century these religious bodies consisted of a fairly tight intra denominationally connected system of congregations regional judicatories and national offices This system was the product of more than two centuries of consolidation among Americanbs historic immigrant and indigenous churches The vast majority of these structures are still in place retain some semblance of internal coherence have considerable social and religious significance and will be with us for the foreseeable future Nevertheless the stresses upon them today clearly indicate that they are entering an unsettled period of transition The purpose of this book is to examine the national structures of eight diverse Protestant denominations as a part of that shift The frame of this study is the relationship between the theological and organizational nature of national denominational structures as they adapt to the changing situation of the twenty first century

I Have Called You Friends Frank T. Griswold, Barbara Braver, 2006-05-25 Throughout his nine year term as Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church Frank T Griswold has taught about reconciliation conversation conversion communion all grounded in Jesus meeting us in all our particularities and isolation and calling us into the ever greater friendship of the Holy Spirit It seemed natural then that a book of essays in honor of the Presiding Bishop at the end of his term should take reconciliation as its theme Each of the contributors church leaders from all over the globe focuses in his or her own way on reconciliation and our participation in what God has already accomplished through Christ I Have Called You Friends is a proper and loving gift to man who has served as the overseer of the Episcopal Church and as a teacher and a friend But it is more than that It is an enterprise in theological reflection on a vital topic for citizens of the twenty first century

Chasing Down a Rumor Robert Bacher, Kenneth Inskeep, 2005-03-15 Are the denominations really dying Two experienced church watchers who have lived the question on a daily basis provide statistics insights and hope that the rumor is premature

Going Global with God Titus Leonard Presler, 2010-10 Explores the gifts and challenges of grassroots mission initiative in a world of difference In this stimulating new work congregations and church leaders at every level can gain the theological and practical background to build mission relationships marked by companionship reconciliation and mutuality

Whole and Reconciled Al Tizon, 2018-10-16 The ministry of reconciliation is the new whole in holistic ministry It must be if the Christian mission is to remain relevant in our increasingly fractured world This book offers a fresh treatment of holistic ministry that takes the role of reconciliation seriously rethinking the meaning of the gospel the nature of the church and the practice of mission in light of globalization post Christendom and postcolonialism It also includes theological and practical resources for effectively engaging in evangelism compassion and justice and reconciliation ministries Includes a foreword by Ruth Padilla DeBorst and an afterword by Ronald J Sider

God's Tapestry William M. Kondrath, 2008-04-14 Our differences are our greatest blessings and our greatest challenges maintains William Kondrath Episcopal priest and seminary professor Theologically and ecologically differences foster life and growth but discord within denominations and congregations frequently have to do with the inability of individuals and groups to deeply understand and value differences In God's Tapestry Kondrath shows us how to embrace our multiculturalism our differences of race culture gender age theology language sexual identity and so forth He does this by exploring differences on four levels personal interpersonal institutional and cultural He also demonstrates a threefold process for becoming multicultural recognizing our differences understanding those differences and their significance and consequences and valuing or celebrating those differences While ministry is the work of the faith community not only ordained or professional staff it is critical that leaders learn the art and skill of recognizing understanding and valuing differences Then the congregations and agencies they serve having learned and practiced the art and skill of celebrating differences can be the yeast that brings this awareness of God's diverse blessings to the wider world

Edinburgh 2010 Daryl Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010-08-01 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multidenominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions. These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century. The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010 witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God's purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide. Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2-6 June 2010. There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world.

Book jacket Understanding the Windsor Report, 2003 was a tempestuous year in the Anglican Communion. The Episcopal Church USA gave its canonical consent to the election of an openly gay priest, the Rev V Gene Robinson. In the Anglican Church of Canada a Diocese authorized a liturgical rite for the blessing of same sex unions. Responding to the outcry from many parts of the Anglican Communion, the Archbishop of Canterbury appointed a special commission to analyze the events and make recommendations for preserving unity amid disagreement. The commission's findings published as The Windsor Report in October 2004 have generated as much controversy as the events that prompted them. But what does the report actually mean to the Episcopal Church? A comprehensive summary by Jan Nunley of the report and its aftermath puts those questions into context while a conversational commentary organized around important themes by Douglas and Zahl, two very different voices, reflects on its recommendations and implications for the future of the church.
