Topics In Language Resources For Translation And Localisation Benjamins Translation Library:

Topics in Language Resources for Translation and Localisation Elia Yuste Rodrigo, 2008 Language Resources LRs are sets of language data and descriptions in machine readable form such as written and spoken language corpora terminological databases computational lexica and dictionaries and linguistic software tools Over the past few decades mainly within research environments LRs have been specifically used to create optimise or evaluate natural language processing NLP and human language technologies HLT applications including translation related technologies Gradually the infrastructures and exploitation tools of LRs are being perceived as core resources in the language services industries and in localisation production settings However some efforts ought yet to be made to raise further awareness about LRs in general and LRs for translation and localisation in particular to a wider audience in all corners of the world Topics in Language Resources for Translation and Localisation sets out to establish the state of the art of this ever expanding field and underscores the usefulness that LRs can potentially have in the process of creating adapting managing standardising and leveraging content for more than one language and culture from various perspectives Agents of Translation John Milton, Paul Fadio Bandia, 2009-01-01 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session

Specialised Translation M. Rogers, 2015-05-26 This book shifts the common perception of specialised or LSP translation as necessarily banal and straightforward towards a more realistic understanding of it as a complex and multilayered phenomenon which belies its standard negative binary definition as non literary The Oxford Handbook of Computational Linguistics Ruslan Mitkov, 2022-06-02 Ruslan Mitkov s highly successful Oxford Handbook of Computational Linguistics has been substantially revised and expanded in this second edition Alongside updated accounts of the topics covered in the first edition it includes 17 new chapters on subjects such as semantic role labelling text to speech synthesis translation technology opinion mining and sentiment analysis and the application of Natural Language Processing in educational and biomedical contexts among many others The volume is divided into four parts that examine respectively the linguistic fundamentals of computational linguistics the methods and resources used such as statistical modelling machine learning and corpus annotation key language processing tasks including text segmentation anaphora resolution and speech recognition and the major applications of Natural Language Processing from machine translation to author profiling The book will be an essential reference for researchers and students in computational linguistics and Natural Language Processing as well as those working in related industries Corpus Use and Translating Allison Beeby, Patricia Rodríguez Inés, Pilar Sánchez-Gijón, 2009-03-11 Professional translators are increasingly dependent on electronic resources and trainee translators need to develop skills that allow them to make the best use of these resources The aim of this book is to show how CULT Corpus Use for Learning to Translate methodologies can be used to prepare learning materials and how novice translators can become autonomous users of corpora Readers interested in translation studies translator training and corpus linguistics will find the book particularly useful Not only does it include practical technical advice for using and learning to use corpora but it also addresses important issues such as the balance between training and education and how CULT methodologies reinforce student autonomy and responsibility Not only is this a good introduction to CULT but it also incorporates the latest developments in this field showing the advantages of using these methodologies in competence based learning

Translation as Intercultural Communication Mary Snell-Hornby, Zuzana Jettmarová, Klaus Kaindl, 1997-08-21 This selection of 30 contributions 3 workshop reports 27 papers from 14 countries concentrates on intercultural communication in its broadest sense themes vary from dissident translation under the Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines and translation as a process of power in the 3rd world context to drama translation and the role of the cognitive sciences in translation theory Topics of current interest such as media interpreting news translation advertising subtitling and the ethics of translation have a prominent position as does the Workshop Contact as Conflict which discusses the phenomenon of the hybrid text as a result of the translation process The volume closes with the EST Focus debate on thorny issues of Methodology Policy and Training The volume demonstrates clearly the richness and breadth of the topics dealt with in Translation Studies today along with its complex interaction with neighbouring disciplines

Decentering Translation Studies Judy Wakabayashi, Rita Kothari, 2009-11-12 This book foregrounds practices and discourses of translation in several non Western traditions Translation Studies currently reflects the historiography and concerns of Anglo American and European scholars overlooking the full richness of translational activities and diverse discourses The essays in this book which generally have a historical slant help push back the geographical and conceptual boundaries of the discipline They illustrate how distinctive historical social and philosophical contexts have shaped the ways in which translational acts are defined performed viewed encouraged or suppressed in different linguistic communities The volume has a particular focus on the multiple contexts of translation in India but also encompasses translation in Korea Japan and South Africa as well as representations of Sufism in different contexts

