Tibet Escape From The Roof Of The World:

Tibet Dieter Glogowski, Franz Binder, 2008 Each year more than 3 000 Tibetans secretly flee their homeland over the Himalayas The photography of Dieter Glogowski and insightful texts by Franz Binder paint a comprehensive picture of the history and the current situation in Tibet To show readers the treacherous landscapes that many Tibetan children cross when they flee the country Glogowski accompanied two local children over the 19 000 foot high Nangpala Pass en route to Nepal His photos present a re enactment of the dangers involved in this journey The Museum on the Roof of the World Clare E. Harris, 2012-10-30 For millions of people around the world Tibet is a domain of undisturbed tradition the Dalai Lama a spiritual guide By contrast the Tibet Museum opened in Lhasa by the Chinese in 1999 was designed to reclassify Tibetan objects as cultural relics and the Dalai Lama as obsolete Suggesting that both these views are suspect Clare E Harris argues in The Museum on the Roof of the World that for the past one hundred and fifty years British and Chinese collectors and curators have tried to convert Tibet itself into a museum an image some Tibetans have begun to contest This book is a powerful account of the museums created by for or on behalf of Tibetans and the nationalist agendas that have played out in them Harris begins with the British public s first encounter with Tibetan culture in 1854 She then examines the role of imperial collectors and photographers in representations of the region and visits competing museums of Tibet in India and Lhasa Drawing on fieldwork in Tibetan communities she also documents the activities of contemporary Tibetan artists as they try to displace the utopian visions of their country prevalent in the West as well as the negative assessments of their heritage common in China Illustrated with many previously unpublished images this book addresses the pressing question of who has the right to represent Tibet in museums and beyond Around the Roof of the World Nicholas Shoumatoff, Nina Shoumatoff, 2000 Travelers and mountaineers recount their journeys and discoveries in some of the most remote places in the world From China to Hkamti Long Francis Kingdon Ward, 1924 Out of This World Lowell Thomas Jr., 2017-07-31 In 1949 renowned travel writer Lowell Thomas Jr along with his father the American writer and broadcaster best known as the man who made Lawrence of Arabia famous was invited by the Tibetan government to make a film there in the hope that their reports would help persuade the U S government to defend Tibet against the Chinese The trip lasted 400 days and the father and son team were the last Westerners to reach Lhasa before the Chinese invasion and occupation The trek garnered worldwide attention when Lowell Thomas Jr succeeded in getting his father safely across the Himalayas to India after a serious accident on a 17 000 foot pass Out of This World which was first published in 1950 and became a bestseller tells the story of this journey that the author describes as a climax to his father s lifetime of adventure and probably the greatest travel adventure I will ever have A thoroughly gripping autobiography Escape from the Land of Snows Stephan Talty, 2011-01-18 The remarkable true story of the miraculous journey that made the Dalai Lama into the man he is today and sparked the fight for Tibetan freedom A hair raising tale of daring and escape The Washington Post In the early weeks of 1959 a bloody uprising gripped the streets of the Tibetan capital of Lhasa as ragtag Tibetan rebels faced off against their Communist Chinese occupiers Realizing that the impending battle would result in a bloodbath and his own capture the young Dalai Lama began planning an audacious escape to India a two week journey that would involve numerous near death encounters a dangerous mountain crossing and evading thousands of Chinese soldiers who were intent on hunting him down The journey would transform this naive young man into one of the world's greatest statesmen and create an enduring beacon of hope for a nation Emotionally powerful and irresistibly page turning Escape from the Land of Snows is simultaneously a portrait of the inhabitants of a spiritual nation forced to take up arms in defense of their ideals and the saga of a burgeoning leader who was ultimately transformed into the towering figure the world knows today a charismatic champion of free thinking and universal compassion

Tears of Blood Mary Craig, 2000-09-22 Since 1959 when China claimed power over this tiny mountain nation more than one million Tibetans are believed to have perished by starvation execution imprisonment and abortive uprisings Many thousands more including their spiritual and political leader the fourteenth Dalai Lama have been driven into exile The country has been systematically colonized so that indigenous inhabitants are now a second class minority Not only are Tibetans being squeezed out by Chinese settlers but there are reports of Tibetan women being forcibly sterilized and of healthy full term babies being killed at birth Thousands of Tibetans languish in prison and suffer appalling torture Rich mineral resources have been plundered and the delicate ecosystem devastated Buddhism the life blood of Tibet has been ruthlessly suppressed Mary Craig tells the story of Tibet with candor and power Based upon extensive research and interviews with large numbers of refugees now living in exile in India this book presents four decades of religious persecution environmental devastation and human atrocities that have caused Tibetans to weep tears of blood

Himalayan Enchantment Francis Kingdon Ward, 1990 The last of the great plant hunters Frank Kingdon Ward undertook 25 major expeditions over a period of nearly 50 years and collected and numbered more than 23 000 plants English gardens are still enriched by the poppies lilies primulas rhododendrons and many other plants that he introduced

Tibet Bradley Mayhew, Michael Kohn, 2005 With an inspirational trekking chapter this guide offers new itineraries detailing traditional routes as well as remote destinations for more adventurous travelers of color 48 maps

Twentieth-Century Literary Encounters in China Jeffrey Mather, 2019-10-10 From the travel writing of the eccentric plant collector and Reginald Farrer to Emily Hahn's insider depictions of bohemian life in semi colonial Shanghai to Ezra Pound's mediated journeys to Southwest China via the explorer Joseph Rock Anglo American representations of China during the first half of the twentieth century were often unconventional in terms of style form and content By examining a range of texts that were written in the flux of travel including poems novels autobiographies this study argues that the tumultuous social and political context of China's Republican Period 1912-49 was a key setting for conceptualizing cultural modernity in global and transnational terms In contrast with accounts that examine China's influence on Western modernism through language translation and discourse the book recovers a materialist engagement with landscapes objects and things as transcribed through travel ethnographic encounter and embodied experience The book is organized by three themes which suggest formal strategies through which notions cultural modernity were explored or contested borderlands cosmopolitan performances and mobile poetics As it draws from archival sources in order to develop these themes this study offers a place based historical perspective on China s changing status in Western literary cultures
