Transevolution The Coming Age Of Human Deconstruction:

TransEvolution Daniel Estulin, 2014-01-01 Arguing that the race to better humankind is about to go to a new dimension as a result of a nanotechnological revolution this enthralling read purports that the depth of progress and technological development is such that people in the very near future may no longer be fully human TransEvolution discusses the transition from human to someone or something new and different and the increasing trend of implementing prosthetics organ implants bionic eyes hearing aids and other technological augmentations Humans are capable of doing things they never imagined would be possible 20 years ago and the rapid growth of this trend is nowhere near its end But do the benefits of these advancements come with a price Is humanity in danger because of this domination of science and technology Bestselling author Daniel Estulin describes his vision of the future in which he believes the elite will employ their Promethean plans

Reaching for Immortality: Can Science Cheat Death? Sandra J. Godde, 2022-04-01 At the forefront of science and technology there lie competing ideologies as to the nature of humanity and the future of human flourishing Will technology become the ultimate savior or has the work of salvation already been accomplished Are we only creatures of mind and body or are we spiritual beings at our core Reaching for Immortality bravely examines the agenda and ideals of the transhumanist movement and compares and contrasts these with the biblical vision of a physical resurrection and a divine upgrade of the entire created order Which vision of the future will inspire you and capture your allegiance This book is a primer to provoke deep thought about the impact of technological change on human personhood and asks crucial questions facing our age What does it mean to be human in light of exponential technological growth What is transhumanism and where is it leading us How important is embodiment for our personal identity How would the biblical understanding of personhood survive in a posthuman future

"A Curious Machine" Arseny Ermakov, Glen O'Brien, 2023-09-28

In his sermon What Is Man, John Wesley spoke of the human being as a curious machine, reflecting the eighteenth-century view of the person as a set of complex mechanisms animated by the soul. The rapid rate of technological development in recent decades is opening toward a future in which the centrality and uniqueness of human beings is undergoing a shift. Developments in robotics, artificial intelligence, surveillance, autonomous weapons, human enhancement, and genetic modification raise an array of questions for the Christian tradition. The awareness of the negative impact of human activity on the natural environment is challenging the traditional view of humanity as having a uniquely privileged role at the heart of creation. This collection of essays addresses Wesleyan and broadly Christian voices that explore the theological, philosophical, biblical, ethical, and practical implications of emerging technologies, their impact upon different aspects of human life, and the possibilities that are opening up toward a posthuman future.

The Debilitating Duo Roche Coleman, 2023-10-02

Is it possible to violate God's moral law without experiencing guilt and shame? Can a person silence their conscience from the strange emotions that emerge when one sins? An examination of the original design of humanity in the imago Dei suggests one cannot sin and avoid the debilitating duo. Humanity is created to live within the moral structure established by God. Therefore, a violation of the divine laws, which is sin, leads to guilt and shame. The strange emotions were innate sensations imparted to humanity to stop rebellion against the moral laws and to compel an offender to acknowledge the offense through the confession of sin. Unconfessed sin debilitates the physical and mental functions of a person created in the image of God. Guilt and shame are the strange emotions that serve as mental guardians for an individual as well as for the society in general. The duo was given as silent deterrents to immoral behaviors.