Efforts and Models in Interpreting and Translation Research Gyde Hansen, Andrew Chesterman, Heidrun Gerzymisch-Arbogast, 2009-01-05 This volume covers a wide range of topics in Interpreting and Translation Research Some deal with scientometrics and the history of Interpreting Studies arguments about conceptual analysis meta language and interpreters risk taking strategies Other papers are on research skills like career management writing communicative abstracts and the practicalities of survey research Several contributions address empirical issues such as expertise in Simultaneous Interpreting the cognitive load imposed on interpreters by a non native accent the impact of intonation on interpreting quality linguistic interference in Simultaneous Interpreting similarities between translation and interpreting and the relation between translation competence and revision competence The collection is a tribute to Daniel Gile in appreciation of his creativity and his commitment to interpreting and translation research All the contributions in some way show his influence or are related to the models and research he has shaped

Basic Concepts and Models for Interpreter and Translator Training Daniel Gile, 2009 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session

Nonverbal Communication and Translation Fernando Poyatos, 1997-04-03 This is the first book within the interdisciplinary field of Nonverbal Communication Studies dealing with the specific tasks and problems involved in the translation of literary works as well as film and television texts and in the live experience of simultaneous and consecutive interpretation The theoretical and methodological ideas and models it contains should merit the interest not only of students of literature professional translators and translato logists interpreters and those engaged in film and television dubbing but also to literary readers film and theatergoers linguists and psycholinguists semioticians communicologists and crosscultural anthropologists Its sixteen contributions by translation scholars and professional interpreters from fifteen countries deal with discourse in translation intercultural problems narrative literature theater poetry interpretation and film and television dubbing

Language, Literature and Translation in Malaysia and Indonesia Hasuria Che Omar, Wan Rose Eliza Abdul Rahman, Rudi Hartono, This book delves into the shared sociocultural fabric of Malaysia and Indonesia exploring language literature and translation within these nations It fills a critical gap in current discussions offering a comprehensive resource for students researchers and language professionals By fostering multidisciplinary dialogues it aims to enhance understanding between the two nations With a focus on the dual role of translation as both a subject of study and a tool for communication this book serves as a key guide for those interested in the dynamic linguistic landscapes of Malaysia and Indonesia

Text, Speech and Dialogue Petr Sojka, Aleš Horák, Ivan Kopeček, Karel Pala, 2014-09-01 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th International Conference on Text Speech and Dialogue TSD 2013 held in Brno Czech Republic in September 2014 The 70 papers presented together with 3 invited papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 143 submissions They focus on topics such as corpora and language resources speech recognition tagging classification and parsing of text and speech speech and spoken language generation semantic processing of text and speech integrating applications of text and speech processing automatic dialogue systems as well as multimodal techniques and modelling

Between Text and Image Delia Chiaro, Christine Heiss, Chiara Bucaria, 2008 This book sets out to establish the state of the art of screen translation and at the same time to underscore the work of scholars following new paths of investigation both in terms of innovative linguistic mediations being examined and pioneering experimental design The volume includes descriptions of sophisticated electronic databases and corpora of audiovisual products for the big and small screen and the rationale behind them Furthermore Between Text and Image also includes a number of cutting edge studies in audience perception of audiovisual products Finally the volume does not fail to ignore examples of original research carried out from both a traditional linguistic viewpoint and from a more cultural perspective

P 4 de la couv Voices of the Invisible Presence Kumiko Torikai, 2009 Voices of the Invisible Presence Diplomatic interpreters in post World War II Japan examines the role and the making of interpreters in the social political and economic context of postwar Japan using oral history as a method The primary questions addressed are what kind of people became interpreters in post WWII Japan how they perceived their role as interpreters and what kind of role they actually played in foreign relations In search of answers to these questions the living memories of five prominent interpreters were collected in the form of life story interviews which were then categorized based on Pierre Bourdieu's concept of habitus field and practice The experiences of pioneering simultaneous interpreters are analyzed as case studies drawing on Erving Goffman's participation framework and the notion of kurogo in Kabuki theatre leading to the discussion of the visibility of interpreters and their perception of language culture and communication

