Redoing Linguistic Worlds Kris Aric Knisely,Eric Louis Russell,2024-01-16

Language and gender are interconnected social and relational acts through which we constantly remake our worlds. But what happens when our ways of doing gender cannot be neatly categorized into traditional binary systems including not only the social groupings of roles, practices and identities but also the forms and structures through which we do language? This book brings together a broad range of scholars to explore the undoing and redoing of gender binaries in non Anglophone communities and contexts in and through their linguistic and social reimaginings. Each of the contributions to this book reflects on this ongoing change and its place in our everyday lives including the ways that its outcomes are both contested and fluid. This volume represents an important step in scholarship in language and gender, one that stands to inform a public increasingly aware of these remakings and one that calls on all of us to stand in the tensions of our own humanity and look through it for how our languaging might do imaginary worlds that are more equitable, more connected and more just for us all.

HIV/AIDS Education for Adults John P. Egan, 2005. Contributors from the United States, Canada and Australia working in university based and community based environments and for divergent communities present specific experiences in the fight against HIV/AIDS. They share stories of shifting paradigms and challenging norms and of seeking and finding innovation. Topics examined include the struggle for meaning and power in HIV/AIDS education, HIV prevention workers and injection drug users, community based research, grassroots response to HIV/AIDS in Nova Scotia, sex workers and HIV/AIDS education and the Tuskegee Syphilis Study and legacy recruitment for experimental vaccines. By examining HIV/AIDS through an adult education lens, we gain insights into how communities and governments can respond quickly and effectively to emergent health issues and other issues linked to marginalization. This is the 105th issue of the quarterly report series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education.

Counseling Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Substance Abusers Dana G. Finnegan, Emily B. McNally, 2002. This book, a completely revised version of the authors' 1987 Dual Identities, offers insight on the special treatment issues of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender LGBT substance abusers. It describes stages of sexual identity transformation, looks at different counseling approaches and gives practical suggestions for helping clients. Information is accessible to beginning and experienced counselors as well as patients. Finnegan, an alcohol counselor, and McNally, a psychologist and alcohol counselor, are co-founders and current board members of the National Association of Lesbian and Gay Addiction Professionals. c. Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation Tania Ferfolja, Jacqueline Ullman, 2020-05-10. Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation provides an outstanding and insightful critique of the ways that contemporary education is impacted by a range of political, social and cultural influences that inform the approaches that schools take in relation to gender and sexuality diversity. By applying feminist, poststructural and Foucauldian frameworks, the book examines the ongoing impact of broader socio-cultural discourse on the lives of gender and sexuality diverse students and teachers. Beginning with an overview of the impact of how a culture of limitation is realised in Australia, the focus moves beyond this context to examine state and federal policies from comparable societies in countries including the USA and the UK and their effect on the production of knowledges and what s permissible to include in educational curriculum This research driven book thus provides a comparative international overview of the current state of gender and sexuality diversity in schools and convincingly demonstrates that despite some empowerment of gender and sexuality diverse individuals silencing and marginalization remain powerful forces This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students academics professionals and policy makers interested in the field of gender and sexuality in education It is essential reading for those involved in pre service and in service teacher education diversity education the sociology of education as well as education more generally

Queer Politics in Contemporary Turkey Paul Gordon Kramer, 2022-03-23 Drawing on the words and stories of queer Turkish activists this book aims to unravel the complexities of queer lives in Turkey In doing so it challenges dominant conceptualizations of the queer Turkish experience within critical security discourses The book argues that while queer Turks are subjected to ceaseless forms of insecurity in their governance opportunities for emancipatory resistance have emerged alongside these abuses It identifies the ways in which the state the family Turkish Islam and other socially mediated processes and agencies can expose or protect queers from violence in the Turkish community