Teaching Translation and Interpreting 3 Cay Dollerup, Vibeke Appel, 1996 Selected papers from the Third Language International Conference on Translator and Interpreter Training Capping the series of conferences on this theme in Denmark the present volume brings together a choice selection of the papers read by scholars and teachers from five continents and within all specialities in Translation Studies In combination with the two previous volumes of the same title the book offers an up to date comprehensive representative overview focusing on main issues in teaching in the relatively new field of translation There are informed and incisive discussions of subtitling interpreting and translation spanning from its historical beginnings to presentations of machine translation and predictions of the future of translation work Contributions ranging from discussions on the interplay between theory and teaching teaching literary translation introducing students to central issues in translation practice and historical and social issues in teaching translation

Why Translation Studies Matters Daniel Gile, Gyde Hansen, Nike Kocijan, Pokorn, 2010-01-01 Whether Translation Studies really matters is an important and challenging question which practitioners of translation and interpreting raise repeatedly TS scholars many of whom are translators and interpreters themselves are not indifferent to it either The twenty papers of this thematic volume contributed by authors from various parts of Europe from Brazil and from Israel address it in a positive spirit Some do so through direct critical reflection and analysis arguing in particular that the engagement of TS with society should be strengthened so that the latter could benefit more from the former Others illustrate the relevance and contribution of TS to society and to other disciplines from various angles Topics broached include the cultural mediation role of translators issues in literary translation knowledge as intellectual capital globalization through English and risks associated with it bridging languages mass media corpora training the use of modern technology interdisciplinarity with psycholinguistics and neurophysiology

Descriptive Translation Studies and Beyond Gideon Toury, 1995 A replacement of the author's well known book on Translation Theory In Search of a Theory of Translation 1980 this book makes a case for Descriptive Translation Studies as a scholarly activity as well as a branch of the discipline having immediate consequences for issues of both a theoretical and applied nature Methodological discussions are complemented by an assortment of case studies of various scopes and levels with emphasis on the need to contextualize whatever one sets out to focus on Part One deals with the position of descriptive studies within TS and justifies the author's choice to devote a whole book to the subject Part Two gives a detailed rationale for descriptive studies in translation and serves as a framework for the case studies comprising Part Three Concrete descriptive issues are here tackled within ever growing contexts of a higher level texts and modes of translational behaviour in the appropriate cultural setup textual components in texts and through these texts in cultural constellations Part Four asks the question What is knowledge accumulated through descriptive studies performed within one and the same framework likely to yield in terms of theory and practice This is an excellent book for higher level translation courses

The Discourse of Court Interpreting

Sandra Beatriz Hale, 2004-01-01 This book explores the intricacies of court interpreting through a thorough analysis of the authentic discourse of the English speaking participants the Spanish speaking witnesses and the interpreters Written by a practitioner educator and researcher the book presents the reader with real issues that most court interpreters face during their work and shows through the results of careful research studies that interpreter's choices can have varying degrees of influence on the triadic exchange It aims to raise the practitioners awareness of the significance of their choices and attempts to provide a theoretical basis for interpreters to make informed decisions rather than intuitive ones It also suggests solutions for common problems The book highlights the complexities of court interpreting and argues for thorough training for practicing interpreters to improve their performance as well as for better understanding of their task from the legal profession Although the data is drawn from Spanish English cases the main results can be extended to any language combination The book is written in a clear accessible language and is aimed at practicing interpreters students and educators of interpreting linguists and legal professionals

Simultaneous Interpretation Robin Setton, 1999-05-15

Simultaneous interpretation is among the most complex of human cognitive linguistic activities This study which will interest practitioners and trainers as well as linguists draws more on linguistics based theories of cognition in communication cognitive semantics and pragmatics than on the traditional information processing approaches of cognitive psychology and shows SI to be a valuable source of data on language and cognition Starting from semantic representations of input and output in samples of professional SI from Chinese and German into English the analysis explains the classic phenomena anticipation restoration of the implicit explicit balance and communicative re packaging re ostension of the discourse in terms of an intermediate cognitive model in working memory allowing a more unitary view of resource management in the SI task Relevance theoretic analysis of the input discourse reveals rich pragmatic information guiding the construction of the appropriate contexts and the speaker's underlying intentionalities The course of meaning assembly is reconstructed in annotated synchronised transcripts
